

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

"Everyone in Southern Oregon Reads the Mail Tribune" Daily Except Saturday

Published by MEDFORD PRINTING CO. 28-27-29 N. 1st St. Phone 14

ROBERT W. RUIB, Editor ERNEST R. GILSTRAP, Manager

Subscription Rates: By Mail—In Advance: Daily, one month, $2.00

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MEMBER OF UNITED PRESS

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

WEST-HOLLIDAY

MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF EDITORS

Ye Smudge Pot

Congress threatens to whack the salary of Harry Hopkins, relief administrator, to $10,000 per year.

SHORT, SHORT STORY (Sommes Bar (Chalk) Items)

Tonight the high school graduates receive their sheep pelts.

Tornadic winds and rains hit Kansas yesterday.

YE ED BURNS UP, ALSO (Boyeville (Wis.) Press)

"Punny man! When he is spending and thus making himself poorer, he feels rich; when he is saving and thus making himself richer, he feels poor."

GAS AND THE GOLDEN RULE

"And then when you're trying to back out from the curb. You curse every passing auto for not stopping until you have negotiated the feat, yet how often do we stop when we see somebody else trying to get away from the curb."

MILK RULE BANS AUGUST SHORTAGE

PORTLAND, May 28.—(AP)—The Oregon milk control board ruled today that all producers in the Portland market area must maintain their production with 95 percent of their daily average allotted quota at all times during the year.

WPA Project

GORVALLER, May 28.—(AP)—The WPA will supply more than $50,000 in labor toward the $45,000 improvement project for the Corvallis water system intake area.

Jersey Herd Exhibit

ALBANY, May 28.—(AP)—Linn and Benton county herds will exhibit 100 Jersey cattle at the Bryant Park Jersey jubilee Saturday.

KLAMATH FALLS, May 28.—(AP)—Commencement exercises were held today at a downtown theater for 198 seniors of Klamath union high school.

Results Are What Count

MR. PAUL MALLON, the Mail Tribune's readable Washington commentator, has an explanation for President Roosevelt's insistence upon continuing the fight for his Supreme Court proposal.

It is briefly this: The President on the surface is going to keep up the fight, rather than let down his loyal friends, who have stuck by him, throughout the rising tide of public condemnation.

In other words the President is agreeable to letting the proposal die on its own feet, by degrees,—and if his foes don't make the mistake of trying to press their advantage by pouring on the heat, this will be the net result.

IN fact if Mallon is right, the word from the White House has gone out to the administration's anti-court lieutenants, to go slow on the proposal for the time being, and let nature take its course.

This isn't the exact procedure this column would recommend, but after all, results are what count. As long as the court proposal is beaten, we see no particular cause for complaint.

We see no way of preventing Jim Farley's face from getting very, very red however, regardless of the precise route chosen for the final interment.

The "Red" Menace

WHENEVER the question of communism in this country comes up, there are usually two definite reactions,—one the exact antithesis of the other.

From one side, nearly everything we have is communistic,—including the Roosevelt administration. Long-whiskered bomb-toting "bols" are sneaking about everywhere, waiting to jump out upon some unsuspecting capitalist.

From the other side, comes a reaction, the exact reverse "Phoony on this red scare nonsense. There are no Communists in this country and never have been.

AS usual both are wrong. Extremists are always wrong, factually,—which does not necessarily mean they are less effective, than those who are solely engaged in pursuing the truth.

The chronic red baiters are easier to handle however, for press them closely and they can prevent no evidence to support their fears—none that is, that any graduate of the 8th grade would accept.

But the other side,—those who suffer from a blind spot when a red tint suffuses the political spectrum—are more difficult. For when they maintain there are no real Communists in this country, in the REVOLUTIONARY sense,—it is up to the negative side of the argument, to present the evidence. Where is it?

The fact there is a Communist party in this country doesn't supply it, for that party is officially on record as opposed to revolution and violence, and favoring slow progress to a workers paradise, via evolution and the ballot box.

There is Trotsky's announcement from Mexico City, the other day for example.

TROTSKY, of course, is bitterly opposed to Stalin, on method, but not on principle. They both believe in a dictatorship of the proletariat and world revolution,—the latter wishes to put Russia's house in order FIRST, the former regards this as an offense against the communist "holy ghost" and would start peaceful penetration at ONCE.

