CORONATION BABY BORN IN MEDFORD

May 12, 1937, may have been Coronation Day to the rest of the world but to Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Miller of this city the date is significant for the arrival of "H. R. H." The Baby.

The Miller infant thoughtfully selected Wednesday as the date of his premiere performance at the Sacred Heart hospital. He made his bow at 6 pounds, 15 ounces, less than an hour after King George VI was crowned king of England.
