

Record Leaps Give Trojans Coast Conference Track Title by 1 Pt.

NEW MARK SET BY SEFTON, MEADOWS EACH VAULT 14:6

Varoff's Record Eclipsed—U.S.C. Noses Out Stanford—Cougars Capture Relay.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, May 29.—(UP)—Two University of Southern California men pole-vaulted 14 feet 11 inches here today to establish a new world's record, and the Washington State relay team ran the mile in a new world's record time of 3:12.3.

The vaulters were William Sefton, captain of the U. S. C. track team, and Earle Meadows. Their record-breaking leaps surpassed U. S. C. to score 55 points to win the annual Pacific Coast conference track meet.

Stanford was second with 54 points. Ten thousand track fans saw Sefton and Meadows make their miraculous leaps and watched the Washington relay team knock off a record established by Stanford in 1931.

U. S. C. caught Stanford and won the meet through the spectacular performance in the pole-vault, plus the fact that the Trojan relay team was able to eke out a lone point for fifth place in the thrilling relay which Washington State won by the proverbial "nose" from Stanford.

Washington State won third place in the meet with 37 points. Other scores were: California 25, Washington 19 1/2, UCLA 16 1/2, Oregon 10, Idaho 6, Montana 1, and Oregon State 1. In addition to the two broken world's records, one of which was twice fractured during the afternoon, five Pacific coast intercollegiate records were established.

Record-breaking performances followed: Bill Sefton and Earle Meadows, both of U. S. C., vaulted 14 feet 11 inches. The official recognized record is 14 feet 6 1/2 inches, held by George Varoff of Oregon. Earlier this year Sefton leaped 14 feet 7 1/2 inches and then Sefton and Meadows each made 14 feet 8 1/2 inches.

The mile relay mark was cracked by four stellar speed merchants from Washington State. Fighting against a great Stanford relay aggregation, the quartet was forced to make a world's record. The new titheholders at 3:12.3 are Jack Orr, Harry Nettleton, Lee Orr and Loren Benke. They displaced a Stanford record made in 1931 when Maynor Shove, Alvin Habes, Leslie Habes and the great Ben Eastman made the mile in 3:12.6.

Bill Reitz, UCLA, tossed the javelin 210 feet 8 inches to break the Pacific intercollegiate record made by Don Johnson of Idaho in 1936 at 204 feet 7 1/2 inches.

YANKEES TIGHTEN TOP PLACE HOLD; WHITE SOX SPLIT

NEW YORK, May 29.—(AP)—Given a combination of tight pitching and extra base hitting, the Yankees clouted 23 hits today and hammered out a double-header victory over the Philadelphia Athletics 9 to 4 and 10 to 3 to tighten their first place hold in the American league.

Charlie Ruffing fanned seven and allowed only seven hits in winning his third straight in the opener. The Yanks clubbed Buck Ross, Luther Thomas and George Turbeville. Chandler pitched a seven-inning effort in the nightcap for his third victory, although his streak of scoreless innings was stopped at 23 when the A's scored in the fifth.

The Yanks collected five homers. (1st game) R. H. E. Philadelphia 4 7 2 New York 9 12 0 Ross, Thomas, Turbeville and Hayes; Ruffing and Dickey. (2nd game) R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 7 2 New York 10 10 0 Smith and Brucker; Chandler and Dickey.

CLEVELAND, May 29.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians divided a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox today, getting loose with a 15-hit attack to win the second game 15 to 3, after dropping the opener, 4 to 1.

Johnny Whitehead combined a six-hit pitching performance with a wobbly defense by the tribe to win the opener for the Sox, but in the second game, Cleveland brought its big bats into action against Dietrich to hammer out three home runs for a net gain of seven runs in the first four innings.

(1st game) R. H. E. Chicago 4 12 0 Cleveland 1 6 2 Whitehead and Sewell; Harder, Heving and Sullivan. (2nd game) R. H. E. Chicago 3 8 4 Cleveland 15 3 2 Dietrich, Rippey and Rensa; Allen, Sullivan and Pylak.

BOSTON, May 29.—(AP)—A timely single by Fabian Gaffke with the bases loaded in the seventh today enabled the Boston Red Sox to come from behind and gain their first straight victory by topping the Washington Senators 4-2.

(1st game) R. H. E. Washington 2 7 1 Boston 4 5 1 Deshong and Hogan; McKain, Wilson and DeSautels. (2nd game) R. H. E. Washington 13 21 0 Detroit 9 14 1 Walkup and Hemsley; Coffman, Russell, Sorrell, Wade and Tebbets.

