Oregonians Hosts In Washington

Among those in Washington, D. C., states that Senator and Mrs. Frederick Steiner and Representative and Mrs. James Mott have been entertaining informally for Judge Earl Day of this city, Guy Cordon of Roseburg, Judge Guy Moses of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Vic MacKenzie, formerly of southern Oregon.

Mr. MacKenzie is now national director of the American Legion convention in New York City. The others visited the national capitol on official business.

Among other recent capitol events concerning persons known here was the luncheon arranged by Mrs. R. M. Evans, member of Crater Lake chapter, D.A.R., in honor of Mrs. B. G. Harding of this city, state D.A.R. officer who attended the continental congress there.

Among the guests were the following former residents of Oregon, now officially stationed in the capitol: Mrs. Amos A. Fries, wife of Maj. Gen. Fries, who formerly resided in Medford, and is the aunt of Mrs. Volney Dixon and F. Wilson, waiter, Mrs. James T. Jardine, wife of director of agriculture experiment stations, who was for some time connected with Oregon State college; Mrs. Ira N. Gabrielson, wife of director of biological survey, and Mrs. C. M. Granger, wife of the former regional forester for Oregon.

Luncheon Set By Lady Elks. A dinner-luncheon is being planned for the meeting of the Ladies' Elks club at the clubhouse tomorrow afternoon, regular ladies' day. Time is set for 1:30 o'clock.

Cards, pool and bowling will be arranged during afternoon hours. Arlady Elks are invited to attend. Arrangements are being made by Lawrence Pennington, Mrs. Russell Senon and Mrs. A. F. Stennett.

Miss Southwick Returns Home. Returning home Sunday evening was Miss Doris Southwick, who was among several Medford young people entertained over the week-end at the Oregon State college campus in Corvallis, where Junior week-end was in progress.

Grants Pass Will Entertain Golfers. Women of the Rogue Valley Golf club will be entertained by the Grants Pass women Wednesday afternoon. The Climate City group was in Medford two weeks ago.

Medford women desiring transportation may call Mrs. F. G. Bunch, local president at 744-L, for arrangements.

Business Women Meeting Tonight. Business and Professional Women's club will entertain this evening at the home of Miss Barbara Drury, 1009 South Oakdale avenue. Members are requested to be present promptly at 8 o'clock in order that a business session may be completed preceding the program for the evening.

TENTATIVE DATE SET FOR TRIAL OF FIELDS IN SLAYING OF MOW

Trial of William G. Fields, 62, Jacksonville, charged with second degree murder for the slaying of M. M. Mow, 40, Ashland, on Feb. 6, has been tentatively set for June 7 and 8, in circuit court, Fields in a statement, admits firing the fatal shot, but claims he acted in self-defense. The shooting is said to have been the culmination of several months of bad blood, existing between the two men, over Mow's attention to Fields' estranged wife. The shooting occurred in her home in Jacksonville.

Fields has been a sufferer from neuritis since incarceration in the county jail. Attorney Gus Newbury was appointed by the court to defend Fields, and has indicated he will plead self-defense and the "unwritten law."

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, after a week in Josephine county resumed court here today, with equity matters, owing to a case set for today, being settled.

The civil action of F. A. Bates against Ed Prefontaine, involving mining claim work is scheduled for Wednesday.

The new term of the circuit court starts Monday, May 24. The jury list for the new term was drawn last week.

Roseburg Wins In Flock of Errors. GRANTS PASS, May 17.—(AP)—Amid an orgy of errors, supplemented by pitchers who walked more than they struck out, Roseburg gained undisputed leadership of the Southern Oregon league here Sunday.

Final score was 10 to 6, with Roseburg never headed after tallying seven times in the second inning.

Parthening, winning pitcher, fanned six but walked ten on balls. Griggs, loser, in eight innings struck out six but walked eight and committed two errors. Each team saw 11 men die on bases.

Short score: R. H. E. Roseburg 10 6 3 Grants Pass 6 10 7 Parthening and Goff, Griggs, Chastain and Hartman.

ASTORIA YOUTH KILLED BY HIT AND RUN DRIVER. ASTORIA, May 17.—(AP)—Arvel Parkki, 22, Svensen, is dead after being struck by an automobile as he walked along the Columbia highway near his home Sunday night.

