

1,302 Golfers Start Qualifying Tests for National Open Title

3 FORMER CHAMPS, STARS OF LINKS, ENTER CONTESTS

Chick Evans of Chicago in Sectional Play — Pacific Coast Trials Are Over

NEW YORK, June 1.—(AP)—Three former champions, one of the vintage of 1916, another as recent as 1935, were in the lists today as 1,302 golfers from New England to Texas opened fire in the 36-hole sectional qualifying tests for the national open championship.

At Chicago, which drew the second largest entry of the 30 districts with a field of 150, Chick Evans, winner of the open and amateur in 1916 and the amateur again four years later, was one of 23 amateur candidates for 15 places in the open, to be played at the Oakland Hills Country club, Birmingham, Mich. June 10 to 12.

At West Orange, N. J., where 108 players, the third-largest entry, competed for the 12 berths allotted to the metropolitan New York area, one of the contenders was Willie MacFarlane, veteran Scottish pro who won the 1925 open at Worcester, Mass.

A member of the 78-man group battling for eight places at Pittsburg was Sam Parks Jr., seeking to qualify on the course where he won his 1935 title.

The 815 professionals and 487 amateurs playing today made up the largest part of the record entry of 1,404. Seventy players already have participated in two Pacific coast trials, which qualified eight winners, among them 1934 champion Olin Dutra, and 32 others, the 31 low scorers of last year and Al Watrous, Oakland Hills pro, are automatically eligible for the championship proper.

One of the qualifying points to draw attention was that of W. W. Va., where Sam Snead, top-flight pro and a Ryder cup candidate, was one of 27 golfers battling for three trips to Oakland Hills.

Other prominent players in today's arduous eliminations were Lawson Little, former U. S. and British amateur champion, Craig Wood, Jimmy Hines, Ed Dudley and Byron Nelson, Ryder cup candidates; Reynold Smith and Charley Yates, members of last year's Walker cup team; Frank Strafaci and Eddie Held, former U. S. public links champions, and Jess Swearer, one-time U. S. and British amateur titleholder.

HUBBELL VICTORY STREAK IS ENDED; CUBS TAKE PAIR

(By the Associated Press.) It just had to be the Dodgers. It was in the cards that the daffiness boys from Brooklyn—the jinx outfit that has brooded the Giants more times than Bill Terry cares to remember—should be the club to catch up with Carl Hubbell's winning streak and smash his record-making run.

But even though the Hub's 24-game string, longest in all baseball history over a two-season stretch, is ended, there's no one who can say Old Squawp isn't just as good a loser as he is a winner, and isn't a pretty fair country flinger. Just after the Dodgers belted him out in three and one-third innings yesterday and went on to an 18-hit, 10-3 win in the opening game of the holiday double bill, Hubbell showed definitely that he can "take it."

"It had to come," he said in the clubhouse after the long walk from the mound in front of the 30,000 crowd that jammed the Polo grounds. "It was great while it lasted, but no one can go on winning forever. I had a lot of luck. It just ran out on me." There was even a chuckle in his voice. "Now that the heat's off, maybe I can do a little real pitching."

The rest of the Memorial Day program made little difference to the diamond world. The baseball faithful didn't care so much that the Giants came back to take the second game, 6-4, or that the Cleveland Indians drubbed the Tigers twice, or that the Cubs, winning a double bill from the Cardinals, clouted Dizzy Dean for 14 hits in the opener.

For the rest of the program, the double whipping the Indians handed the Tigers, 7-1 and 6-3 (the latter going 11 innings) was outstanding. The Indians took second place in the American league, dropping the Tigers to third.

Pittsburgh's Pirates maintained a 1½-game National league lead by splitting with Cincinnati, taking the nightcap 7-5, after dropping the opener 8-3. The American league pace-setters, the Yanks, came from behind to win the first game from the Red Sox 4-3, and then fell 8-2 in the second.

Bill Lee and Clay Bryant each pitched six hits as the Cubs conquered the Cards 4-2 and 6-3. The Phillies knocked off the Boston Sox 6-3 and 9-6. Washington walloped the sinking Athletics 6-3 and 6-1, and the Chicago White Sox did the same to the St. Louis Browns, 5-2 and 9-8.

BAD POLE WHIRLED TO OBLIVION BY DUDE'S MEAN SPIN

Rest of Armory Card Good — Britt Defeats Sterlich and Sailor Trout Loses

Better than ever, was the consensus of a large gathering of mat addicts regarding the larist spin of Cowboy Dude Chick following last night's holiday program at the Medford Armory in which the junior heavyweight champion of the world whirled Joe Smolinski, the Polish Pa-looks, into oblivion in 27 minutes flat.

Chick, returning to the local arena after several months absence, did just what was expected of him. It took only that one ride in the clouds for Smolinski, dirty as they come, to holler uncle. After being revolved at least 20 times atop the shoulders of the champ, then slammed hard to the carpet and jumped on, the villainous Joe was all through for the evening. He was utterly unable to return for more grappling, and thus ended a pretty neat mat card.

Cowboy Chick clamped on his devastator following almost a half hour of exceedingly rough work on the part of Smolinski, as usual, and some great wrestling on the part of Chick himself, also, as per schedule. Smolinski was wary of the airplane spin all through the match; when real danger approached he lit out for the sanctuary of the ropes. Chick finally got him however, by slamming him against the ropes and catching him on his shoulders on the rebound.

It was a good match. Several times the cowboy forgot himself and proved that he could lade it out as well as receive it. He slapped Smolinski dizzy more than once after the Pole had broken out in an extra dirty display.

Two newcomers to the Medford ring looked like they might turn into real crowd pleasers. In the middle event, Alvin Britt had a tough time with big Jack Sterlich before winning via his arm-breaker in one fall in the second round. And, in the opener, Monte LaDue, a meanie from France, roughed Sailor Dick Trout into a two-out-of-three fall defeat.

Sterlich, a clean and tremendously powerful grappler, literally man-handled Britt for most of their match. With amazing strength, he broke hold after hold of the ex-champ, but finally succumbed to the arm-breaker and a punishing head-

$30,000 GOES TO SHAW, WINNER OF AUTO SPEED TEST

Hoosier, After Seven Tries, Lands in Money—Takes Late Lead From Swanson

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1.—(AP)—Checks totaling more than $30,000 were held today for Wilbur Shaw, a dapper young Hoosier who gambled on his tires and gasoline supply and won a 300-mile Indianapolis motor speedway race after seven attempts. Shaw, along with other drivers in yesterday's race—the fastest and the hottest in history—will attend the annual dinner for pilots tonight to get the money he and they won.

For Shaw there will be a $20,000 check for winning the race. He will get others, amounting to $5,000 for lap prize money, and some awarded by automobile accessory and gasoline companies.

The crowd yesterday totaled 170,000. Shaw, a native of Indianapolis, roared to victory in a car he designed, built and owns, shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Ralph Hepburn, the Los Angeles veteran, only two seconds behind him. Hepburn came just that close to putting an end to the old speedway idea that a car never wins two races. He