And this Trotsky publicly admits. This is not his theory alone, he is today putting it in practice.

"We have already enrolled tens of thousands of members in 30 nations all held together by one central idea,—the world revolution. This organization based on principles of honesty, and not on power and money will eventually replace the present Stalin government, and be supported by the radicals of the entire world."

There is no reason to doubt that Comrade Trotsky, from the other side of the Rio Grande, finds the United States a rich field for his propaganda and peaceful penetration,—and a large proportion of his "tens of thousands" are now living and working within our national boundaries.

THIS, as we see it, is nothing to get hysterical about. On the other hand it is nothing to ignore.

There is little question that Harry Bridges, for example, an avowed Communist, is working under instructions from Trotsky, and doing everything to further what he regards as a sacred cause, by stirring up as much trouble as possible in the American labor movement.

They represent a negligible minority, when America's 130 millions are considered, but they should be,—particularly in the present stage of labor unrest,—CAREFULLY WATCHED!

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M.D. Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

WHY GO NEUROTIC? Many women who have been miserable with "nervic" for years while they pursued amusement and social affairs, and left the domestic work to their husbands, have discovered, they tell me, that on resuming this work themselves, doing their own housework, washing, ironing, cleaning, cooking and so on, that it restores something like their former good health.

Certainly no man who spends most of his time sitting on his technical stool, or on his accountancy, or on his chondroses, whether at a desk, on the boulevard or at the ball game, can avoid growing more or less neurotic unless he realizes early in his sedentary career that he must get a reasonable amount of exercise, best in the form of one or another kind of physical work or play, every day.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Hole in Ear drum Doctor said my left ear drum is punctured. Please explain cause and effect of such a condition. (W. Z.)

ANSWER.—Usual cause rupture of eardrum is in drum. Sometimes injury tears hole in drum. Condition generally has little or no effect on hearing. You have to take care to keep gold out of ear when bathing or swimming, for sudden entrance of cold water might cause vertigo or fainting.

Blue Lips Could my lips become blue from any other cause than the heart? My doctor said my heart is all right. (Mrs. C. A.)

ANSWER.—Yes, for example, it may be from taking various other derivatives for relief of ache, pain, fatigue, "cold," grip, headache, fatigue, worry and the like. Acetanilide, phenacetin, antipyrin, pyramidal and the like, often cause cyanosis or blueness by crippling the oxygen-carrying function of the blood on which life depends.

Escarole Is escarole and endive the same thing? If not, where can one get escarole? You suggested it as containing a great deal of vitamin A. (J. C. C.)

ANSWER.—Escarole, chicory greens and endive are practically the same thing. Grocers or market have it in season. (Copyright, 1937, John P. Dille Co.)

Ed. Note: Persons wishing to communicate with Dr. Brady should send letter direct to Dr. William Brady M. D. 285 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

to refrain from telling a thrilling dream. "Why it was just as real as if I were actually living it!" And next to the biggest bore in the world is a tale of second sight. Next to the next: Scientific books illustrated with Joyce sketches. And again this poetical thought: Who does not shrink in pain from packages in cellophane? What other things can go so far, to vulgarize a good cigar? (Copyright, 1937, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS Social security act upheld. John J. Rockefeller dies at 98. Lindy's wife another baby.

BRIEFLY, the supreme court rules that ALL THE STATES acting together, can provide social security with handicapping injustices. Acting SEPARATELY, they can't. Hence the sovereign rights granted to the states by the constitution are not infringed by the legislation.

It sounds like good reasoning. OLD age pensions will be costly, but not necessarily burdensome. Old people have been supported in the past. SOMEBODY has supported them. There is no reason to believe that their support, under a self-respecting pension system, will cost any more than it has cost under a haphazard LACK of system.

EVERYBODY, when beginning work, would take out a life insurance policy, there would be little old-age poverty. But everybody won't, unless MADE TO.

THE purpose of the old-age pension act is MAKE everybody take out what amounts to a life insurance policy.

NOBODY has much doubt as to the value of old age pensions. The doubt regarding social security is concerned chiefly with unemployment insurance, which is going to be harder to make work.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, dying at 98, falls short two years of his coveted goal of 100. He spent the first half of his life making his money, and the last half giving it away.

IN the process of making it, he helped to create and stabilize a great industry that has provided jobs for hundreds of thousands of people. If somebody hadn't developed the oil industry, these jobs wouldn't have existed.