DETROIT, May 29.—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns paced by Sam West with five hits in six times at bat, hammered out a 13 to 9 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the third of a four-game series.

MENDENHALL AND HILDIBRAND IN TIE FOR FIRST EVENT

Dr. Robertson, Salem, Wins Wood Cumulative Purse In Medford Handicap Shoot.

Over 40 of Oregon's highest ranking trapshooters will bring to a close today the annual Medford handicap staged by the Medford Gun Club.

Steady firing in the two-day event yesterday provided some excellent scores despite a rather windy condition which bothered the shooters.

S. G. Mendenhall of Grants Pass and C. G. Hildibrand of Salem, two of the state's finest scattergunners, tied for high gun in the opening event yesterday morning—the 100-target 15-yard affair. Both registered scores of 99 out of 100.

The Chester W. Wood cumulative purse, perpetuated by the late name of that name to whom this year's Medford handicap is dedicated was won by Dr. C. G. Robertson of Salem.

Dr. Robertson and T. E. Daniels, president of the club, tied for high score with 48 out of 50 in the 30-bird handicap, with the former winning the shoot-off.

The doubles event yesterday afternoon was won by Cliff Dunn of Klamath Falls with a score of 20x24.

This morning at 9 o'clock, trapshooters will compete in Mayor Porter's hundred, with $100 added money and two trophies the prize. A 100 15-yard class shooting event, the Medford Mail Tribune and Mendenhall trophies will be at stake. Any amateur is eligible to compete for the Mail Tribune award and the one year's subscription to the paper which goes with it.

In competition in 1936, the trophy will be shot for in events 1, 2, 3 and 4 in Mayor Porter's hundred.

CARDS SOUTHPAW CHECKS PIRATES; DIZ DEAN ROUTED

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—(AP)—Lefty Bob Welland turned in a fine pitching performance to keep St. Louis Cardinals in third place in the National league race, defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 2 to 1 in the final game of a twin bill here today, after will in the opener to win 9 to 4.

But for a series of misplays by the Cardinal infield, the husky southpaw would have had a shutout.

The opener was hardly started before the Pirates were away to the safe lead of four runs. Woody Jensen, Buc centerfielder, cracked out a homer with Lloyd Waner on. Then Paul Wagner singled and Arky Vaughan on bunted safely for the fourth straight hit off Dizzy. Paul Waner scored on Lee Handley's slow roller and Vaughan alid home on Suhr's long fly. Jensen also hit for the circuit in the second.

Diz lasted until the sixth inning and was replaced by St. John after he had allowed three more runs. (1st game) R. H. E. Pittsburgh 9 15 1 St. Louis 2 4 0 Blanton and Todd; J. Dean, Johnson, Ryba and Ogradowski. (2nd game) R. T. E. Pittsburgh 1 7 0 St. Louis 2 7 3 Brandt, Brown and Padden; Wetland and Owen.

CHICAGO, May 29.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs swept a double bill with the Cincinnati Reds at Wrigley field today, winning both tilts by the same score, 4 to 2. More than 20,000 fans saw the Bruins extend their winning streak to three games.

In the opener, Tex Carleton beat Southpaw Johnny Vandermeer in a close pitching duel. The Reds outlasted the Bruins 7 to 3 but the Chicagoans bunched their clouts in the fourth and sixth innings to win out. It was Carleton's second win of the campaign.

In the nightcap, Leroy Parmelee held the Reds to three safeties, defeating able Paul Derringer, who gave up eight blows. (1st game) R. H. E. Cincinnati 2 7 0 Chicago 4 6 1 Vandermeer and V. David Carleton and Heiser. (2nd game) R. H. E. Cincinnati 2 3 0 Chicago 4 8 1 Derringer and Lombardi; V. David; Parmelee and Odea, Hartnett.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—(AP)—The New York Giants stayed right on the heels of the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates in the National league pennant race today by sweeping a doubleheader with the Phillies.

They exploded their biggest batting bombardment of the season to win the opener 10 to 4 with a 10-hit attack. A four-run surge in the eighth inning saved the nightcap 4 to 2 after homers by Morrie Aronrich and Pinky Whitney put the Phils ahead.

TOUGH SMOLINSKI DUE TO ACT UP IN BOUT WITH CHICK

Medford's number one wrestling villain—Joe Smolinski—will form the welcoming committee all by his lonesome for the return to local combat of Cowboy Dude Chick, the present junior heavyweight champion of the world. The affair will take place in the armory tomorrow evening and is scheduled for the main event.

