

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Transact Business—J. P. McDonald and Carl Spencer of this city were among business visitors in Ashland this week.

Tonals Excluded—Miss Evelyn Jack of Eagle Point underwent an operation for the removal of her tonals at the Osteopathic hospital yesterday morning.

Will Initiate—Tallman lodge No. 21, Knights of Pythias, will initiate a class in the knight rank at the next meeting. All members are requested to be present and visiting members are welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Dinner Friday—Townsend club number 1 will be host at a corned beef and cabbage dinner in the K. P. hall at Grape and Fifth at 6:30, April 30. Special entertainment is being arranged. The public is invited.

New Residence—A permit was issued by the city building inspector's office yesterday for construction of a residence at a stated cost of $3000. A permit was also issued to J. L. Harrington of 820 Summit avenue to repair a residence at a stated cost of $50.

Back from California—Miss Mary Maury and her brother, Henry C. Maury, have returned from California, where they sojourned for the past month. The famed Maury ranch was recently sold to Dr. B. R. Elliott and Miss Mary and Henry Maury are moving to the Isaacson home in Central Point.

Church Meeting—Annual meeting of members of the First Baptist church will be held tonight at 7:30. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Mrs. Marie Morton Hansen, former resident of this city, and her husband from Denver, Colo., expect to be present to greet friends. They are visiting here and will continue north tomorrow morning. Mrs. Hansen is well known here.

To Train for Post—Paul Hanlin will leave here Friday evening for Portland where he will spend a month in preparing for his new position as United States deputy marshal in charge of the Medford office. He will take over the office here about June 1. Accompanied by Mr. Hanlin, Deputy Marshal Leo McLain left this morning for Klamath Falls to transport federal prisoners to the Jackson county jail. Mr. McLain and Mr. Hanlin will take the prisoners, together with those now in the jail here, to Portland Friday evening. Mr. McLain will remain in charge of the Medford office until he is relieved by Mr. Hanlin, whereupon he will return to the marshal's staff in Portland.

Visiting Here—Miss Lottie Beswick of Ashland visited friends and shopped in Medford Monday.

From Central Point—Walter Love of Central Point was shopping and calling on friends here today.

To Klamath Falls—Russell Morris, employee of the WPA district office, left this morning for Klamath Falls. He will return tonight.

Hayes Home—Dr. James C. Hayes returned by train this morning from a short business trip to the northern part of the state.

Business Callers—Out-of-town business callers visiting here Monday included Joe Barnum, Don Provoost and W. J. Lane, all of Ashland.

Dinner Guests—Recent Medford visitors in Ashland included Mr. and Mrs. William Dudley who were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Atterbury Sunday.

Attend Meeting—Mrs. Walter Longstreth and Mrs. Edwin Dunn of Ashland were among out-of-town residents attending a recreation Grange leaders' meeting at the courthouse here Monday evening.

To Sponsor Sale—4-H club girls of the Oak Grove district will sponsor a food sale Saturday at the Chevrolet display room at East Main street and Riverside avenue. Proceeds will be used to send as many girls as possible to Corvallis.

Railroad Men Here—William C. Pitch of San Francisco, manager of perishable freight traffic, and H. W. Klein, Portland, general freight agent, both officials of the Southern Pacific railway, were conferring with agents here today.

Airport Arrivals—Four United States marine corps planes refueled at Medford municipal airport today. En route from Oakland, Cal., to Seattle, Wash., they were flown by Maj. B. L. Merritt, Capt. R. A. Lemly, Cadet Robert Foulds and Cadet C. E. Henderson.

Badminton Class—A badminton class sponsored by the Girls' Community club will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Roosevelt school gymnasium. Mrs. W. W. Aldrich will act as instructor. Rackets will be furnished and any girl interested in playing is welcome to attend, those in charge state.

Active Meeting—Jose Pedrosa, Spanish citizen now in the United States, was the principal speaker at last night's meeting of the Active club in the Hotel Medford. Mr. Pedrosa told of the war now raging in Spain. Ernest Freitag, employee of the Shell Oil company, was admitted to the club as a new member.

Embraces Death As Guests Arrive

When guests invited to a "most unusual" cocktail party by Mrs. Helen Mont, beautiful actress-bridge of a fashionable interior decorator, started arriving at the Monts' studio, they found their expected hostess dead on the kitchen floor. A tube in her mouth was connected with a stove burner.

'Frank Billings'

This picture was identified by Mrs. Violet Norton, convicted in Los Angeles on mail fraud charges for attempting to obtain money from Clark Gable, film actor, as one of "Frank Billings," father of her 13-year-old daughter, born in England. In court, Mrs. Norton peered closely at Gable and said she still thought he was "Billings."

Disney's Stars In Craterian Show

Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and Pluto are at the New Craterian theater tomorrow for a three-day run, in their latest Walt Disney colored cartoon, "The Moose Hunters," scheduled to play on the same bill with Joe E. Brown in "When's Your Birthday."

ISAACSON SELLS PROPERTY IN C. P.

Adding to constantly increasing evidence of vigorous business activity in the district was the announcement this morning of the sale of two pieces of property belonging to J. O. Isaacson, prominent Central Point resident and former president of the Central Point state bank.

Special Communication Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & M., Wednesday, April 28th, 8 p. m. Work in P. C. Degree. Visitors welcome. C. M. Houston, W. M. R. E. Sweeney, Secy.

Gentle Jeeves

Arthur Treacher is at the Rialto theater today and tomorrow only, again in the role of P. G. Wodehouse's famed "gentleman's gentleman"—gentle Jeeves. The film is titled "Step Lively, Jeeves," and gives the lean and lanky star his most hilarious situations. He is hooked by crooks in his native England and sent to America as an Earl of much fortune. Everyone tries to mooch from him, from the landlady to the front-row girls in Harlem's burlesque shows. Robert Kent, Patricia Ellis and Alan Dinehart head an important supporting cast.
