SCHROEDER HELD DENVER JAIL FOR BAD PAPER HERE

After allegedly cashing worthless checks amounting to $251.71 in Medford and at California-on-the-Rogue May 21 and 22, L. M. Schroeder, 30, who claimed he was a Los Angeles newspaperman, was arrested in Denver, Colo., yesterday by Denver city police and is being held for authorities here, state police said today.

A telegram to state police from George W. Marland, Denver chief of police, informed that Schroeder had admitted passing the checks in Medford and would waive extradition. He will be returned on a warrant charging obtaining money on false pretenses, state police said.

Schroeder, according to state police, arrived here from California May 21 and, with two women and another man, stayed at California-on-the-Rogue until 8 p. m. May 23. While staying at the resort, Schroeder is said to have cashed a $38.71 check at the J. C. Fenney store here in payment for men's and women's wear. The check was cashed on May 21, and one for $63 under the same circumstances and at the same store the following day. Both checks were drawn on a Los Angeles Bank of America branch, and were signed by Schroeder using his own name.

Schroeder is also alleged to have procured an indorsement from L. L. Hall, proprietor of California-on-the-Rogue, to a $50 check, which he cashed at the Medford branch of the United States National bank. Before Schroeder and his party left the resort, L. L. Hall told state police Schroeder paid for his $80 bill with a $100 check, receiving his change of $20 in cash.

Schroeder and the two women and one man drove a 1927 Packard sedan, state police said, who also learned that Schroeder was an ex-convict on information received from California authorities.

PORTLAND, June 9.—(AP)—A letter addressed to a wartime companion revealed an unusual request for the disposal of the estate left by Harry Clyatt, one of the five victims of the fishing trip automobile crash near La Pine.

Clyatt wrote to Richard Deich: "In case of accident get the monument, 'covered wagon' dog on top, two Indian heads, one on each side (same size you will find in United States service bonds, $550. Open carefully. These are for my sisters. No other debts."

He penned the note May 30, the day of the accident. The victim completed the hardwood monument only a few days before he left on the fishing trip.

PENED HIS WILL ON DAY OF DEATH

PORTLAND, June 9.—(AP)—The first shipment of new northwest potatoes may be expected late this week, the bureau of agricultural economics said today.

The recent demand has exceeded the supply and market officials predicted an early close of the California season. New potato shipments this year total 47,493 compared with 19,112 for the same period a year ago.

With the old crop supply virtually exhausted, shipments are especially limited. Oregon moved only five cars last week. The United States shipments of old potatoes reached 305,040 against 195,195 last season.

Early estimates show Oregon will plant about 2200 acres compared with the 1900 a year ago.

MISSING BRITISH SOCIETY BEAUTY FINALLY LOCATED

LONDON, June 9.—(AP)—Scotland Yard sought today to learn Diana Battie's own story of her strange eight-day disappearance that ended in sobbing collapse on a London doorstep.

The wealthy 21-year-old society girl was found early today, slumped on a step near door to the home of her fiancé, Michael Asquith.

"She was not able to give an account of what had happened to her," said a friend of the family in relating that "Diana" as her intimates knew "England's most photographed beauty," seemed on the verge of a nervous collapse. She was placed under a doctor's care.

Diana's mother, Mrs. Leonard Hackett, well known airwoman, said: "The main thing is my daughter is safe."

Young Asquith, grandson of Britain's famous premier, the late lord of Oxford and Asquith, had disclosed to police that he had received a letter containing a threat to "remove" Diana unless he took better care of her.

Apparently the socialist photographer's model, who had aspired to motion picture stardom, had been walking the streets of London while police scoured the British isles for her.

The mystery was heightened when it was learned Diana was not wearing the same dress she wore when she was last seen June 1.

MINE AUXILIARY AT J'VILLE, IS PLAN

Purpose of the association, Mr. Kelly explained, is to protect the miner prospector and the mining industry against anything that might retard or impede mining as a business. He declared that mining will soon become the largest industry in southern Oregon. He said miners and business men should get together to protect the industry.
