Service in North Of Interest Here

Of interest to their many friends here was the wedding in Portland Saturday of Miss Gail McCredie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCredie, Jr., of Portland, and William Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cunningham of this city.

The impressive ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Grace Memorial Episcopal church before about 200 friends and relatives. Miss Peggy Colora of Portland and Tom Emmens, son of Mrs. J. J. Emmens of this city, attended the young couple.

The bride wore white satin and lace with a train and veil.

Following the ceremony, bride and groom received their friends at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Phillips in Portland. The couple left for a two weeks' stay in Los Angeles and other California cities. Upon their return they will make their home at Everett Court here, where both are well known.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, parents and aunt and uncle of the groom and E. L. Hiten, another uncle, attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Bickerstaff Here From South.

Arriving from the south by train this morning was Mrs. T. A. Bickerstaff of Mill Valley, Calif., who plans a short stay here.

The Elks May Day dance will be held Saturday night, May 1. This dance is an annual affair and in the past has been one of the outstanding events of the lodge activities. The committee in charge, composed of Stan Sherwood, chairman, Ray Knips, Earl York, Murray Bell, and E. P. "Irish" Coleman, promises that this will be even better than those of the past.

An excellent orchestra has been secured, decorations appropriate to the occasion are being put up and as they are permitting the Elks to invite their friends it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance. Members are requested to get their invitation cards from the secretary.

JACQUELINE M'KEE IN GLEE CONCERT

As guest artist appearing with the Glee-men in their concert May 4, Jacqueline McKee will be a surprise feature. Miss McKee is a protege of Jim Stevens who is tremendously enthusiastic about the artistry and ability of the young lady.

Possessor of a beautiful lyric soprano voice, Miss McKee brings with it a charm and naturalness sure to win the hearts of all in the audience. Her special number will be the "Italian Street Song" from Naughty Marietta, in which she will be accompanied by the 75 male voices of the chorus. All who have heard the rehearsal of this number prophesy that Jacqueline will stop the show and there is no question but that this 18-year-old songbird will be a sensation.

PWA RULE CHANGE SIDETRACKS HEAVY HIGHWAY PROGRAM

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—(AP)—The shift in the public works administration regulations resulted in indefinite postponement of approximately a million dollars of road projects by state highway commission today.

The program involving about 18 projects received the commission's approval when the 45 per cent grant provisions remained in effect. New regulations directing money toward relief labor will leave only 19 to 20 per cent. Chairman Henry F. Cabel pointed out.

The commission will continue now with only two projects involving PWA. One is a maintenance headquarters at Portland costing $35,000. The other is a building for similar purposes at Klamath Falls estimated at $12,000.

Low bids totaling around $475,000 were opened on eight projects in scattered sections of the state including:

Douglas County — Wilson Ranch-Paradise Creek section of Umpqua highway. State project, 2.8 miles resurfacing; also furnishing 12,000 cubic yards crushed gravel in stock pile. Requires approximately 32,000 cubic yards crushed gravel. R. O. Houck, Salem, $45,332.

Klamath County — Bly-Beatty section of Klamath Falls-Lakeview highway. State project. Furnish 5700 cubic yards rock in stock pile. R. O. Dale and Warren Bros., Aberdeen, Wash., $12,500.

Klamath County — Klamath Falls rock construction project on the Dallas California, Greensprings and Klamath Falls-Lakeview highways. State project. Furnish 20,100 cubic yards crushed rock in stock pile. B. I. Stewart & Sons, Medford, $39,250.

PACKING OF COURT AIRED AT ROTARY

An interesting debate on the widely-discussed and highly controversial supreme court issue was the feature of today's Rotary club luncheon meeting at Hotel Medford. Porter J. Neff spoke effectively in favor of the president's proposal to increase the court's membership while William McAllister ably upheld the opposition. Both speakers, prominent lawyers of the city, presented their opinions in splendid manner and furnished an enlightening and enjoyable program for the large attendance of Rotarians and guests.

Evon Armstrong, president of the Berkeley College of Business Administration, concluded the meeting with a few remarks upon the importance of training leaders in the field of modern business. President George Henselman gave a short report upon the participation of the Medford Rotary club in the meeting of the Portland Rotary club in Portland last Tuesday.

'LAW OF ARREST' COP CLASS TOPIC

Expert instruction on the "Law of Arrest" will be given to members of the police training school in session here Wednesday, by detective Orville Williams of Portland. Detective Williams has devoted considerable time to the various legal aspects involved when arrest is made and is regarded as an authority on this subject. He will present his material in non-technical style and it will be of interest to all citizens as well as officers attending the school.

Chief Clatus McCredie is local chairman for the school.

Four more classes, each to be led by a competent instructor, will be held in the weekly series.
