SENTENCE AWAITED BY STEP-MOTHER FOR CHILD'S DEATH

Maximum Penalty Urged for Canyonville Woman After Plea of Guilty to Involuntary Manslaughter Charge

ROSEBURG, Ore., May 19.—(AP)—A plea of guilty to an indictment charging involuntary manslaughter was entered this morning by Cordelia Hopkins, 22, before Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly, who postponed passing of sentence until 10 a. m. Friday. It was indicated by the court that sentence might be still further postponed in the event Mrs. Hopkins is needed as a witness in the trial of her husband, Leonard Hopkins, indicted on a charge of assault and battery. Mrs. Hopkins is accused of inflicting head blows which caused the death of her four-year-old step-daughter, Barbara Irene Hopkins, at Canyonville, April 17. The father, who is accused of brutally beating the child, has entered a plea of not guilty.

Maximum Is Urged. In today's arraignment, District Attorney J. V. Long urged the court to impose the maximum penalty, six months to the court the findings of physicians who in their autopsy report stated that the child's death was due to blows on the head causing a hemorrhage. The district attorney told the court that brutality had been evidenced far beyond any reasonable measure of punishment which might be required for correction of the child and contended that no leniency had been shown.

Woman Drowned. "Through no fault of her own," Compton told the court, "this woman has contracted a disease which we are told causes more than 80 percent of the insanity in this country. While she is undoubtedly of legally sound mind, her condition causes spells of a lack of control. Aroused over misbehavior of the child, she has admittedly been unduly severe in administering punishment. We are not denying the acts, nor attempting to avoid responsibility, but her condition should be considered in determining the degree of punishment. "The law not only takes into consideration retribution for crime, but also includes the matter of correction," Compton said. "This woman, during her period of confinement in a penal institution, can be treated for her condition, and may recover from the disease which has undoubtedly had an important part in this tragedy."

GLORIA PAN APTS. ARE TRANSFERRED IN REALTY TRADE

In a real estate transaction announced today Mr. and Mrs. Jesse DeWitt acquired the Gloria Pan apartments at 375 South Central avenue from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bechtel and Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel became the owners of the DeWitt country place on Ross Lane extension near the Old Stage road.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt plan to occupy one of the apartments and manage the Gloria Pan building themselves. The building was recently renovated. It is composed of five modern apartments completely furnished. All the apartments are occupied at present.

The DeWitt country place comprises a six-room modern home and nine acres of land which now is planted to alfalfa. It is understood the Bechtels plan to hold the property as an investment. They live on Myers Lane south of the city.

Fowler & Upp represented the Bechtels in the deal which was consummated yesterday. The DeWitts were represented by Henry R. Ringo, Mr. DeWitt is a district ranger of the Rogue river national forest.

Fowler & Upp announced sale of the Lewis Anderson property on Oak Grove road two miles west of the city to W. W. Allen. The property comprises a five-room modern house and 4 1/2 acres of land. The Allens plan to occupy the home as soon as it has been remodeled. They are leasing their town residence. Mr. Anderson and his son and daughter have moved to Spokane, Wash., where they will make their home.

In another transaction handled by Fowler & Upp, Mrs. Nora Darby traded her residence at 313 King street for the D. P. Peterson home at 209 West Jackson street.

Outgoing officers are: Chester Teal, superintendent; Bob Stewart, foreman; Bruce Riley, timekeeper, and Ernest Childreth, gatekeeper.

An installation meeting will be held later in the week. It was also suggested that all graduating Future Craftsmen who hold their jobs be eligible for club activities for one year after graduation.

FILIPINOS ARRESTED ON HOLDUP SUSPICION ARE FREED AFTER HEARING

The four Filipino cannery workers, detained in the county jail yesterday, as attempted service station hold-ups, were released by county authorities yesterday, after Ramon Gallean entered a plea of guilty to a disorderly conduct charge, and paid a $44.50 fine and costs. No firearms were found in the possession of the men.

It was dark and rainy Monday night about eleven o'clock, when the four men appeared at the service station operated by Floyd K. Dover at Rogue River. They roused Dover, and bought and paid for a tank full of gasoline. Mrs. Dover appeared at the door with a gun and stood proceedings, a justice court hearing revealed. The Dovers, the authorities saw, suspected a hold-up.

Dover, himself, on the stand, could name no specific threatening act, as the customers talked about the weather, and the distance to Portland. Ramon Gallean, as he confessed, was implicated with his hand in his coat pocket, and Dover suspected he saw a gun. The Filipinos were detained while officers were summoned.

The Filipinos were somewhat befuddled by proceedings, and strenuously denied any criminal intentions.

JEWELRY TAKEN FROM CLAY JOHN RESIDENCE

Jewel thieves have been busy in Medford sometime during the past 10 days, according to a complaint filed in city police station by Clay John of 720 West 13th street.

John reported that within the past 10 days, his residence was entered and from it were stolen a yellow-gold old style hunting case watch, a green emerald stick pin, an 18-carat black onyx I. O. O. F. emblem ring, a string of pearls, and $7.50 in silver.

City police are investigating.