Since the absence of Chick, who has been spending his time between southern Oregon and southern California, mostly the latter, Smolinski has just about fouled his way to the top of the heap. Unpopular as all get-out, it has to be admitted that the Polish Palooka possesses a goodly amount of what it takes to win grapple bouts. The largest outpouring of customers this year is expected to be on hand to watch Chick spin dirty Joe into dreamland—if he can do it.

Chick's world title will not be at stake, which should detract nothing from the battle. The two men are personally acquainted, and from first-hand knowledge of each other's tactics are expected to produce one of those things usually termed a "donnybrook."

The world champ's larist spin, generally considered the most deadly wrestling weapon in the game today, will be even more spectacular than before, according to word from Hollywood, present stamping ground of the ex-Wyoming cowhand. Where Chick used to spin his opponents a mere dozen times before getting into goofiness.

Collaborating with Chick and Smolinski on the holiday mat card will be Alvin Britt and Jack Sterlich in the middle card and Saller Dick Trout versus Monte LeDue in the opener. Both their bouts will be staged under the Australian fall system of 10-minute rounds or the best out of three tumbles.

Sterlich, a huge grappler from Australia, is expected to provide plenty of competition for Britt. After several appearances in the east, Sterlich comes to the Pacific coast with a trunk full of complimentary clippings. He is a clean worker, like Britt, and is young and fast.

The opening tangle will be clean versus maniac from beginning to end. Monte LeDue, hailing from France and boasting a typical French mustache, although baldheaded, is heralded as one of those grapplers who would rather foul his way to a victory than win by legitimate tactics. He will be making his first appearance in the local arena, and according to the popular sailor-boy, he will be in for a tough evening.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 29.—(AP)—Floyd Onda put an end to the winning streak of the San Francisco Seals today, limiting them to seven hits as the Oaks won their coast league engagement, 8 to 2.

The Oaks pounded three Seal batters for 16 hits to win the game with ease after experiencing four successive reverses at the hands of the league leaders.

CATHOLIC CLUB TO PRESENT BOXING CARD THIS WEEK

Featuring Bill Ausland, former middleweight champion of Oregon State college and Bob Kelly, former middleweight title-holder of the University of San Francisco, in the main event the Catholic Men's club of Medford will stage a fight card in the St. Mary's high school gym next Thursday night with all proceeds of the affair being used to outfit the Catholic men's softball team entered in the night league.

In the semi-windup, Sam Watson, 155, will tangle with John Conner, 150, an ex-member of the United States Military academy boxing squad at West Point. Joe Kamm, a matchmaker of the club, announced that 15 fighters had been working out for two weeks for the preliminary bouts and that he would name the four or five other brawls early this week.

All battles will be staged under the intercollegiate boxing rules, consisting of three two-minute rounds. Russell Acherson, member of the Medford high school coaching staff, will referee and Larry Schade, well known local fan, will announce. Tickets for the card will be on sale at Lamports, Deaver and McCurley's service station and the Bohemian club, beginning tomorrow.

Both Kelly and Ausland, main events, are in excellent condition and are figured to stage a whale of a scrap. Since leaving school, they have been employees of the same state highway crew, and although not members of the club sponsoring the card, agreed to headline the program to settle once and for all the relative merits of their mates' boxing teams, a point of violent argument for many months.

Both have grown to light heavyweight status since their graduation, Ausland tipping the scales at about 170 and Kelly mauling the Fairbanks to the tune of 175. Ausland is the rushing, swinging, hard-hitting type of fighter while Kelly is a boxer, smooth as syrup, and with a great left hand.

The semi-windup between Sam Watson and John Conner should also prove interesting with the former's lightning-fast speed matched by Conner's dynamic kick in either hand. Watson was a runner-up for the middleweight crown at University of Oregon.

SHUTE, M'SPADEN IN FINAL ROUND OF PGA NATIONAL

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 29.—(UP)—Two of golf's greatest "killers"—Hermon Denamore Saute and Harold (Jug) McSpaden—today climaxed a week of fierce hand-to-hand battling by storming into the final round of the toughest championship of them all, the National P. G. A.

Shute, the defending champion, handled his sticks with the cold mercilessness of a gunman to knock off Tony Manero, the villainous appearing national open title holder, 3 and 2, while McSpaden finally wore down the Chicago Indian, St. Laffoon, a stubborn cuss in his own right, 2 and 1.

