Church Service At Noon Yesterday Is Impressive Event

Before 200 relatives and friends, Jeanne Quisenberry and Norman C. Hampton, Jr., were united in marriage at high noon yesterday at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Rev. E. E. Bartlam read the service against a background of white blossoms and greenery which transformed the church. The bride was given away by her father.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Eva Marsh at the organ. Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Robert Wright, J. Arthur Feek and Mrs. Royal Bebb made up a quartette singing "O. Perfect Love," preceding the ceremony. The song is the one played by Marcel Dupre, famous organist, at the wedding of the Duke of Windsor and Wallis Warfield. It is traditional wedding music of the church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lois Day, as matron of honor and Miss Jeanne Hampton, sister of the groom, and Mrs. William Cunningham. Dewey Carpenter of Portland was best man.

Ushers were Warren Braley, Lewis Fox and Lee Melish of Portland, Peter Buck of Eugene and William Cunningham and Philip Quisenberry of Medford.

The bride's dark coloring was set off by her white satin gown with a train. Her floor-length veil was caught at her head with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias. Her attendants were dressed in charmingly lace gowns of coral, aqua and violets with matching petal caps. They carried bouquets of Tullman and yellow roses and baby breath.

Following the service, guests were received at the Quisenberry home. Mrs. N. C. Hampton, mother of the groom, wore blue lace and Mrs. Quisenberry wore dove grey crepe and lace. The young couple left for California, planning a month's visit in the south. Returning north, they will be at home at 3406 Northeast Burnside avenue in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Quisenberry of this city. She attended University of Oregon, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Mr. Hampton is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Hampton of Portland and also Miss Margery Paley became the bride of Abren E. Garr in a quietly impressive ceremony at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John White, yesterday afternoon.

The young couple took their vows before a fireplace banked with pink and white peonies and rosebuds and blue celphiniums. Dr. Sherman L. Divine read the candlelight service in the presence of about fifty members of the families and close friends. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather.

Attending the bride and groom were Miss Dorothy Paley, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid and Howard Pruitt of Klamath Falls as best man. The wedding party entered to traditional wedding music played on the violin by Miss Lucile Landen, accompanied by Miss Marian Moore. Miss Landen also played "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony.

The bride wore an ankle-length gown of white net over white satin, a net halo encircling her head. She carried rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Contrasting with the white of the bride's gown was the deep plum blue chiffon worn by her attendants, who carried pink rosebuds and white jaspur.

Country Service Event of June 5

Of great interest to their many friends in Medford was the recent marriage of George McCracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCracken, to Miss Ethel Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Springfield, Oregon. The couple were united at Valley View, Saturday afternoon, June 5, in a simple but impressive ceremony. Reverend Melville T. Wire of Ashland read the services.

The ceremony was performed under a large cherry tree on the lawn with roses, peonies and Christmas cactus composing the floral background. The bride wore a light grey suit with white blouse and hat, a corsage of pink rosebuds setting off her costume. Miss Ruth Billings attended the bride and Kenneth S. Wood, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Other than the bridal party, those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCracken, parents of the bridegroom, and John S. Billings, brother, and Mrs. Melville T. Wire.

A short time after the services the couple left by car for a week's honeymoon to be spent principally along the coast.

The bride graduated last Monday from the University of Oregon, receiving her B.A. degree in fine arts. The bridegroom is now a senior at Oregon State college in Corvallis. The family of the bridegroom is well known in Medford and surrounding vicinity and both bride and bridegroom have many Medford school friends.

American Legion Auxiliary

Tuesday evening, June 15, the auxiliary is to serve the first father-son dinner of Legionnaires. All members of Medford post of the American Legion have received invitations to the event. Each Legionnaire is to bring his son. A delightful program particularly suitable to men and boys has been provided. The dinner is to be at 6:30 p. m.

After dinner the regular meetings of the Legion and auxiliary are to take place. The auxiliary is to have a combination business and social meeting and all members are asked to be present at 8 p. m. for this important meeting.

The one hundred sixtieth anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the flag of the United States will be observed June 14 by American Legion auxiliary units throughout the country, according to Mrs. William Holloway, Americanism chairman of the Medford unit. The study of flag history and flag etiquette is one of the projects of the auxiliary.

The flag of the United States is one of the oldest in the world. It is older than the Union Jack of Great Britain and the Tri-Color of France. When it was first hoisted in 1777, it flew over only 3,000,000 people living in thirteen Atlantic coast colonies engaged in a struggle for independence. The history of its development into the banner of the great American nation should be familiar to every child.

In the auxiliary we are giving attention to the study and teaching of the flag's history. This is part of the program of our junior members, and we urge all our members to make it a part of home training of their children. We also urge the flag history and flag etiquette be taught in the schools everywhere, for we believe that real understanding of the significance of our flag and knowledge of how to pay it proper respect are fundamental to good citizenship.
