Many Away For Lengthy Holiday At Varied Spots

The long holiday week-end presented the first principal recreational opportunity of the spring season and yesterday found many Medford residents headed for various resort centers or visits out of town with relatives and friends.

The Golden Gate bridge fleets in San Francisco drew large numbers, most of them leaving in time to be present for opening festivities Friday.

Closing Program Friday Morning Colorful Affair

A large number of parents and friends of the Valley school were present Friday morning when students and faculty presented a closing day program, the last school event of the year.

Vivid and ingenious costumes and scenery added much to brilliancy of the occasion, guests state. Miss Mary Foster, school head, directed arrangements for the affair, assisted by other teachers.

A three-act opera, "Cinderella," was presented. The cast included Harriet Hart, Donald Graves, Susan Vilas, Jeanine Findley, Martha Ingram, Rosemary Watkins, Sheila Ryan, Marjorie Cox, Henry Hart, Bruce Pond, Joan Schwartz, Teddy Vilas, Rene Vilas, Nancy Lagason, Herbert Grey, Patay Sether, Dell Simpson, Burnett Rhodes, George Porter and Dicky Rhinhardt.

Donald Graves, Susan Vilas, Harriet Hart, Patay Sether, Sheila Ryan, Bruce Pond and Joan Schwartz took leading roles in the French play, "Bluebird," presented as part of the program. Music by the rhythm band and a dance by Harriet Hart and Susan Vilas were program features.

Two Entertain at Thursday Luncheon Among affairs of the past week was the luncheon arranged Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. L. Hathaway and Mrs. B. P. Harper.

The joint hostesses invited thirty-five for luncheon at the Hotel Medford, with bridge following during the afternoon.

Card Party Set Friday A benefit card party is being arranged by St. Ann's Altar society for next Friday evening at the parish hall on South Cascade avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Fisher heads the committee in charge. Bridge, pinocle and five hundred will be played. An invitation is extended the public.

Mrs. Pennington Is New Presidence Pennington was elected president of the Oak Grove Neighborhood club at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. S. Lundy was hostess for the affair, a lawn party.

Other new officers are: Mrs. Clara Clark, vice-president; Mrs. J. S. Lundy, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Warren Patterson of Central Point, Mrs. Eudd Gail and Miss Mary McFayden.

The next session is scheduled for June 9.

Mrs. Patterson assisted the hostess in serving refreshments. Dessert-luncheons at 1:30 o'clock will hereafter be a feature of all meetings, it was announced.

JUST CALL ME MR. BERNADOTTE

Prince Charles of Sweden has added his name to the long list of Messrs Bernadotte—Swedish princes who have renounced their royal rights to marry commoners. He is shown here in Stockholm with Countess Elsa van Rosen, for whom he renounced his title. The king gave permission for the marriage.

Miss Stearns Is Bride in Church Rites Yesterday

Miss Katherine Stearns, daughter of Dr. R. W. Stearns of this city, became the bride of Gene Dehrecht, son of Mrs. Margaret Dehrecht of San Francisco, in impressive rites at St. Peter's Episcopal church in the bay city yesterday.

The ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock by Rev. J. Collins before about 60 friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. C. E. Saunders of San Jose, Calif., and Miss Helen Stearns of San Francisco.

The bride wore white moire and her attendants were gowned in pink organdy. The young couple received their friends at a wedding breakfast in the Canterbury hotel following the church service. They will make their home in the bay city. Dr. Stearns attended the ceremony.

The wedding is of much interest to the many Medford friends of the bride.

Lowry to Attend Campus Graduation Leaving yesterday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Lowry who are to attend graduation exercises at the University of Oregon Monday. Their son, David, will receive his degree at that time.

He has been outstanding in campus activities during his four years at the school and has received numerous honors and memberships in various honor and activity fraternities.

He is a graduate of Medford high school.

Luncheon Fete Teachers Tuesday Members of the executive committee of the Washington School Parent-Teacher association entertained teachers of the school at luncheon Thursday.

Mrs. Hans Rammin was hostess for the affair. She is retiring president. Also guests with the teachers were Mrs. J. C. Tucker and Miss Amy Lynch.

Mrs. Dale Flowers and Mrs. Edna Tams were presented with gifts during the afternoon.

Officers Planning Saturday Dance to Honor Commander

Honoring Major George R. Owens on his second anniversary as commander of the Medford district, the local Officers' club is completing arrangements for a dance next Saturday evening at the Hotel Medford.

Guests will be all officers, contract surgeons, educational advisers and members of the technical services. Technical agency staff members are extended a particular invitation to join with district officers for the affair.

The committee in charge will include Lieut. Roy D. Craft, permanent dance committee chairman; Karl Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest; Capt. Albert T. Anderson, Lieut. Philo D. Smith and Lieut. Andrew J. Hemstreet.
