

JUDGE WIMBERLY NAMED TO HEAR FEHL LITIGATION

Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly of Douglas county has been assigned by the state supreme court to hear the civil actions instituted by Earl H. Fehl, now on parole for ballot theft; his mother-in-law, Corintha E. Stalley, and his wife, Electa A. Fehl, according to word received by the district attorney's office.

The estate of Helmroth now contests the litigation. Fehl alleges Helmroth owed more than the amount of the mortgages, and Mrs. Stalley in a suit avers there was an agreement to pay $100 per month to her from the Pacific Record-Herald building rentals.

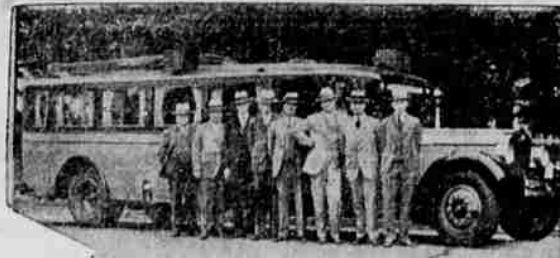

No date has been set for Judge Wimberly to preside, but will probably be here when Douglas county court dockets will permit. Judge Wimberly presided at the interpleader suit filed by Fehl against Niedermeyer, Inc. a year ago.

Fehl, in his complaint, alleges "conspiracy" and claims to still be the "duly elected and qualified county judge."

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton disqualified himself to sit on the case, because of "past experiences."

Apostolic Faith Workers

APOSTOLIC FAITH REVIVAL SUCCESS

Results of the current Apostolic Faith revival campaign were described today as gratifying, those in charge saying they were enthusiastic over the interest that has been shown.

Services are being held at 7:30 each evening, excepting Saturday, at 42 North Front street with Ray R. Crawford, evangelist, and assistants from Portland headquarters in charge. The public is invited to attend.

The meetings here are carried on in much the same order as in Portland where the work was begun 31 years ago by the late Mrs. Florence L. Crawford, mother of the evangelist and overseer who is now here. Assisting in the services are a local 20-piece orchestra, an electric organ, young men's quartet, male chorus, mixed quartet and chorus and a grand chorus of 25 voices.

19 EX-SKIPPERS OF LEGION POST SURVIVE YEARS

In delving into past records of the Medford post of the American Legion, which will celebrate its annual "Past Commander Night" at the Armory tonight, some interesting fact were disclosed. It was discovered that of the 20 past commanders of the post since its organization in 1919, those living total 19. Paul B. McDonald, who served in 1924, is dead.

Official membership figures of the Medford post, released recently from state headquarters, show that Ralph P. Cowgill, in 1919, commanded 300 members. The figure fluctuated until 1928 when the post had a total of 721 members, convention year, and peak of all time. Membership dropped following 1928, but is again increasing, according to Adjutant Lee Garlock. The post had 200 members in 1936.

Following are the past commanders since the post was formed in 1919: Ralph P. Cowgill, 1919; Frank Parrell, 1920; George Coddling, 1921; Elson E. Wilson, 1922; Carl Y. Tenenwald, 1923; Paul B. McDonald, 1924; R. E. McElhose, 1925; Fred W. Scheffel, 1926; Seely V. Hall, 1927; Horace L. Bromley, 1928; E. C. Ferguson, 1929; H. S. Deuel and Wm. S. Bolger, 1930; John T. Holmer, 1931; P. Wilson Walt, 1932; L. C. Garlock, 1933; O. L. Overmyer, 1934; I. E. Poy, 1935; Cole Holmes, 1936; and J. F. Fliegel, 1937.

Past commanders who have moved into the Medford district and belong to the local post at present are John Ender, R. R. Ebel, William Ellenburg, Walter J. Olmscheid, S. B. Humphries, and Walter Johns of Rich.

A large attendance is expected at the meeting tonight. A special program with music and entertainment has been arranged by the committee in charge, and many features are planned.

Following a short business session, which will precede the program, a Dutch lunch will be served members with Capt. O. O. Overmyer as head chef.

Every ex-service man in the county is urged to attend by Post Commander Joe Fliegel, who states that many past commanders of southern Oregon posts have signified their intention of being present.

NEW RECORD SET BY APRIL FROLIC

This year's April Frolic set a new high record for both attendance and net proceeds, it was stated today by

Mrs. F. C. Dillard, publicity chairman, upon completion of tabulations. The annual event was held last Friday night in the Jackson school under sponsorship of the Jackson Parent-Teacher association to raise funds for the school lunchroom which provides midday meals to underprivileged children throughout the winter.

"Patrons seemed to have a better time and they stayed later than ever before," Mrs. Dillard said. "Many attended dinner and concessions were well patronized all evening."

"We want to thank all who helped in the work, the merchants who donated generously and the public for the splendid patronage. We are very grateful and glad that everyone who attended had a good time."

ALBERT JOHNSON, NAVY MAN, DIES

Mrs. George Stevenson, Old Pacific highway north, has just received the sad news of the death of her nephew, Albert Victor Johnson, April 19, at Hankow, China, where he was stationed with the U. S. S. Tutuila on the Yangtze patrol.

