NOTED PHYSICIST, SON LOCAL FOLK, DIES SUDDENLY

Word was received yesterday of the unexpected death of Archer Hoyt, Ph.D. 31, of Pittsburgh, Pa., son of Rev. and Mrs. John W. Hoyt, 1224 Main street, as the result of an appendicitis operation. He was born in Washington, D. C., November 26, 1905.

Archer Hoyt was a physicist in the Gulf Research laboratory of Pittsburgh and the inventor of the gravimeter and the stereoscope. He is survived by his wife, formerly of Spokane, Wash.; his parents and a sister, Mrs. William H. McClure, of this city.

He attended Ashland high school and was a graduate of Walla Walla high school, Whitman college, and took his Ph.D. degree at the California Institute of Technology. He spent his youth in Gold Beach, Ore.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoyt have been residing in Medford for the past three months but have traveled throughout southern Oregon for the past eight years. Rev. Hoyt is a Sunday school missionary.

This is the second bereavement suffered by Rev. and Mrs. Hoyt this year, their eldest son, Rev. John W. Hoyt, having died of pneumonia at Fair Oaks, Calif., February 13, 1936, at the age of 33.

Funeral services will be conducted in Pittsburgh.

The Rev. Mr. Hoyt is a retired Presbyterian minister.