IN the latter half of his life, he gave away a half billion dollars in ways carefully calculated to do the most good to the most people. That is something of an achievement.

AMONG other things, the Rockefeller Foundation is studying the cause and cure of cancer. If this study should prevent you (or someone near and dear to you) from dying of cancer, you would have no doubt of the value of some of the money that John D. Rockefeller gave away.

LINDY's third son was born on coronation night (May 12) and news of its birth didn't leak out to the public until May 24—nearly two weeks later.

LINDY is as good NOW at keeping people from talking as he was at starting them talking ten years ago, when he flew over the Atlantic.

AND it isn't hard NOW to see why he didn't attend the coronation ceremonies. He had other things on his mind.

Communications To the Editor: Will you kindly express through your paper our appreciation to the National Cutfish Derby association for the beautiful crown they presented to the Elks' Striped Bass association at their derby contest last Sunday? It was a beautiful piece of art and greatly admired by the hundreds who took part in the derby. Mr. Kenneth Anthony is certainly a wonder at crown making and without doubt will gain national renown from the picture of this jewel on the head of our beautiful Queen Betty Knox.

NEW YORK Day by Day

NEW YORK, May 28.—Thoughts while strolling: The new editor of the Times: Dr. John Finley. The town's great test walker. Celebrated Coles: Old King, Rex and Russ. Add ban-tan Brummels: A. C. Blumenthal and Julie Claesler, crack reporter of the era: Alva Johnston. What's become of Dashiell Hammett?

bullet: As immaculate as a Floyd Gibbons eye patch. Add minor feminine enthusiasms: Lupe Velez and Martha Raye. Babe Ruth can still make the crowd stand and gasp at the ball parks. Two inebriate rumors: That Will Hays is to lose his job and that Major Bowes is slipping.

Rhyme: For conversational pace, few can top Ika Chase. No. 1 religious phony: Father Divine. How the rich live now: Anne Morgan dines on a banana week and goes to bed at 8:30. Night club chimp: Erskine Gwynne. With his duplicitous chin-chin: Duke Drake and George Gershwin. Torch singers come, and go but Ethel Merman still gets my vote. Nothing produces poker faces like tennis: Helen Wills Moody and Helen Jacobs, for instance. Captain Eddie Rickenbacker is graying about the temples. Tom.

Memory: Scouring steel knives with fine ashes, George Raft has certainly been a boon to the high-waisted pants business. Some day Morris Guest ought to fool his friends and bust out in a derby. They say London is biting its nails over the coronation. It was like buying seats in a vaudeville de-luxe and seeing an understudy.

Vaudeville de-luxes see hope for a revival of their favorite amusement in the popularity of variety programs over the radio. Such as those by Rudy Vallee, Joe Cook, Fred Allen, Fred Astaire, and the like. "Many new radio bills now being read are to stress such acts that used to fill the two-day. Thus the enthusiasts believe the younger generation is acquiring a taste for the "spice of variety" and will welcome it, when and if it comes back.

Theatrical producers believe a delayed opening will jinx it—and rather than face the superstition

FREE INFORMATION On Piles and other Rectal and Colon Disorders Our celebrated 100-page booklet will be sent on request to anyone suffering from Pile Trouble, Hemorrhoids, or Colon Disorders, or Stomach ailments. It describes conditions and explains our successful method of treatment. No hospital surgical operation. No cocaine used. Send for valuable Free Booklet today.

Dr. C. J. DEAN CLINIC Physician and Surgeon N. E. Corner Burnside and Grand Avenues Telephone EX 3118 Portland, Oregon often open a show on schedule, even though they feel certain it is not ready. Ziegfeld's three Lucet costly flops were delayed and the production that bankrupted Charles G. Dillingham was postponed three times. Producers, of course, believe in the rave notices of critics, but favorable reviews are not always un-failing barometers. The approvals the producers seek are those of the "ticky agencies" if they regard a play as "a buy" it is usually in the bag for a run. The ticky agencies are the boys who back their opinions with cash on the line for choice seats, often for as long as 12 weeks in advance. One of the better agent prognosticators was the late Louis Cohen, a flashily dressed slangy fellow who could not read or write. It was Cohen who coined the expression "good theatre." When he said a show was "good theatre" it was generally in for a run.

