Racketeers

"Racketeers in Exile," dramatic story of a public enemy who makes religion a racket and then falls prey to his own false, eloquent preaching, climaxing his career with a ruthless attack on crime, will play tomorrow and Saturday only at the Hault theater.

George Bancroft heads the large cast as "Big Bill" Waldo, a topflight racketeer, with Evelyn Venable, as his town sweetheart, and Wayne Gibson, as his big city "moll," appearing opposite him.

"Roaring Lead," starring Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan and Max Terhune as the "Three Mesquiteras," plays as the added feature with there with a large cocky company.

Chorus Meeting—Jackson County Teachers' chorus will meet for rehearsal Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the courthouse auditorium. This is to be the last practice before the Monday concert in Ashland, those in charge stated.

Dance Saturday—A dance will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday evening in the new Griffin Creek recreational hall under sponsorship of the school board. Proceeds will be applied toward paying for the hall. Refreshments, served by the 4-H club, will be available during the evening. A four-piece orchestra will provide music for the dance.

Joins in Request—Jackson County Chamber of Commerce today joined in a request asking the navy department to display a submarine in Crescent City, Cal., harbor as part of the coast town's celebration on July 4. The chamber was asked to join in the request by Paul A. Brunk of the Crescent City post of the American Legion. Mr. Brunk declared there were probably many Medford residents who would like to have the opportunity to inspect an under-sea craft.

Meeting Scheduled—Reese Creek Gospel mission will hold the annual church meeting Sunday, May 2. All members and friends are invited. A basket dinner is being planned. The Rev. J. A.
