Medford Girl To Be Married Next Saturday in South

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Katherine Stearns, daughter of Dr. R. W. Stearns of this city to Gene Debrecht, son of Mrs. Margaret Debrecht of San Francisco.

The ceremony is to be solemnized next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Peter's Episcopal church in the bay city. Rev. J. Collins will read the service. Miss Stearns will be attended by her sisters, Mrs. C. E. Saunders of San Jose, Calif., and Miss Helen Stearns of San Francisco.

About sixty guests have been invited for the ceremony. Dr. Stearns will leave here Wednesday to be present at the wedding. A reception breakfast at the Canterbury hotel will follow the church service.

The announcement is of much interest to the many Medford and valley friends of Miss Stearns. She is a graduate of Medford high school, where she was outstanding in student activities. She later graduated from Stanford Lane hospital in San Francisco after taking an active part in school affairs. She was president of the student body and headed her class for two years. She has resided in San Francisco for the past four years.

Miss Helen Stearns is at present visiting her father here but plans to return south this week.

Mrs. Thayer to Entertain Group

Mrs. F. G. Thayer is to be hostess to members of the Jackson County Medical association auxiliary at her home Wednesday afternoon. The affair is to be luncheon at 1 o'clock which will be followed by a program and business session.

Missionary Society Entertained Tuesday

Members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherman L. Divine, with Mrs. Maynard Putney, president, presiding.

Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. E. Iverson. Miss Mary Ann Giese and Miss Chloe Eilenberg led group singing.

Mrs. Divine, in charge of the program, discussed an imaginary tour of mission stations in South America, describing cities, villages, resources, churches, schools and hospitals and leading figures of work there.

Mrs. John Perl spoke on her recent trip to Havana, Cuba, via Mexico and the Panama canal. Mrs. A. R. Clement read letters from missionaries in San Fernando, Chile. Tea was served by Mrs. W. P. Shields, chairman, Mrs. H. G. Wortman and Mrs. Divine.

FILM PAIR PLAN EARLY WEDDING

June Lang, film actress, and Victor Orsatti, actors' agent, have announced plans to be married on May 29. They will spend their honeymoon in Honolulu.

140 Entertained at Annual Event for Graduating Girls

About 140 guests were entertained Friday afternoon at a garden tea arranged by the Medford chapter, A. A. U. W., in honor of graduating girls of the senior high school.

The affair is an annual event for senior girls. About ninety members of the class were present for the affair as well as members and guests of A. A. U. W.

Mrs. Porter Neff was hostess for the affair at her home in Highcroft addition. Tables were set on the lawn in surroundings of varied garden blossoms and shrubbery. Tea was served from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. C. G. Lemmon and Mrs. Walter Plinn presided at tea tables. Miss Floy Young was presented in violin solos and played incidental music during the afternoon. Frederick Gustafson also appeared in vocal solos.

Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Watson Wait, whose committee was Mrs. Gertrude Gates, Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. Paul Menegat, Miss Emily Brown, Mrs. William Foley, Mrs. D. H. Perry and Miss Lois Beth Scofield. Assisting the committee were Miss Vera Humphrey, Miss Maurine Carroll and Mrs. Lester Taylor.

The tea was the last event on this year's calendar for the group, which has adjourned for the summer months. The next gathering will be in September.

Program Presented To Group Tuesday

A varied program was presented at Tuesday evening's social session of the American Legion auxiliary. Mrs. William Holloway was program chairman.

Mrs. Lois Young led group singing, with Mrs. Elsie Carlson Strang at the piano. Miss Marguerite Luman presented two vocal solos, "Little Mother of Mine" and "That Wonderful Mother of Mine." Miss Helen Young was heard in two piano solos, "Grillen by Schumann" and "Soleggiato by Bach."

Also appearing on the program were Mrs. Lorena Leach in reading and Mrs. Lois Young who presented recitations. Mrs. J. P. Flegel spoke on "The Meaning of the Poppy."

Following the program refreshments were served by Mesdames Tim Daily, Thomas Freed and George Gooding.

Cassage were presented to Gold Star mothers and mothers of all members.

The Garden Club

The home of Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter on the Old Stage Road was setting Friday afternoon of one of the most interesting meetings of the year for society folk with a hand for gardening. Members of the Medford Garden club invited members of the Colony club to meet with them there for a tour of the Carpenter gardens and a talk on Japanese gardens, given by Mrs. G. A. Krause of Klamath Falls.

Accompanying Mrs. Krause to Medford were three other flower gardeners of the neighboring city, Mrs. Huntington Taylor, Mrs. Guy Mortensen and Mrs. E. D. Lamb, who assisted the speaker in illustrating her lecture.

Mrs. Krause, who is familiar with the Orient through travel and study, spoke particularly of the historical gardens and the modern ones in Japan. She brought glimpses of them to her listeners through use of photographs and plates. She also devoted considerable time to the chrysanthemum, beloved flower of the Japanese, showing chosen varieties.

The meeting was held on the terrace of the Carpenter home, overlooking the inviting garden.

Luncheon Is Event of Week

Mrs. Edna Robinson of Portland was guest of honor at the luncheon of the Past Matrons club of Nevita chapter, O.E.S., at the home of Mrs. Elsie Martin Wednesday afternoon. Nineteen were present for the affair.

Guests calling in the afternoon included Mrs. Betta Pankey and daughter, Mrs. Thelma Patton.

Next gathering of the group is to be a picnic June 20 with husbands of members to be invited.
