Summons for Publication. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Jackson. City of Medford, a municipal corporation of the State of Oregon. Plaintiff.

vs. Rose Brophy and J. J. Brophy, wife and husband; Margaret Burroughs, Gladys M. Barnett and Walter Barnett, wife and husband, heirs of Kate McAndrew, deceased; the unknown heirs of Kate McAndrew, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in and to the real estate described in the complaint hereinafter recited. To: Rose Brophy and J. J. Brophy, wife and husband; Margaret Burroughs, Gladys M. Barnett and Walter Barnett, wife and husband, heirs of Kate McAndrew, deceased; the unknown heirs of John L. Carr, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in and to the real estate described in the complaint hereinafter recited. Defendants.

In the Name of the State of Oregon, and each of you are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the last day of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, said period of four weeks being the time prescribed for publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, you will be deemed to have waived your right to the relief demanded in its complaint, to-wit: That a decree be entered adjudicating any and all right, title, estate, lien or claim which you or any of you have or claim to have in, to or upon the real property situated in Jackson County, State of Oregon, described as follows: Lots Four (4) and Five (5) in Block Ten (10) of Queen Anne Addition to the City of Medford, Jackson County, Oregon, as numbered, designated and described on the amended plat thereof filed November 2, 1910, in Volume 3, page 10 of the Plat Records of Jackson County, Oregon, and declaring in favor of the plaintiff the title to said premises and declaring that the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple thereof, free and clear of any and all right, title, estate, lien or interest of the defendants herein, or any of them; and each and all of the defendants herein and each and all persons claiming or to claim by, through or under them, or any of them, be forever enjoined, restrained and barred from asserting, attempting to establish or claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in or to said premises or any portion thereof, and that plaintiff's title to said premises be forever quieted and set at rest, and such further and other relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable H. D. Norton, Judge of the above entitled Court, and entered in said Court and cause on the 21st day of May, 1937, prescribing that this summons be served by publication thereof once each week for four consecutive weeks in the Medford Mail Tribune, a newspaper published in Jackson County, Oregon.

May 21, 1937, is the date of the first publication of this summons. F. P. FARRELL, D. K. DREUL, Attorneys for Plaintiff. Address: Room 10, Jackson County Bank Building, Medford, Oregon.

The Grange Gold Hill Grange met May 20 with Worthy Master Wm. G. Howes in the chair. All committees gave good reports. We were very sorry that Mrs. Fena Fenn landed in her resignation as lecturer. We will surely miss her as she has been a very good lecturer and we hope to see her smiling face often at our meetings in the future. She is taking up different work in Medford.

Our master offers the one who gets the most new members during this month and June a crate of delicious strawberries.

Ed C. Fiene was elected alternate to state Grange commencing June 7 in the Dallas, and Jesse Fish was elected lecturer.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and iced tea were served to about forty-five by Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Galbreath and Mr. and Mrs. Fiene.

Several of our members, the Howes, Ferguson, Hittles, Richters, Fiene, Barnes, Mrs. Croft and Sylvia, Rose Gay, Miss Marper, Kennetha Regg, attended the meeting at Central Point May 15. Four state masters were there, also several others, to give talks of interest to all Grangers. About 250 attended.

Upper Applegate Grange Regular session was held May 22. Lecture hour was spent in practicing degree work.

Four-H club members of the Beaver Creek school exhibited their work. Mrs. Port gave a few interesting facts on the extent of the 4-H clubs throughout the nation.

A dance will be sponsored here May 29. Silva's orchestra will play.

Postmasters to Convene ASTORIA, May 28.—Plans are virtually complete for the annual convention of Oregon postmasters here June 11 and 12. Postmaster Harry Burke said today. An invitation to speak has been forwarded to Postmaster General James Farley.

WILLOW SPRINGS, May 28.—(Sp.)—The last meeting, until October, of the Willow Springs Thursday club will be held June 3 at Mrs. J. W. Birkothe's. At this time birthday party names will be exchanged. There will be a program provided and every member requested to be present.

Several members of the "Reno Racketeers" called at the M. F. Young home Wednesday afternoon. Included in the party was Clayton Dugdon, cousin of Mr. Young, known as "Missouri Bob" and his wife; also "Cucketeers" are touring the Pacific states. It is 12 years since Mr. Young's cousin last visited here.

Joe Collins, local dairyman, now has a phone on line 19.

Strawberry picking is in full swing in this district with berries ripening fast and of fine quality.

Dorothy Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan of this district, has just finished her freshman year at the Gold Hill high school and has her name on the honor cup.

Mrs. Frieda Young, who graduated Wednesday evening from the Gold Hill high school, besides being valedictorian of her class, also received a scholarship to Southern Oregon Normal.

The highway commission is building new bridge on the Willow Springs road at the foot of the Birkothe hill. This is a much needed improvement as the old bridge was very narrow. They are also grading and graveling this road.

George Elden of Grants Pass spent the week end as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elden.