Officers said Parkki was the victim of a hit-run motorist. They said a friend, whom he had been visiting a short time before, found his crumpled body beside the roadway with a fractured skull and fractured leg, indicating he had been struck by a vehicle.

63 Years of Married Life Reviewed by Throckmortons

BIG APPLEGATE, May 17.—(Sp)—It was the rare privilege of Mr. and Mrs. Aris Throckmorton to review long happy years of married life together, when they observed their sixty-third wedding anniversary May 6. They spent the day quietly at their home at Ruch.

Mr. and Mrs. Throckmorton have lived in the Ruch vicinity since their arrival from California by covered wagon 53 years ago next month. They were married at the farm home of Mrs. Throckmorton's parents on the Sacramento river in Sutter county in 1874. Mrs. Throckmorton, formerly Sarah Bostwick, was born in Missouri and is 81 years old. She crossed the plains in 1838. Mr. Throckmorton crossed the plains in 1860, and later made two trips to New York by boat, crossing the Isthmus of Panama. He was born in Kentucky 84 years ago.

Four children survive from a family of six, and include Mrs. H. W. McDaniel and Elmo Throckmorton of Applegate, Lester Throckmorton of Eagle Point, and Mrs. Wm. Hansen of Medford. The pioneer couple are the grandparents of nine children, and have two great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Throckmorton are favorites of young people, and have many friends throughout southern Oregon.

BERT WYANT, 57, TAKEN BY DEATH VISITS SO. OREGON

Bert Wyant, 57, a resident of Ashland and vicinity all of his life, passed away at a local hospital early Sunday morning after 5 years' illness. He was born May 7, 1880, near Colfax, Wash., and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Wyant, early pioneers of southern Oregon, now deceased.

Bert Wyant was well known in southern Oregon and had acquired a host of friends. He was employed by the Southern Pacific company as a bridge carpenter for years, until illness caused him to leave that position.

For the past two years he had been making his home with his brother L. H. Wyant of Lake Creek, and his sister, Mrs. C. E. Bellows of Eagle Point, Ore.

He leaves to mourn his departure, seven sisters, Mrs. Mary Carlyle, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Alice Allen, Elmonte, Cal.; Mrs. May Bellows, Ashland, Ore.; Mrs. Lena Bellows, Eagle Point; Mrs. Annie Johnson, Portland; Mrs. Nettie Wooley, Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Christine Jones of Medford.

Two brothers, Lewis Wyant of Lake Creek and James Wyant of Placerville, Cal., also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Peri Funeral Home Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. S. L. Divine officiating. Interment will take place in the Stearns cemetery near Talent, Ore.

Automobile Invades Home, Hurts Woman

PORTLAND, May 17.—(AP)—Mrs. H. W. Moss, Portland, had the unusual experience Saturday of being injured in an automobile accident while sitting in the living room of her home.

A car driven by Mrs. Harold V. Ulberg, Portland, who was taking driving lessons from her husband, suddenly careened into the side of Mrs. Moss' residence, tearing a gaping hole in the house.

Mrs. Moss suffered scratches and shock. The Ulberg's small daughter was superficially injured in the crash.

THIEVES RANSACK TRUCK AND AUTO

Sneak-thieves pilfered two automobiles in Medford over the week-end, city police records showed today.

Arthur Brown, of 843 West 19th street, complained that sometime Saturday night the cab of his truck was entered and from it were stolen 13 gallons of gasoline, a complete set of socket wrenches in a bag, a one-pound grease gun, several wrenches and pliers and about $3.50 worth of groceries and meat.

R. Waggener, of 25 South Orange street, reported to city police that the door-lock had been broken on his car parked in front of his residence probably early Sunday morning, and from it were stolen a Gladstone black leather physician's bag and supplies, an old style suitcase, a sample case and an overcoat.

RUDELL IS GIVEN CHANCE TO LEAVE

Alvin Ruddell, charged with the robbery of Spitzer's service station at Talent, and under a suspended sentence in circuit court for larceny, was found guilty in justice court Saturday and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and fined $25.

The sentence was suspended upon condition Ruddell get out of town and county before Sunday night. The suspended sentence in circuit court was for the theft of steel pipe from the Opp mine near Jacksonville, to which Ruddell pled guilty.

