Business Women to Attend State Meet.
Plans for attendance at the state convention to be held in Eugene this week-end were discussed at last night's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club.

Among those planning to attend are Mrs. Mabel Mack, retiring president, Mrs. Maude Snider, new president, Mrs. Jacques Lenox, Miss Andrietta Hutton, Goldie Astland, Mrs. Eva Judd, Mrs. Gladys York and others.

A large number of members and guests were present for last night's session. Mrs. Leland Jones was presented in piano solos and an octette of pupils of the Washington school sang, directed by Miss Laura York.

Informal entertainment was arranged for the remainder of the evening with Miss Mary Louise Foster in charge.

Next meeting was set for June 7 and is to be a banquet when new officers will be installed.

Mourning Entertain

Out-of-Town Guests
Among those entertaining visitors over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Morrow, who had as houseguests Mrs. Carr Morrow of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Wilbur Morrow of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Benjamin Morrow of Portland and Miss Catherine Jones of Boston, Mass.

Miss Jones is to remain until Friday morning. The others, sisters-in-law of Mr. Morrow, returned to their homes this morning.

The Morrrows took their guests to Crater lake yesterday as part of informal entertainment during their stay.

Women Postpone Grants Pass Trip.

The visit of women of the Rogue Valley Golf club to the Grants Pass club planned for tomorrow has been postponed until Wednesday of next week. It has been announced.

Luncheon is to be served at 12:30 o'clock at the clubhouse here tomorrow as usual, but regular play during the afternoon has been canceled because of unfavorable weather conditions. All members are urged to be present for luncheon.

Circle Meeting Set for Wednesday.

Mrs. H. F. Nordwick is to be hostess to members of the Just Folks circle of the First Methodist-Episcopal church at her home, 919 Reddy avenue, tomorrow afternoon.

The affair is to be covered-dish luncheon at 1 o'clock and members are requested to bring a covered-dish and service in addition to articles to be disposed of during the afternoon program.

Surprise Wedding Saturday in North.

Surprising their many friends in the valley, Miss Elvora Silva of Phoenix and Gene Tison of Medford were married last week-end, it has been announced.

The ceremony was solemnized in Vancouver, Wn., Saturday. The bride is a teacher at the North Phoenix school. They will make their home here.

Last Meeting Set Tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney is to be hostess to Women of Rotary at her home on the old North Pacific highway tomorrow afternoon.

The affair, which is to be the last gathering of the year until next autumn, is to be a luncheon at 1:00 o'clock and all members are particularly requested to be present.

Mrs. Tucker at River Lodge Here.

Among early-arrived vacationists here is Mrs. Non Tucker of San Francisco, who was among those coming on the Shasta this morning. Mrs. Tucker is staying at the Tucker summer lodge, Rogue's Roost, on Rogue river.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker spend a large portion of the vacation period at their summer home here each year.

Former Residents Make Brief Stop.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beewick and son Franklin of Willows, Cal., stopped in Medford overnight yesterday en route to their home after attending the week-end wedding of their daughter, Lucille, in McMinnville. They are former residents of Medford and greeted old friends while here.

Planning Commission Luncheon Wednesday.

Planning commission of the ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet for covered-dish luncheon tomorrow at 12 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Bosbars, 411 Beatty street. Members are requested to bring service.

Past Matrons in Lunch Wednesday.

Mrs. Elsie Martin is to be hostess to members of the Past Matrons' club of Nevita chapter, O. E. S., of Centre. Point tomorrow afternoon. The session is to be luncheon at 1 o'clock.

BUILDING & LOAN SOCIETY TO VOTE ON SETUP CHANGE

Special meeting of the Jackson County Building & Loan association will be held on Friday, May 25 to vote on a proposal of conversion to a federal savings and loan association and for the merger of the converted association with the Medford Federal Savings & Loan association under the name of the Jackson County Federal Savings & Loan association.

The special meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the association office at 126 East Main street. Notice of the meeting with details of the proposal, was mailed last evening to all members, shareholders, stockholders and account holders.

The plan of conversion and subsequent merger has been approved by the Federal Home Loan Bank board, the meeting notice said.

Under the proposed change, Jackson County Federal Savings & Loan association shares would be issued in exchange for Jackson County Building & Loan association shares on the basis of $100 per share.

The meeting notice pointed out that the proposed Jackson County Federal Savings & Loan association would operate as a locally managed mutual savings and loan association under federal law and supervision by the United States government through the Federal Home Loan Bank board; and that accounts would be transferred to the Jackson County Federal Savings & Loan association at 100 cents on the dollar and insured up to $5,000 by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance corporation.

Henderson, Salem, treasurer; Major Peter Nelson, Marshfield, officer of the day; Captain R. Rodgers, enterprise, officer of the guard; Major J. Robert Gilbert, Bend, chaplain; Chevalier Alexander Graham, Bend, aide; Captain Andrew Carmickle, Bend, picket; Earl Fulton, Portland, sentinel.

The ladies' auxiliary seated the following officers:

BOWERMAN TAKING 7 JUNIOR ATHLETES TO GRANT TRACK MEET

Bound for the northwest junior track and field meet to be staged at Grant high school bowl in Portland Wednesday afternoon, Coach Bill Bowerman and seven junior performers left Medford early this afternoon by automobile for the metropolis.

Those making the trip were Crosby in the 100 and 180-yard dash; Finch in the low hurdles; Newlin in the low hurdles and high jump; Monseith in the high jump; McCurdy in the high jump and pole vault; Howard in the weights and Stead in the hurdles and relay.

Medford, which won second place in the junior meet last year, will be lucky to place fourth at Portland this season. Coach Bill Bowerman said.

Medford's varsity squad, eight strong, will leave here Thursday for Eugene to enter the state track and field meet at Hayward field Friday and Saturday. Russ Acheson, junior high coach, will take the varsity to Eugene where it will be met by Coach Bowerman and his junior team.

Regarding the state meet, Bowerman remarked that his outfit would be lucky to gain 10 points, but that they might surprise and garner more.

"Body" Is Mannequin
BEND, May 18.—(AP)—Hurriedly the sheriff, district attorney and coroner drove to Wind Cave, 17 miles from here, in a hearse last night. They had received a telephone call that a woman's body was hanging in it. What they found was a clothed mannequin dangling from an improvised scaffold. Students were blamed for the prank.
