Farewell Party

Marked Departure. A farewell Mothers' Day party was arranged in honor of Mrs. Rose Singler last night when members of her immediate family gathered in her home at 514 South Grape street prior to her departure on an extended visit in the east.

After the party Mrs. Singler left on the evening train for the south, all the guests going to the station to see her off. She departed for South Bend, Indiana, traveling via San Francisco, Los Angeles, and El Paso, Texas. At South Bend she is to be the guest of her son, Valentine Singler. She plans to visit relatives also in Chicago, Toledo, Ohio, Flint, and White Pigeon, Mich., where she was born and where her brothers and sisters still reside.

It was the first time in years that Mrs. Singler planned a trip out of the Rogue valley and her departure was made a memorable occasion. She will be gone about three months.

Attending the farewell party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Singler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Singler, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Singler, Mr. and Mrs. August Singler and 19 grandchildren.

Conclave Reports

Heard at Meeting. Reports of the recent state convention were presented at the last session of the Degree of Honor lodge by Miss Adabee Sells, local delegate. Mrs. Mayme Sells, honor guest at the state meeting and Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, juvenile director who also attended, gave additional accounts of conclave sessions.

A social session is planned for May 20, with Mrs. Matilda Dietrich heading the entertainment committee. Mrs. Edith Elliott is chairman of the refreshment committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Ruth Syles and Mrs. Zella Doe.

FILM PRODUCERS AND ACTOR GUILD SIGN AGREEMENT

whose product is released through United Artists, announced he "welcomed" the guild shop.

Charles Leasing, head of the Federated Motion Picture Crafts, said the tentative agreement between the studios and the actors would not halt picketing by his 11 unions.

Crafts Set Deadline. "Unless we get an answer from the producers by twelve o'clock noon today," Leasing said, "we will call nationwide boycott of motion picture theaters. We will concentrate that boycott in the industrial centers of the country."

Among those at last night's guild rally were Mae West, Otto Kruger, Joan Crawford, Miriam Hopkins, Joan Blondell, Jean Muir, Chester Morris, Edward Arnold, Francis Lederer, Boris Karloff, Dick Powell, Hugh Herbert, Donald Woods, Robert Young, Gary Cooper, Jean Harlow, Paul Muni, Adolphe Menjou, Evelyn Venable, Warren William, and Lyle Talbot.

Bill "Thug" Johnson, former mine guard for a Harlan county, Kentucky, coal company, told the Senate Civil Liberties committee in Washington that Merle Middleton, cousin of the local sheriff, was "chief thug" for county coal operators for two years.

PAIR SENTENCED, TAKEN TO PRISON

James A. Corey, charged with robbery of a Rogue River store on two different occasions, has been sentenced to serve two and one-half years in state prison, by Circuit Judge J. D. Norton.

George Kerns, with a previous prison record, charged with forgery, was sentenced to a two-year term in the penitentiary.

The two prisoners were taken to the state prison yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Herb Moore.

A. W. Downs, held for forgery of an endorsement, will be granted a suspended sentence, provided he can procure employment and agrees to the district attorney's office said this would be recommended.

Downs was lessee of the Corbin Edgell orchard in the Eagle Point district and admitted issuance of false labor claims against funds advanced by the Pinnacle Packing company.

Downs is married, the father of two children and has never been in trouble before.

FEWER CHINOOKS TAKEN ON SUNDAY

Although Chinook salmon catches in the Rogue river took a sharp drop yesterday from the hundreds reported caught late last week, four Medford men hooked beauties.

The largest was taken by Bill Coy below Grants Pass. It weighed 34 pounds and is on display at Lamport's. Charley Berwert and Chub Hamlin also caught one each, and while not so large as that hooked by Coy, weighed in the neighborhood of 24 pounds.

State police report that very few salmon were caught yesterday, the run apparently having passed Savage Rapids. Lawrence Duff also hooked a small one at Rainbow Gibson's.

However, 90 fishermen checked at Fish lake, state police said all had the limit in trout. The road to the lake was reported open, although rough in spots.

SPECIAL CORONATION CAKE ON SALE HERE

A bit of Merrie England will be brought to Medford tomorrow and Wednesday when replicas of the official Coronation cake may be procured at the two Groceries.

The Coronation cake will be produced in the Groceria Home Purify bakery from a recipe received directly from a London firm commissioned to work out a standard formula for use by all English bake shops.

It is a chocolate cake with a pineapple fluff filling. It is fashioned like the British crown and is surrounded by a bit of decoration to represent the royal rubies. The cake will be standard pastry for all coronation parties in England Wednesday.

WOMEN OF ALL AGES

WOMEN of all ages will find Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a dependable vegetable tonic. It stimulates the appetite and that in turn increases the intake of food. It is just what is needed to build up strength and health.

MANSFIELD, O.—(UPI)—Taxi company officials, co-operating with Police Chief Meade K. Bates in a safety drive, have agreed to install governors on all cabs to hold their maximum speed to 30 miles an hour.

Dr. Orr had as guests all sales people in the district aiding in promotion of the state-wide Harney valley project.

C. E. Naffziger, salesman, has been appointed to succeed Zuber. Company employees have extended congratulations for both promotions.

Zuber left yesterday for Portland.

'I Was Thugging'

Bill "Thug" Johnson, former mine guard for a Harlan county, Kentucky, coal company, told the Senate Civil Liberties committee in Washington that Merle Middleton, cousin of the local sheriff, was "chief thug" for county coal operators for two years.

CIRCUIT COURT TO OPEN HERE MAY 24

The May-June term of the circuit court is scheduled to start Monday, May 24, when a new petit jury list and in all probability, a new grand jury, will be drawn.

Judge H. D. Norton is holding court this week in Josephine county, returning here the end of the week to transact routine court matters. The docket for the present term has been cleared with the exception of half a dozen matters, some of which have been adjested out of court.

Criminal cases listed for early dates on the new docket include those of P. A. Bates, miner of Poots Creek, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and W. G. Fields, jr., Jacksonville, charged with second degree murder for the admitted slaying of M. M. Mow, 40, Ashland, as the climax of a triangle love affair.

Fields claims self-defense. He has been a sufferer from neuritis since his incarceration.

Bates allegedly drew a pistol, and made threats against lessee of one of his mining claims during an argument.

20,000 CHILDREN GIVEN IMMUNITY

Over 20,000 children in the rural districts have been immunized at no cost to themselves by the state 40 & 8. It was reported by Dr. F. J. Ernst, of the United States Veterans hospital in Portland, at the annual tri-state "wreck" held in Pendleton Saturday.

Garlock, Grand Chief of Gare of the state 40 & 8, returned to Medford last night from attending the "wreck" and reported that over 100 members from Oregon, Washington and Idaho attended. All state officers were present. He stated, with a banquet in the Elks lodge and a parade in the afternoon featuring the convention.

Seven new members were initiated into the organization, with Lew Corbett, formerly of Medford, heading the "wrecking club" from Walla Walla, Wash.

Clayton W. Lewis on U. S. National Staff. Clayton W. Lewis of Medford has been employed as a bookkeeper by the Medford branch of the United States National bank of Portland.

Mr. Frey stated that the increased activity and new business made it imperative that extra help be added to the local branch. He also pointed out that the bank now has the largest number of employees in the history of the institution. Recently employed in Everett, Wash., Mr. Lewis states he is pleased to be located here, where he has relatives. Use Mail Tribune want ads.