I still like to go down to a 34th street department store now and then and gaze upon the tall Dolores looking girl in her monocle. At a book information desk. Nothing lends naughtiness to femininity like a monocle. The first woman monologist I ever saw was a girl at a table in front of Du Dome on Montparnasse. A sommelier told me she was an art student from Galesburg, Ill., and that she had only been in Paris a month.

On that slick and successful whiz known as the Blue Train from Paris to Monte Carlo one day I sat across from a monologist in the diner. When the waiter brought his finger bowl, he flicked his brow and the single glass plinked into the bowl. I tried to hide a grin at what I thought was an accident, but he flashed it out, polished it brightly and clapped it in his eye again. It was his way of giving his monol—"a morning bath. One learns a lot traveling.

The veteran Daniel Frohman is still corresponding with Mary Anderson. Every few months they exchange letters dealing with news of the old days and some tidings of the new. There are many who do not know that Miss Anderson still lives. She retired from the stage in 1900 at the peak of a career that was as glamorous as that of Mrs. Pike. She has a son on the stage. Think of a name such as hers sinking into desuetude!

Restraint: What heroism it takes

Get the PLUS value of "ASTRINGENT" ARSENATE OF LEAD!

Introduced in 1933... Established in 1934... Used by thousands in 1935... UNIVERSALLY ACCEPTED IN 1936!

BETTER CONTROL AT NO EXTRA COST GREATER TOXICITY LESS STUNG FRUIT QUICK ACTION RESIDUE PROBLEM SIMPLIFIED HEAVIER DEPOSIT

GENERAL CHEMICAL COMPANY 343 Sansome Street, San Francisco 1031 S. Broadway, Los Angeles

We also appreciate Medford's staunch team, the P. A. D. S. and were more than glad that they secured a good mess of bass and carried home prizes. We will try and repay you next year by entering your catfish derby and giving it a lot of publicity down this way. We feel that this has some long stay toward cementing a friendship between Coos Bay and Medford, a friendship which we trust will ripen with the years to come. Sincerely yours, J. W. FLANAGAN, Manager, Elks' First Annual Striped Bass Derby, Marshfield, May 25.

Flight 'o Time

Medford and Jackson County history from the files of the Mail Tribune 10 and 20 years ago.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY May 28, 1927 (It was Saturday) Paris weeps as Col. Lindbergh leaves for England and is given a rousing adieu. Belgians accord triumphal welcome.

Work of clearing Crater Lake road of snow before July 1 starts. Dynamite will be used to break icy drifts. Rogue River Studios, Inc., to build plant here and work will start soon.

Old age pensions will be costly, but not necessarily burdensome. Old people have been supported in the past. SOMEBODY has supported them. There is no reason to believe that their support, under a self-respecting pension system, will cost any more than it has cost under a haphazard LACK of system.

EVERYBODY, when beginning work, would take out a life insurance policy, there would be little old-age poverty. But everybody won't, unless MADE TO.

THE purpose of the old-age pension act is MAKE everybody take out what amounts to a life insurance policy.

NOBODY has much doubt as to the value of old age pensions. The doubt regarding social security is concerned chiefly with unemployment insurance, which is going to be harder to make work.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, dying at 98, falls short two years of his coveted goal of 100. He spent the first half of his life making his money, and the last half giving it away.

IN the process of making it, he helped to create and stabilize a great industry that has provided jobs for hundreds of thousands of people. If somebody hadn't developed the oil industry, these jobs wouldn't have existed.

IN the latter half of his life, he gave away a half billion dollars in ways carefully calculated to do the most good to the most people. That is something of an achievement.

AMONG other things, the Rockefeller Foundation is studying the cause and cure of cancer. If this study should prevent you (or someone near and dear to you) from dying of cancer, you would have no doubt of the value of some of the money that John D. Rockefeller gave away.

LINDY's third son was born on coronation night (May 12) and news of its birth didn't leak out to the public until May 24—nearly two weeks later.

LINDY is as good NOW at keeping people from talking as he was at starting them talking ten years ago, when he flew over the Atlantic.

AND it isn't hard NOW to see why he didn't attend the coronation ceremonies. He had other things on his mind.

Communications To the Editor: Will you kindly express through your paper our appreciation to the National Cutfish Derby association for the beautiful crown they presented to the Elks' Striped Bass association at their derby contest last Sunday? It was a beautiful piece of art and greatly admired by the hundreds who took part in the derby. Mr. Kenneth Anthony is certainly a wonder at crown making and without doubt will gain national renown from the picture of this jewel on the head of our beautiful Queen Betty Knox.

