SALEM, June 2.—(AP)—William Meyers, arrested by Salem police last Saturday as a murder suspect on information from Pennsylvania authorities will be returned to that state if extradition papers are honored by Governor Charles H. Martin. A telegram received from Captain William W. Clark, commander of troop B, Pennsylvania state police, said officers would be sent to Oregon with extradition papers.

Information received from Captain Clark prior to the arrest said Meyers was suspected of the murder in 1921 of Mark Brown and Archie Corling at Wyoming, Pa. Accompanying the information were an indictment charging him with the murder of Brown, a warrant for his arrest and a photostatic copy of his fingerprints. After the arrest Meyers' fingerprints were taken here and at the identification bureau at the Oregon state penitentiary, were compared with those received from Pennsylvania. Chief of Police Frank Minto said they identified Meyers as the man wanted.

The information from Pennsylvania said the prints were obtained from the navy department. Minto said he suspected that Meyers was located in Salem through having applied for a veteran's bonus. During the few months' residence here of Meyers, his wife and their three children he has been a WPA worker and applied for relief through the Red Cross. He says he was employed by a contracting company in California at the time of the murder.

Father Claims Twins Abandoned by Mother

DENY MRS. BRITE $1000 PRIZE FOR SONS' SURRENDER

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 2.—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Brite's attempt to collect $1,000 reward for surrendering her two sons on triple murder charges was frustrated today by California appellate court decision.

The sons are John and Coke Brite, now under death sentence for killing three men, two of them sheriff's deputies, last August 28.

Mrs. Brite said she wanted the money to pay for her sons' appeal. But the court held Siskiyou county supervisors had no authority to authorize the district attorney to post the reward.

When peace failed to find the brothers in the rugged Siskiyou country, District Attorney James Davis posted $500 reward each for their capture. On the guarantee they would be protected from lynching, the mother surrendered her sons to Davis.

They were convicted of murdering Deputies Martin C. Lange and Joseph Clark, and a civilian, Fred Seaborn. When Mrs. Brite came to collect the reward, the county supervisors refused to pay.

EIGHTEEN STATES REPRESENTED IN CHAMBER DISPLAY

A total of 18 specimens have arrived so far from all over the United States to be placed in the chamber of commerce gem and mineral display exhibit, intended to represent every state in the union. Many other samples are en route to Medford, according to letters received from governors and aides.

Most recent samples to arrive are: Petrified rose, Oklahoma; californite, California; olivine, North Carolina; fire opal, Idaho; and amazon stone, Virginia. The exhibits received so far are on display in a chamber window.

Delaware, the state which replied to a request for a mineral by pointing out that Delaware had no peculiar or characteristic mineral, was asked to send typical wood. A recent letter from W. S. Taber, state forester, informed the Medford chamber that a specimen of the wood of the American holly was being forwarded. The selection was made because Delaware furnishes a great portion of the holly wreaths used by the nation during the Yuletide season, Taber stated.

Other states notifying the chamber of specimens on the way were Mississippi, North Dakota and Louisiana.

FIVE SHOTS FAIL, THEN KILLS SELF

KLAMATH FALLS, June 2.—(AP)—When all five bullets he allegedly fired at his brother-in-law missed their mark, Clifford Thomas Henry, about 30, turned his gun upon himself and with a sixth slug took his own life.

The shooting occurred late yesterday. Henry, whose estranged wife lives with her parents and brother, Norman Fielder, visited the family home in Homedale, suburban tract south of this city.

In an ensuing altercation, Henry assertedly fired five times at Fielder with a .32 caliber pistol, then fled and hid along a canal bank.

Officers called by the Fielder family heard a shot as they neared the spot where Fielder said Henry was lurking. A moment later they found his body, a heart artery severed.

KLAMATH DRIVER RECKLESS, FINED

Harland L. Blaker, 39, of Klamath Falls was fined $25 and $4.50 costs in justice of the peace court yesterday on a charge of reckless driving.

Blaker was accused by state police of driving recklessly on the Pacific highway near the Jackson Hot Springs Monday night. He pleaded not guilty and was found guilty by Judge William R. Coleman after a trial.

Everett Keagle, 44, of Central Point pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving a truck while he was intoxicated. He asked for a jury trial and the case was set for 9:30 tomorrow morning. He was arrested by state police last Saturday night, accused of drunken driving between Central Point and Medford.

Archie Pierce is the complaining witness. Keagle is represented by Attorney Victor A. Tengwald.

Pending in justice court are three cases in which the defendants are

SISTER ASKS FOR A. WM. HINCHMAN

Contact with a man named William Hinchman is being sought by his sister, Elizabeth Hinchman of 14 Irving Place, New York City, Sheriff Syd Brown announced today.

Hinchman left Klamath Falls about two years ago for Grants Pass or Medford, Miss Hinchman was informed, she stated in a letter to Sheriff Brown, Josephine county authorities told the sheriff no one by that name was known in Grants Pass.

Two letters addressed to Hinchman were sent to Sheriff Brown by Miss Hinchman. No description of the man was given by his sister.
