BRITT WILL FACE MEAN SMOLINSKI IN SEMI-WINDUP

Jimmie Goodrich Returning for Tangle Wtih Sammy Feeback in Opening Fray — Feeback Is Newcomer

Sailor Dick Trout and Pete Belcastro will headline Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly wrestling card at the Medford Armory tonight. Joe Smolinski and Alvin Britt will tangle in the middle event and Jimmie Goodrich and Sammy Feeback will lock horns in the opener.

Sailor Trout, making his first appearance here last week against George Lagoski, so impressed Promoter Lillard that he didn't hesitate in matching him with the Mad Italian from Weed, Calif. Trout made short work of Lagoski, and has sworn enmity against all grapplers of the unorthodox type. He is an exceptionally clean and smart wrestler himself.

Belcastro, until last week, seemed afraid of the boxing commission's wrath at his underhanded tactics, but against Britt in a wild melee, opened up with plenty of the old Belcastro dirt. He has inferred that from now on he will wrestle in the style to which he is accustomed, which is about the lowest form of the art.

In the middle event, Joe Smolinski and Alvin Britt will tangle for six 10-minute rounds, or less. It will probably be less, because Smolinski seldom lets a bout go the limit. If he can't win in short order he fouls out to his opponent in short time. Absent from the local ring for several weeks, the Polish Palooka returns tonight with a reputation even blacker than before. As for Britt, the defeat by Belcastro last week rankles plenty, and nothing would do him more good than to slap Smolinski into dreamland with the hopes of getting a return match with dirty Pete.

Sammy Feeback, a newcomer from Kansas City, Mo., will meet Jimmie Goodrich, ex-Notre Dame football star in the opener, and from all reports, the match will probably be cleanie versus cleanie. Goodrich is well-known here, having displayed some great class several weeks ago. Advance information concerning Feeback is to the effect that he is also a gentlemanly grappler.

Promoter Lillard stated that he believed the card was one of the finest he has lined up, and that advance ticket sales indicated a large crowd.

Two substitutions were made in the original program announced last Thursday. Dangerous Danny McShane was originally billed with Feeback in the opener, but a riot in Los Angeles Friday night caused McShane to cancel his appearance because of a fractured jaw. Pete Baltran was substituted, but when it was discovered that the New York City husky couldn't arrive here in time, Lillard signed Goodrich for the task of facing Feeback.

DR. DURNO HIGH ON GUN CLUB TRAPS

Dr. E. R. Durno turned in the high score at the Medford Gun club traps Sunday morning when he smashed 48 out of 50 shot at. Shooting was made difficult by the strong cross wind which made the targets very tricky. Ed Lamport cracked 47 for second place. Elmer Wilson was high in the 25 target handicap event with a 23. At the skeet traps E. W. Brown broke a 24 while Jim Moore turned in a 21 and Dr. Thayer a 20.

Next Sunday, May 23, the Medford traps will be closed so as to allow target busters from this section to journey to Klamath Falls to participate in a tournament being staged at that place. The Medford club in turn will stage a two-day tournament May 29 and 30 with $500 in cash purses and many fine trophies to be shot for.

LITHIAN SOUTHPAW BAFFLES CRATERS FOR 7-5 VICTORY

Lowell Brown, Ashland's big and erratic southpaw pitcher had one of his extra good days at Ashland yesterday, and as a result the Lithians broke into the Southern Oregon league win column and the Medford Craters took their second straight defeat. The score was 7-5.

Brown, helped by some lusty clouting on the part of teammates, wheeled his blinding fast ball and sharp curve past 11 Craters for the third strike, and allowed only 6 hits. One of them, a home run blast in the fourth inning by Dick Hoffman with two mates aboard, accounted for three tallies, and with the exception of that one inning, the Ashland portsider had matters under almost complete control.

Erickson Starts

Ray Erickson, young Crater righthander, was touched for 10 hits and six runs in his five and a fraction innings. Ray Pepper took over with one out in the sixth and turned in an amazing relief performance. In exactly 2 and 2-3 innings on the rubber, he whiffed 7 Lithians, a fraction under 3 per inning. He allowed two hits and one run, and displayed a sweeping curve ball that had the 7 out of 9 batters who faced him completely befuddled.

Ashland's pay-off inning was the fourth, when three hits, two errors and a wild pitch accounted for a quartet of runs. Ager singled to center to start proceedings, Schopf lined to Swanson, and when Simpson forced Ager at second for the second out, there seemed to be no worry. Hess worked Erickson for a walk after a wild pitch had advanced Simpson to second. Baulding lofted a pop fly into right field that Ray Lewis dropped and Simpson scored, Hess going to third. Baulding stole second. Patterson hit to Erickson and when the pitcher threw late to first, Hess scored and Baulding went to third. Montgomery singled to right scoring Baulding and tying the count and Leavens singled to center to chase Patterson over the plate. Dick Lewis took Brown's line drive to end the inning.
Leavens, cf-2b. 5 0 2 4 0 0

Hoffman Homes

Previous to Ashland's four-run outburst, the Craters had taken the lead in their half of the same stanza when Dick Hoffman smashed a high fly over the center field fence scoring Swanson, who had forced Stine, and Ray Lewis, who had walked, ahead of him.

Lone Lithian tally up until then had been produced in the second inning after Erickson beaned Brown, the southpaw had gone to second on Ager's sacrifice and scored on Ted Schopf's two-base drive down the left field foul line. Medford tied it in the third when Dick Lewis singled to right scoring Balkovick, who had reached first when Simpson dropped a third strike.

From the fourth inning until the ninth, the Craters were stopped cold. In the sixth, Ashland drove Erickson from the box. Patterson singled to center and romped home on Montgomery's towering double over Sakraida's head in center field. Pepper, who stepped into the breach at that point, fanned Leavens but Brown singled to center counting Montgomery. Ager went out on strikes, and that ended the Lithians scoring.

Craters Stage Rally

With the score 4-7, Medford started a belated rally in the ninth after two were gone. Hoffman beat out an infield scratcher, stole second, and scored when Manager Balkovick singled into right field, the ball taking a bad bounce over Leaven's head at second. Pepper hit one a mile high that Schopf nailed to end the battle.

In the eighth, a sensational double play started by Brown, himself contributed to the Ashland win. Dick Lewis hammered a double into left field to start the inning and Wally Rickert drew a walk. Malcolm Stine drove a terrific liner about two feet over Brown's head that was labeled basehit, but the hurler speared it with one hand and threw to second doubling Lewis off. Swanson then forced Rickert at second, and the threat was over.

Big Don Montgomery hit a double and two singles to lead the Lithians at the plate, while Hoffman and Dick Lewis collected two each for Medford.

Next Sunday, Medford inaugurates its fine new turf field at the high school against the Glendale Loggers. Box score:
