

BOY ON BICYCLE STRUCK BY CAR; ANKLE SPRAINED

Ernest Winkle, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winkle of 113 Willamette avenue, suffered a badly sprained ankle shortly before one o'clock yesterday afternoon when the bicycle he was riding was hit by an auto driven by G. C. Nicewood of 211 Bliss street in front of the junior high school, a police report today said.

Nicewood was arrested by city police and given a $10 suspended fine for cutting a corner. He stated he would pay all doctor bills and damages incurred, police said.

According to the city police report of the accident, the Chevrolet coupe driven by Nicewood was travelling east on Second street and was only ten feet from the school yard curb as he drove into Holly street. Young Winkle was riding his bicycle west on Second street and at the intersection of Second and Holly was going across the school yard on the northwest corner of the intersection when the car hit him, the report said.

The youth was thrown from his bicycle against the curb. His glasses were broken but the bicycle was undamaged.

Mrs. Winkle said today her son was uninjured except for his ankle, but that he would be forced to use crutches for some time. He was on his way to school when the mishap occurred.

"I would not, under this bill," he said, "arbitrarily drop people who are in need of relief and have no employment. The best that you can anticipate at the present time is that economic conditions will permit this. No one can be sure of that."

Hopkins said the $1,500,000,000 appropriation would make $1,387,000,000 available directly for the works pro-

The government's insistence on cutting Mrs. Warfield's title short after the expected June wedding, on the other hand, is believed to be based on the intricate question of precedence.

In the world of royalty a few words, more or less make a vast difference in rank.

Until now former King Edward VIII. is understood to have had the backing of the royal family in general. But a rift between him and some

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, May 13.—(AP)—Selling waves swept through the stock market today and leading issues topped 1 to 5 or more points, many to new lows for the year and longer.

A fresh outbreak of labor controversies in steel and motor industries apparently gave the list its initial downward push. Offerings found bids scarce in virtually all departments.

The retreat attained such momentum in the second hour the ticker tape fell several minutes behind. Frequent feeble attempts at rallies served mainly to slow the pace. A little buying support in the final hour, however, enabled most alders to improve on their worst marks.

Touching off the trouble, brokers said, was the calling of strikes at the Jones & Laughlin steel plants and a renewal of sit-downs in scattered General Motors factories. In addition, were threats of ties of other independent steel companies.

Transfers were around 1,800,000 shares.

Bonds emulated stocks in a lesser degree.