HOUSE OF STUART gets its distinctive Scotch character from the use of 10-year-old imported Scotch malt whiskey. The Scotch malt whiskey in this product is 10 years old; 20% Scotch malt whiskey, 80% neutral spirits distilled from grain. HOUSE OF STUART is blended in America to satisfy the American taste for mildness and to save you money.

BLENDING SCOTCH TYPE WHISKY—86.8 PROOF

Doctor's Prescription Guaranteed to Relieve Misery and Suffering

Quick Relief from Terrible Pains Caused by Sluggish Stomach, Poisonous Bowel Accumulations, Congested Liver and Sluggish Kidneys is Guaranteed

Every sick man and woman in Medford is offered an unusual opportunity to get real relief from their pain and suffering. In collaboration with a prominent physician, now head of a nationally famous clinic, Williams S.L.K. Laboratories have perfected a prescription which acts at once on sluggish stomachs.

For Sour, Burning Stomachs Aetful gas bloating spells are reliever at once. Burning pains from sour, fermenting food disappear as the active ingredients in Williams S.L.K. Formula go right to work in your stomach. Your kidneys get a wonderful diuretic action which flushes out impurities. Your liver is revived and urged into action to get rid of that congestion which is affecting your digestion.

Accumulated impurities in your bowels, from decaying food, which are poisoning your system, are swept out by the action of Williams S.L.K. Formula and thus get relief from Rheumatic and Neuritic pains caused by Toxic Acid poisoning from a sluggish system.

Local Druggist Endorses If you have any of these symptoms you can try Williams S.L.K. Formula—and unless you get satisfactory results from your first bottle you get your money back and the rest costs you nothing. Williams S.L.K. Laboratories have appointed a prominent local druggist, Health Drug Store, as exclusive representative here for the Williams S.L.K. Laboratories and he invites every sick person in this city to come in and get a bottle of Williams S.L.K. Formula on this MONEY BACK GUARANTEE. You can't lose. Don't miss this opportunity. Get your bottle of Williams S.L.K. Formula today from Health.

Philadelphia, where uniforms are manufactured never had tailored anything but breeches. The quartermaster corps, shearing through large entanglements of red tape, ordered extra shirts put on if necessary to turn out quantities of pants.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Congressman Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, Ore., and Jonathan Bourne, former Oregon senator, discussed old times at the hospital where the representative is recovering from an appendicitis operation. They campaigned together for free silver and William Jennings Bryan 40 year ago.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

ADRIENNE

Invites You To See the 500 New Summer

Nelly Dons Just Arrived

Batistes, Voiles, Linens, Laces, Prints, Crepes and Silk Nelda.

Central Point graduating class receives diplomas.

Willow Springs district pledges good road help.

Annual school election to be held June 18.

Judge Taylor suspends fine assessed illegal fisherman.

Texas grand jury to investigate report German spies attempt to block conscription service in this country.

Highway meetings arouse enthusiasm for good road bonds.

Auto travel over the Skitzyous now possible.

ARMY AIR CORPS SHORT OF PANTS

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—A shortage of pants created a major crisis today in the army air corps. It was precipitated by a new order by General Mallin Craig, chief of staff.

Subject to the availability of trousers, all personnel of the air corps will wear trousers and shoes on all occasions for which breeches and boots or leggings are now prescribed in army regulations.

Scarcely had the corps begun congratulating itself on being the first army unit favored with a more comfortable uniform than somebody began thinking about that opening phrase.

You guessed it. They found to their dismay that there aren't enough pants to go around—not even enough to outfit a baker's dozen of the 16,983 men of the military flying service.

The quartermaster depot at Philadelphia, where uniforms are manufactured never had tailored anything but breeches.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Congressman Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, Ore., and Jonathan Bourne, former Oregon senator, discussed old times at the hospital where the representative is recovering from an appendicitis operation. They campaigned together for free silver and William Jennings Bryan 40 year ago.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

ADRIENNE Invites You To See the 500 New Summer

Nelly Dons Just Arrived

Batistes, Voiles, Linens, Laces, Prints, Crepes and Silk Nelda.

Central Point graduating class receives diplomas.

Willow Springs district pledges good road help.

Annual school election to be held June 18.