Miss Quisenberry To Wed Portland Man Next Month

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Quisenberry have announced the coming wedding of their daughter, Jeanne, to Norman Claude Hampton, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Hampton of Portland.

Date for the ceremony has been set for June 12. The service will be solemnized at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Both Miss Quisenberry and Mr. Hampton attended the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi and she of Gamma Phi Beta. Miss Quisenberry is among the most popular members of Medford's younger set. Mr. Hampton also has many friends in the city among former school mates. He has visited here frequently as the guest of William Cunningham.

Chapter Planning Election Saturday

Election of new officers is to be the principal event when Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gather next Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry on West Main street.

Assisting Mrs. Perry as joint hostesses will be Mrs. A. E. Stratton. All members are particularly urged to be present. Last session of the current year is to be a June picnic, with the Medford group joining the Grants Pass chapter for the affair.

Mrs. C. C. Murray is present regent of Crater Lake chapter.

The district conference originally scheduled for May 15 in Grants Pass has been postponed until May 22.

Dr. Divine to Address Group

Dr. Sherman L. Divine is to be guest speaker at the meeting of the Travel Study club scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. F. Spilver.

Dr. Divine is to discuss the far east.

Five Entertain Friday Evening

Among larger affairs of the spring season was the dancing party arranged Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, Eugene Thorndike and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell.

The affair took place at Dreamland hall, with music by Price's orchestra. About 75 couples were invited by the joint hosts. Among program numbers presented during the evening were vocal solos by George Maddox and specialty dances.

Initiation and Dance Arranged

Initiation of new members was a feature of Thursday evening's session of Degree of Honor lodge. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing with refreshments being served by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Neff to Be Hostess

Mrs. B. F. Neff will be hostess of the Ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church at her home, 819 East Ninth street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Reports on the state convention will be presented.

Monthly Luncheon Wednesday After

Members of the Lady Lions' club were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the monthly meeting with luncheon at the Hotel Holland.

Included among business matters was the discussion of plans for the June convention to be held here in June. Bridge was played during the remainder of the afternoon, with prizes going to Mrs. Charles Reames and Mrs. Carol Hayes.

Present were Mrs. L. B. Thurman, Mrs. Frank Grey, Mrs. Charles Pritchard, Mrs. J. A. Anstey, Mrs. Art Adler, Mrs. Al Littrell, Mrs. Arthur Bender, Mrs. Frank Runts, Mrs. Carol Hays, Mrs. Wallace Rickert, Mrs. Michael Beck, Mrs. R. M. Sohno, Mrs. Roy Elliott, Mrs. H. T. Hubbard, Mrs. Lawrence Pennington.

Simple Gowns Designed for Mrs. Simpson

Here are two of several dresses designed by Schiaparelli of Paris for the new wardrobe of Mrs. Wallis Simpson—dresses she is expected to wear as the Duchess of Windsor. At left is a carbon blue crepe creation spotted with morning glories. The neck is tied with blue grosgrain ribbon, the waist belted with blue leather. At the right is another model revealing Mrs. Simpson's simple taste in dress—a dress of wool challis striped with curlycue zigzag lines in red wine, with a leather belt repeating the curlycue design. Soft treatment at the neck is achieved by a small inset of shirtings and narrow self-tie collar.

Queen Appoints New Committees At Nile Meeting

A large number of members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, gathered yesterday for luncheon and afternoon session at the Masonic temple here.

Mrs. N. G. Bates of Ashland, new queen, presided, and announced the following new committees:

For Medford, calling—Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, Mrs. Elizabeth Fluhrer, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mrs. Mae Weeks, Mrs. R. E. Swan, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. W. A. Young and Mrs. J. H. Swen; social, Mrs. Glennie Mae Early, Mrs. E. C. Jerome, Mrs. L. L. Sanders and Mrs. Ralph Woodford.

Finance committee was announced as Mrs. K. Hammerbacher of Grants Pass, Mrs. H. C. Kelton of Medford and Mrs. R. E. Newby of Ashland.

Grants Pass committees are: Calling, Blanche Stinebaugh, Mayne Spalding, Ida Jenkins, Abbie Cornell, Nellie Vannice, social, Lolita Bromley, Grace Chinnoek, Lolita Noyes and Annabelle Mitchell.

Committee members for Ashland are: Calling, Mrs. Mabel Bisham, Mrs. O. W. Long and Helen McCallen; social, Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mrs. H. A. Woods and Mrs. P. G. Dean.

Plans were also made for attendance at the supreme session to be held in Washington, D. C. in June. Mrs. Bates and Mrs. C. A. Woods of this city, past queen, are to attend. They will go together, leaving Portland June 2 and expect to arrive in the capital June 6, remaining there for several days. Also making plans to attend are Mrs. J. D. Rickert, who, with her husband, will be in Washington as part of a transcontinental trip and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Franco, who expect to join the Rickerts and return with them. Mrs. Rickert and Mrs. Franco will both attend the supreme sessions.

