Musical Show Coming to Craterian

"Hot Licks," as provided by those four purveyors of laughter—Hugh Herbert, Henry Armetta, Gregory Ratoff and Mischa Auer—give Ella Logan, diminutive newcomer to the screen, some weird musical background for her torrid song numbers in "Top of the Town," coming Sunday to the New Craterian theatre. A swing time musical, an ultra-modern jam hit with a chromatically-plated finish, "Top of the Town" is what might literally be called a "jam-jammed-jamboree," with seven new hit tunes that include the theme number "Top of the Town," and "Where Are You?", "Blame It on the Rhumba," "I Feel That Foolish Feeling Coming On," "There Are No Two Ways About It," "Fireman Save My Child."

Victor McLaglen in Rialto Thriller

The terrific fights which have made screen history (such as in "The Spoilers") are said to be staged in at least one of the four battles staged by Victor McLaglen and Preston Foster in "The Sea Devils," rough and ready drama with a Coast Guard background coming to the Rialto theatre Sunday for a three-day run. McLaglen and Foster appeared together last year in "The Informer," for which McLaglen won the coveted Motion Picture Academy Award for the year's finest piece of acting. Ida Lupino plays the romantic interest and the cause for most of the fights. Foster was actually taken to the hospital after one of the brawls in "Sea Devils."

Singing Cowboy

Dick Foran, the Singing Cowboy, plays his most thrilling role as big Bill Harkness, pony express rider in "California Mail," all-star western thriller coming to the Roxy theatre for tomorrow only with episode four of the serial, "Flash Gordon," on the same bill.

Mediators Draft Findings On S.P.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—(AP)—Members of President Roosevelt's three-man emergency mediation board, their hearings in the Southern Pacific labor controversy virtually ended, began working on a recommendation today to submit to President Roosevelt by May 14. The board seeks to avert a strike of 8,500 members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen.

MARSHFIELD, May 7.—(AP)—"Wilbur," the dead whale on the beach south of Florence, yielded 8320 in ambergris to an unidentified Vancouver, B. C., man, it was reported here today. The one time giant of the deep has given up his jawbone to other souvenir seekers.

BARNES CIRCUS HAS LARGEST GROUP OF BEASTS OF JUNGLE

The largest group of ferocious jungle beasts ever assembled in the history of the world will be seen both in the menagerie and performing in the huge triple steel bar enclosed amphitheatre when the great Al G. Barnes and Sells Floto combined circus visits Medford, Tuesday, May 18, at the circus grounds near Jackson school.

The uniting of these two giants of the country's most complete and finest traveling show. Many rare jungle denizens, as gnus, giant tapirs, yaks and emus, as well as scores of camels, tigers, zebras, lions and all the other better-known, but seldom-seen wild animals are included. Five herds of India and African elephants are also part of the mammoth display.

The hundreds upon hundreds of world-famous arena stars who are a part of the colossal program form the greatest aggregation of talent ever to be seen under one canvas "big top." One of the outstanding features is the amazing, sensational performance given twice daily by Bert Nelson, the greatest wild animal trainer of all times, with 35 untamed, spitting and fighting tigers and lions.

The act, which has never before been attempted, is made possible only because these great circuses pooled their vast resources to purchase the jungle-bred animals. Packed every moment with danger, it is an exhibition of man's daring and power. Viewed with absolutely no danger to the audience, it is a performance that will never be forgotten. Mr. Nelson is a young man still in his twenties. Daily, and with a smile that nothing can erase, and with only a whip and a chair for protection, he puts his snarling charges through their different routines. His is the daring of youth and it is safe to say no man will ever try to emulate him. The meanest animals in the world, who stoutly refuse to be subjugated, do their utmost to kill, only to end by performing the tricks young Mr. Nelson insists upon.

GRAND JURY TO HEAR CASE AGAINST CANNON

Nelson Cannon, 23, was ordered held to await action of the grand jury yesterday when his attorney, A. C. Hough of Grants Pass waived a preliminary hearing in justice court. Bonds were fixed at $2500.

A coroner's inquest returned findings holding Cannon "guilty of a crime" as the result of the death of Francis Lee Heryford, 16, high school student, from injuries sustained when the auto driven by Cannon struck a bicycle ridden by Heryford on North Riverside avenue on the night of April 30.

Cannon was bound over to the grand jury on the coroner's jury findings without a specific charge being filed.

BILBAO REFUGEES IN FRENCH HAVEN

BORDEAUX, France, May 7.—(AP) Two shiploads of Spanish refugees from tottering Bilbao, exactly 2,805, reached safety in France today with an escort of British men-of-war.

Women with babies in their arms, old men unable to fight and children chattering with excitement came to the French ports of La Rochelle and Pauillac aboard two Spanish ships, away from the screaming shells and rattling machine guns of the insurgent army pressing on the capital of their Basque homeland.

Behind them they left almost all they possessed, but they had the French government's promise of refuge in homes, hospitals and other havens in France.

The steamship Habana, jammed with more than 2,463 refugees, anchored at La Rochelle, north of Bordeaux, and the Isarra, once a pleasure yacht, brought 133 children and 170 adults—most of them women—to Pauillac, down the Gironde river from Bordeaux.

WOMAN IS FINED $5 AFTER CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. Alice Walters of 31 Chestnut street was fined $5 in city court this morning for operating a car without a driver's license.

Mrs. Walters, according to city police, smashed into a machine operated by L. E. Ross of 409 Hill street at the intersection of Columbus and Second streets yesterday afternoon.

Juss sustained a slight cut on the head and minor bruises and Mrs. Walters suffered a bruised leg, police said.

Police stated that Ross was driving his car west on West Second street, and as he crossed Columbus, the machine operated by Mrs. Walters, travelling south on North Columbus, crashed into it broadside.

The Ross machine was badly damaged, city police stated.
