

'GONE WITH WIND' STILL FAVORITE VALLEY READERS

While recent favorites continued to hold the lead, several new volumes appeared on the list of the 15 most popular books at Medford public library in May, a tabulation showed today.

Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind, favorite for months, again topped the fiction list. It was followed again by the Magnificent Obsession. Appearing among the 15 favorites for the first time were Queen's Folly, by Elswyth Thane Beebe, Cities of Refuge, by Philip Gibbs, Paradise, by Esther Forbes, In the Lives of Men, by Alan Hart, and Laurels Are Cut Down, by Archie Binns.

Man the Unknown, by Alexis Carrell, again headed the non-fiction list. Victor G. Heiser's An American Doctor's Odyssey once more being second choice.

New volumes on the favorite non-fiction list were Present Indicative, Noel Coward's autobiography, Golden Plover, by Bertha Harding, and Beloved Friend, the story of Catherine Bowen Tchaikovsky and Nadejda von Meck.

THREE NOMINATED FOR LEGION POST

Nominations for officers of the Medford post of the American Legion were held at the regular semi-monthly meeting in the Armory Tuesday night.

Those nominated for commander were C. P. Johnson, Cass Wymore and J. C. Collins. George Simpson and Goodwin Humphreys were nominated for first vice-commander, Lee Garlock for adjutant and A. J. Anderson for chaplain were the lone nominees for those offices. Nominated to the executive board were Orin Schenck, W. H. Paine, C. Y. Tengwald and Cole Holmes.

Nominations will be open again at the next regular meeting, June 15. Election will be held at the regular meeting, July 6.

In the absence of H. L. Bromley, chairman, Commander Joe Pięga took charge of the entertainment program. Goodwin Humphreys and K. D. Ross handled the dutch lunch following the entertainment.

It was announced that on June 15, a fathers and sons banquet would be held in the Medford Armory, with the ladies' auxiliary in charge.
