Wins Safety Rating—Bonanza CCC camp has been awarded the Medford district safety banner for another quarter. It was announced today by Maj. George R. Owens, district commander. The camp has been first in safety ratings for some time, not a single accident having been chalked up against it in the past six months. Capt. Winthrop W. Williams is camp commander and Clyde S. Stahl is acting superintendent. Camps Steamboat, Brite Creek, Clear Lake, Lava Beda, Agness and McKinley reported only one accident each in the first 1937 quarter.

Committee to Meet—A B.P.W. committee meeting has been called for this evening at 7:30 in the Hotel Medford. Members requested to be present are Laura York, Mary Louise Foster, Andrietta Hutton, Echo Harbaugh, Clarice Rivers, Goldie Axland, Eva Bavelock and Mary Porter.

Bumper Broken—F. B. Baird of 333 Haven street reported today that when he pulled away from the curb on West Sixth street Tuesday afternoon a car driven by W. T. Wheeler of 905 North Riverside avenue struck his machine, breaking his rear bumper.

Lake Road Cleared—Clearing of Fish lake road to the upper end of the lake was announced today by Rogue River national forest service headquarters. The road is narrow and rough for the last five miles, however, and the greatest of caution was advised. Chains are required and an ax and shovel were recommended as extra car equipment in case of emergencies. Space has been provided by the forest crew for parking and turning at the end of the road.

Utah to Help—Jackson County Chamber of Commerce today received a letter from the office of Gov. Henry H. Blood of Utah in which it was said the state would be glad to contribute a gem or mineral specimen to the chamber's "all-state friendship" display. It was the first reply to the letters sent out last week by the chamber to all governors. It is the chamber's plan to make a display of specimens from all states the nucleus of its permanent gem and mineral exhibit.

"Top of the Town" Coming Sunday to Craterian's Screen

The newest thing in screen musicals, "Top of the Town", comes Sunday to the New Craterian theatre for a three day engagement. Stressing swing music, varied types of comedy developed by ten different comedians, a dancing and singing chorus, "Top of the Town" includes such favorites as Gertrude Niesen, Hugh Herbert, Henry Armetta, Gregory Ratoff, Mischa Auer, George Murphy, Doris Nolan and the Three Sailors and many others of stage, screen and radio.

Chester Morris Here Friday

A timely drama, "I Promise to Pay", smashing story of one man's fearless war against the loan shark racketeers, will be the leading screen attraction on the Rialto theatre's double bill for tomorrow and Saturday. Featured in the cast are Chester Morris, the victim; Helen Mack, his wife; Leo Carrillo, the racketeer, and Thomas Mitchell and Thurston Hall as henchmen.

Chorus Called—All members of the Jackson County Teachers' chorus were asked today by Esther Church Leake, director, to report at the Baldwin piano shop before 8 o'clock tomorrow night. The chorus is to present two groups of numbers as part of the Medford Music club program.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ovelman returned last week from a three weeks' stay at Richardson Springs, Cal., where they went to recuperate from recent illness. They said they enjoyed their stay at the health resort and feel greatly improved.

Mrs. Burelson Better—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burelson returned home by train this morning from San Francisco. Mrs. Burelson underwent a major operation in the Bay City about two weeks ago and Mr. Burelson went down to accompany her home. She is reported recovering nicely.

Pot-Luck Supper—Clarence Meeker's Sunday school class of the First Methodist Episcopal church will hold a pot-luck supper in the church parlors at 7 o'clock next Monday evening. All former, present and prospective members are invited. Each attending is asked to bring a covered-dish and service.

Meeting Changed—Meeting of the Lincoln School Service club has been changed to May 14 from May 7 as previously scheduled, in order to allow members to attend the school fair tonight and tomorrow. A large attendance is asked for the May 14 meeting as business of importance is to come before the group.

Drivers' Tests—Written examinations and road tests for operators and chauffeurs will be given here Saturday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., with Ward McReynolds, state examiner, in charge. Persons wishing permits or licenses to drive cars or trucks are asked to consult Mr. McReynolds in the examination room on the top floor of the city hall.