Thursday Club

Thursday Study club will meet May 13 at the Girls' Community club for regular session. Program arrangements will be announced later.

Many Guests On Upstate Campuses

Among the numerous Medford residents attending festivities on northern campuses this week-end are several former students of both University of Oregon and Oregon State college.

Miss Amy Elliott, Miss Barbara Lemmon, Misses Margaret and Janet Mann and Miss Betty Vilm left by motor Friday morning for the Eugene campus. They planned to attend Junior Week-end festivities, principal of which was the Junior Prom.

Miss Lemmon was to be the houseguest of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwaering in Eugene. The other girls were to be entertained at the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, of which Miss Elliott is a member.

Many mothers of students at both schools were entertained by their sons and daughters over the week-end, various affairs having been arranged in observance of Mother's Day with all mothers as special campus guests.

Music Meeting Set for Monday

Among outstanding sessions of the year for the Crater Lake guild of the First Presbyterian church is the annual music meeting which has been scheduled for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Lawrence Pennington will be hostess for the event at her home on the Jacksonville highway.

In keeping with national music week activities, a varied and entertaining musical program has been arranged. Many well-known Medford artists are to be presented and all members are requested to be present.

Club Dinner Is Planned Tuesday

Members of the newly-organized Degree of Honor past presidents' club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, 7 Chestnut street, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock for a pot-luck dinner.

All members are urged to be present.

Recital Set Monday Night

Pupils of Genevieve Brown will be presented in recital at the Jacksonville school auditorium Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Those appearing will be: Catherine Huener, Joyce and Charlotte Siedermeyer, Wanda Woodward, Alma Ayres, Barbara Niedermeyer, Jimmie Grigsby, Dorland Godward, DeLoris Smetz, Marjorie Heckert and Bob and Willis Coffeen.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

State Head Will Be Chapter Guest On Visit May 13

Mrs. Myrtle Peterson of Ontario, Ore., grand matron of Oregon East-ern Star, is to be a guest of Reames chapter this week.

Mrs. Peterson will make her official visit to the chapter at the regular session Thursday evening. Officers of the chapter have been preparing for the visit of Mrs. Peterson and the session is expected to be of particular interest to members. Refreshments are to be served following the meeting. Mrs. Harry Nordwick heads the committee in charge and Mrs. Walter Oimscheid and Mrs. William Holloway are arranging for special decorations.

In welcome to Mrs. Peterson, members of the chapter will honor her with a luncheon Thursday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the Hotel Medford. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. George Alden at 847-X.

Club Session Set Wednesday

Mrs. Maude Lovell will be hostess to members of the Mistleton club at her home, 526 Edward street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Alice Lewis, Mrs. Cora Lewis and Mrs. Ethel Latham.

Farewell Party Honors Guest

Eight guests were invited to the home of Mrs. John Dodge in honor of Mrs. Jennie Miller of Washington, D. C., a Medford visitor. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Dodge in farewell to Mrs. Miller.

Guests were invited for luncheon.

Building Bridge To Be Entertained

Mrs. Charles H. Thompson will be hostess to members and friends of the Building bridge club at her home, 1004 West Fourth street, Thursday afternoon.

The affair is to be dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. J. Hutchinson will assist Mrs. Thompson as hostess. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Bierma-Warenfelt Wedding Date Is Set For June 20

Further wedding announcements of the near future continue to attract the interest of younger members of Medford society.

Latest to announce the date of her wedding is Miss Roberta Warenfelt, daughter of Mrs. E. R. Warenfelt, whose marriage to Jack Bierma, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bierma, is to be an event of June 20 at the Bierma home here.

The bride-elect and Mr. Bierma are well-known and popular in the city. He was recently transferred to Portland, where they will make their home following their marriage.

Friends are arranging various affairs to fete Miss Warenfelt and her fiancé prior to the wedding.

Last Session to Honor Teachers

Special arrangements are being made by the Junior High School Parent-Teacher association for the last session of the year, which has been set for next Friday afternoon.

The affair is to be a lawn party and tea at the home of Mrs. George Coddling, 1015 Queen Anne avenue, with teachers as guests of honor. Approximately 150 will be entertained.

Program plans call for outstanding feature, which will include numbers by the harmonica band, dances and other musical numbers. New officers of the group are to be installed during the afternoon.

Special Session Planned by Circle

Announcement has been made of the meeting tomorrow evening of Chrysanthemum circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, set for 8 o'clock.

Following the short business session, representatives of the district circle will be hostesses for social activities. All visiting members are particularly welcome and urged to be present.