Tomorrow, Shute and McSpaden, who live within a masher pitch of one another in suburban Boston, will come to grips in the 36-hole final, and are certain to put on a scrap which will give the Hill-and-Dale Field club course a place in history alongside Chickamauga, Shiloh and other ranking battlefields.

In his march to the final round, and a chance to become the first P. G. A. champion to successfully defend his title since Leo Diegel, who accomplished the feat in 1929, Shute manhandled five of golf's fancier players. Starting with Joe Turnesa, the Bostonian polished off Olin Dutra, former national open champion; Ed Jimmy Hines, recent "Met" open winner, and Manero, in the order named.

McSpaden in a slightly weaker bracket but consecutive victories over Clarence Clark, Bunny Torpey, Sammy Sneed, Henry Picard and Laffoon, the Cherokee, are not to be lightly dismissed. Both finalists had to have something more than shots—they had to have tremendous physical ability and a rousing will to win.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.—(AP)—Bob Pastor of New York, having eliminated Bob Nestell of Los Angeles from the big time heavyweight consideration, turned eastward today hoping to land a bout with one of the three top ranking maulers in the division.

James J. Johnson, Sr., matchmaker of Madison Square Garden, whose son, James J. Jr., manages Pastor, declared the ex-New York university athlete was in line for a match, possibly with Max Schmeling of Germany.

Pastor, headliner of a show that brought nearly 30,000 fans into Wrigley field Friday night, throbbedly whipped Nestell, nearly knocking him out. The gate was expected to approach $100,000.

The bout started out like a cyclone and ended nearly as fast. In the first round Pastor scored a knock-down for an eight count. Nestell got up, awing to Pastor's jaw and the New Yorker hit the deck with the seat of his pants.

Pastor came up without taking a count, and again in the third sank Nestell for eight. From then on it was Pastor's fight, with the California Bob continually threatening, but seldom exploding, his terrific right punch.

Midway in the fight Pastor heeded his corner's advice and boxed, easily outpointing Nestell, but in the latter stages mired in enough slugging to keep the crowd in an uproar of excitement.

Pastor weighed 183 1/2, Nestell 191. The biggest fight crowd in years saw the card, with virtually every name in Hollywood's movie register checked in at ringside seats.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—(AP)—Out-fighting Harvard with a great burst of speed in the final half mile, Navy clinched the sprint rowing championship of the east today by winning the Adams cup for the third time since 1933.

MICKEY COCHRANE MAKES PROGRESS

NEW YORK, May 29.—(AP)—Continued progress in his fight for title was made today by Mickey Cochrane manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Cochrane, suffering from a triple skull fracture after being "beaten" by Bump Hadley in a game with the Yankees last Tuesday, spent a comfortable day in St. Elizabeth's hospital, leading his physicians to announce a definite improvement in his general condition.

BUDGE AND GRANT WIN SINGLES IN DAVIS CUP TILTS

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., May 29.—(UP)—A gangling red-head from California and a scrappy little Georgian today lifted America's Davis cup tennis stock to its highest point since France took away the silver trophy in 1927.

This pair—Donald Budge of Oakland, Calif., and Bryan (Bitzy) Grant, the Atlanta "giant killer"—swept their opening singles matches against an ailing Australian team on the opening day of competition in the North American zone finals. A crowd of 9000 saw the matches.

Budge, the nation's ranking singles and doubles player, cracked Jack Crawford, No. 1 player of the team from "down under," 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. Grant, making his first important Davis cup start, completed the rout by defeating 18-year-old John Bromberg, called in as a last-minute substitute because injuries had riddled his side, by the score of 6-2, 7-5, 6-1.

Tomorrow, Budge and Gene Mako of Los Angeles, the reigning national doubles champions, play Crawford and probably Vivian McGrath. On Monday, Budge faces Bromberg and Grant meets Crawford—and only a miracle could prevent Don from defeating the nervous sandy-haired Australian.

CRATERS JOURNEY TO COAST TODAY

With a chance of throwing the Southern Oregon league pennant race into three-way deadlock, Medford's Craters travel to Crescent City today to make up a postponement of May 9 because of rain. All other Southern Oregon league clubs will remain idle so far as circuit encounters are concerned. Ashland tangles with CCC Camp Wimer at Ashland in an exhibition battle.

If the Craters, defeated twice so far, upset the dope with a win over the undefeated Chinooks, the league will be in a triple deadlock for first place, with Crescent City, Roseburg and Grants Pass all winning three and losing one for the top spot.