Ruddell when granted a suspended sentence agreed in circuit court to leave and take employment in Deschutes county. He failed to do so, but instead secured employment on the Pacific highway on the Siskiyou.

He was discharged and on the way home ran out of gasoline. He attempted to replenish his supply at the Spitzer station and was caught.

The Grange

Phoenix Grange met Tuesday night and welcomed 35 members from Griffin Creek, two from Talent, one from Gold Hill, two from Central Point and two from Rocky Ann Granges. It is always a pleasure to welcome visitors, and we wish more would visit on our meeting nights, the second and fourth Tuesdays in each month.

Obligations in the third and fourth degrees were given to Bert Stancliffe, and E. C. Corn, and the first and second degree obligations were given Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Reedy. Two names were proposed to membership.

Lecture program, presented by the lecturer of the Griffin Creek Grange, consisted of slides, readings, orchestra numbers, community singing, a vocal quartet number, two short skits, and games.

Roscoe Roberts, master of Pomona Grange spoke to all present urging them to become members of Pomona Grange, and also urging attendance at the meeting to be held at Central Point Saturday.

At close of the meeting refreshments were served by the committee in charge with assistance of other members.

Home economics club will meet at the home of Mrs. Edmond Anderson May 19. An all day meeting with covered dish luncheon at noon.

Eagle Point Grange. Eagle Point grange will meet in regular session May 18, with regular officers in charge. Initiation of several new members into first and second degrees, will be a feature. All members are urged to attend. Lecturer Grace Walker has prepared an interesting program.

Unitarian Minister Hits Church Council

PORTLAND, May 17.—(AP)—The Rev. Richard M. Steiner of the Unitarian Church of Our Father labeled opposition churches as "un-Christian" today for threatening a "church war" over the admission of his group to the Portland council of churches.

The pastor, guest speaker at the First Congregational church, said he withdrew the application because "there is grave danger of wrecking the council."

Charles Newman Passes At Home

Charles DeForest Newman died Saturday night in his home on Rose Lane. He was 72 years old. Funeral arrangements were being made this afternoon by the Peil funeral home.

High School News

by STUDENT REPORTERS

By Lois Brinson. Fifty-two members of the Geology II and Geotectonic society took an interesting field trip Thursday.

They left at one o'clock in a caravan of eight cars under supervision of Mr. Finch, geology instructor. The trip took them to the Davis mines about one half mile off the Old Stage road.

They explored two mine shafts, and followed a quartz vein studying the formations. Miss Spurgin accompanied the group.

3 SPECTATORS KILLED AT AUTOMOBILE RACE

LANGHORNE, Pa. May 17.—(AP)—Racing cars killed three spectators and injured four others yesterday in the 50-mile feature event on the opening day program at the Langhorne speedway.

Two boys who attempted to cross the track to the infield, witnesses said, were struck by the racer of Bud Henderson, of Akron, Ohio, fighting in last place to keep from being lapped by the leaders.

Roaring along at better than 100 miles an hour, Frankie Bailey, 22, of New Brunswick, N. J., swerved his racer to avoid Henderson's car. He lost control and the racer crashed through an outer fence into a group of spectators, killing the third.

Presenting Joana de Tuscan—ideal American Girl
Athlete—talented, attractive, fond of dancing, and
WOMEN'S FENCING CHAMPION OF THE U. S.

Today the sport of fencing puts much the same value on healthy nerves and unfailing alertness as did the deadly duels of long ago.

ONLY slow motion movies could show you all the brilliance of Joana de Tuscan's darting sword play. Attack—parry—riposte—happen too quickly for the eye to follow. In Joana de Tuscan's own words: "A person who didn't have nerve control would never stand out in fencing. My No. 1 reason for smoking Camels is—they never jangle my nerves. Camel is the cigarette that I find permits me to smoke as often as I please. It's Camels for me 'for digestion's sake' too. They're so mild they never make my throat harsh."

WE BROKE the world's indoor record in the 440-yard dash twice in one day. Ray Ellwood says: "Jittery nerves are a big bug-aboo to a track man. Smoking Camels never jangles my nerves. I find that I can enjoy Camels without stint."

WRESTLING ACE, Joseph Green, absorbs plenty of punishment competing in his favorite sport. "A long-drawn-out training grind puts a strain on nerves," says Joe. "I enjoy Camels often—they help to ease tension and never jangle my nerves."