He had been with the United States navy on the Tutuila ten years and was expecting to come to the U. S. A. this coming fall on furlough. No details were given as to his death. The navy is sending an escort with the body, which will be buried at his old home in Grand Forks, N. D.

Crew of the Tutuila dramatically rescued seven Americans from the cruel hands of a band of Chinese bandits at Yang Tu Chi, 1269 miles up the Yangtze river from Shanghai, November 16, 1931, after their own boat, the I-Tu, had caught fire and burned. One of the survivors of this rescued group is Rose Liebbrand, Milton, Ore.

MILK GRADING SCHOOL WEDNESDAY THURSDAY

Representatives of the state agricultural department will hold cream, butter, and milk grading schools, at the courthouse auditorium, Wednesday and Thursday, according to advices received by County Agent Robert G. Fowler.

The tests will be under grading laws passed by the last session of the legislature. The grading schools are for Klamath, Josephine, Douglas and Jackson counties.

MYSTERY DRAMA ON HIGH SCHOOL STAGE TONIGHT

An innovation in Medford high school dramatic presentations has been instituted with this year's senior class play which has been scheduled for two performances instead of the usual single appearance.

Curtain on the first performance of "The Leavenworth Case," by Basil Ring, from Anna Katherine Green's most celebrated mystery novel, will rise at 8 o'clock tonight in the senior high school auditorium. Much interest has been aroused in the mystery drama. The play will be presented again tomorrow night at the same time.

Kenneth Scott Wood, director, stated that all of the thrills, suspense and comedy of the novel, which has headed the list of best sellers for years, have been incorporated into the colorful and absorbing play.

Members of the cast are Fred Beck, Corinne Harwood, Carlin Platt, Robert Sage, Dale Sims, Rose Ellen Spinkler, Jean Cully, Jack Denison, Janice Shreve, Betty Mae Childress, Warren Bayless, Dorothy Thomas and June Cook.

Others aiding in the production are: Leland Mentzer, scenery construction; Miss Maurine Carroll, costumes; Mrs. Ruth Sether, make-up; Ardo Stocks, June Cook and Taylor Yocum, stage and property management.

Richard Thierolf, Miss Elizabeth Crisel, Barbara Hampson, Betty Pennington and Jean Platt, business management; Margaret Young, Dorothy Buchter, Nancy Clark, Della Mae Dale, Mita Green, Virginia Hammond, Bette Lee, Virginia Martin, Dorothy Monteth and Grace Turnquist, usheresses; and Wilson Wait and the high school orchestra, music.

SELECT JURY FOR AUTO CRASH CASE

Selection of a jury in the damage suit of C. D. Vroman against Louis J. Upp, for injuries allegedly received in an auto accident at North Central avenue and Fourth street, December 16, started today in circuit court. A special venire was drawn for the trial as follows: Mrs. Dorothy O. Tunney, F. F. Gore, George Wendt, Jacksonville; Lena Heckard, O. O. Alenderet, Jennie M. Clement, J. A. Walker, Beale H. Reames, Arthur F. Hess, Verl G. Walker, Marian Reigel, George F. Landley and Alta A. Newman. All but Wendt are from this city.

Vroman contends in his complaint that Upp crashed into an auto driven by Judd Doty, at the intersection, causing the Doty auto to be hurled against the Vroman machine. In a similar action against Upp by Doty, no damages were allowed Doty by a jury's verdict.

SPANIARD TO TALK AT ACTIVE MEET

Jose Pedrosa, a Spanish citizen now traveling in the United States and at present spending some time in Medford visiting with friends, will address the regular weekly dinner-meeting of the local Active club to be held in the Hotel Medford tonight at 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. Pedrosa will probably speak on the military aspects of the present civil war raging in his native country, according to Darrell Huson, in charge of the program.

In the absence of Dwight Houghton, president who will attend the Southern Oregon Bankers association meeting, the meeting will be presided over by Dr. Stanley Phillips, vice-president.

EVERY WOMAN FACES THIS QUESTION

How do I look to other people? So many women risk their beauty by neglect of constipation. It often causes loss of pep, sallow skins, dull eyes, poor complexions.

Yet common constipation can be ended so easily. Just eat two table-spoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or fruits every day, three times daily in severe cases. This delicious ready-to-eat cereal supplies the "bulk" needed to exercise the system—and vitamin B to help tone up the intestinal tract.

Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs more than twice its weight in water, gently sponging out the intestines. It never causes the artificial action of pills and drugs, that often prove ineffective.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, you see, is a food—not a medicine. It relieves common constipation the way Nature intended—so its results are safe. Buy it at your grocer's. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ORDER FOR GROCERIES APPEASES RELIEFERS

PORTLAND, April 27.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long and their four children from South Dakota received an emergency grocery order from the Multnomah county relief headquarters and ceased picketing. Although they were told transportation home was the only relief possible until they had established a three-year residence in Oregon, Long said he had no intention of leaving the state.
