ELKS BAND LEVY PROPOSAL NOT ON JUNE 18 BALLOT

In one of the shortest meetings in a long time, the council transacted only routine business at its regular semi-monthly session in city hall last night.

Through Ernest Scott, secretary, the Elks lodge asked the council to include on the ballot for the special election of June 18 a proposition for a special tax levy of four-tenths of a mill to raise about $2800 annually to support the Elks band as a city organization. The special election is for the purpose of voting on a bond issue and tax levy for the repair and reconstruction of paved streets.

City Attorney Frank P. Farrell stated that if any other proposition were to be included on the ballot the special election would have to be deferred to meet legal requirements regarding public notice.

C. C. Purman said it was the council's desire not to confuse the bond issue with any other proposition whereupon Mr. Scott stated that the lodge did not want to interfere in any way with the election. He asked that the proposition regarding the band be placed before the public some time within the next six months.

Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., municipal airport manager, submitted a report showing that 143 airplanes utilized the airport in May. The planes were classified as follows: 24 private, 42 United States army, 10 United States navy, 64 United Airlines and three department of commerce.

HEAT HITS EAST; TORRENTS DRENCH DUST BOWL AREA

N. Y. Police Remove Coats — High Wind in St. Louis — Southwest Is Menaced

(By the Associated Press) The eastern seaboard sweltered today in unseasonably hot weather while rains and moderate temperatures came to the middle west, drought-ridden in recent years. Floods struck parts of the high plains dust bowl after torrential rains.

At Philadelphia, the mercury had a 6-degree lead this morning over its start of yesterday when the temperature reached 90 degrees. The reading at 9 a. m. today was 82.

In New York city, where police were permitted to shed their coats when the mercury hit 89 yesterday, the start was 73 degrees at 9 a. m. today. Washington was promised a slightly hotter day—83 degrees—than yesterday's high of 82.

Trees were uprooted and chimneys toppled in St. Louis last night by a 42-mile an hour wind that accompanied a .72-inch rain.

Clouds still hung over the greater part of the southwest area today after rain that gorged long-dry streams in the Texas panhandle, southeast New Mexico, southern Colorado, western Kansas and the Oklahoma panhandle.

At Texline, on the Texas-New Mexico border, a railroad train with 36 passengers was blocked by the flooding Rita Blanca creek.

Cherry creek, bisecting Denver, subsided today after a night of high water.

Pacific coast weather was generally mild and foggy. Temperatures were high in the northwest, with a top reading of 97 at Sunnyside, Wash., yesterday. In the interior of Alaska, temperatures were in the middle 60's—somewhat advanced for the season.

TALENT CUT-OFF BID OPEN TONITE

SALEM, June 2—(AP)—A brief business meeting of the state highway commission will be held in Portland tonight (Benson hotel) prior to the opening of bids on road work, estimated at $1,000,000, during the regular session tomorrow.

H. H. Baldock, highway engineer, declared considerable business and hearing of delegations were on the program and it might require a portion of Friday to complete the agenda, after which the public hearing on rerouting the Pacific highway would be held at Albany.

Highway bids to be opened include: Jackson county—Talent-Bear creek section of Pacific highway; 3.42 miles grading and Portland cement concrete pavement and one 33-foot span concrete bridge.

Recovering Here—Lee Burns of Ashland is recovering from a major operation in a local hospital. He was visited Sunday by his brother Charles Burns of Klamath Falls.
