Recent visitors from the valley included: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Moyer and party, C. B. McRoe, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McRoe, Theodore Gutzlaff of Ashland; J. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plinn of Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. O. Hevilson of Grants Pass. A public address system has been installed at the lake to facilitate communication and entertainment. Work is reported progressing on a large new boat-house which is expected to be completed shortly. Capt. Clyde E. Yates of the Los Angeles office of General Petroleum company arrived Sunday for a two weeks' stay at the lake.

All softball games scheduled for tonight at the lighted high school field have been postponed because of rain and wet grounds. It was announced today. This makes the sixth consecutive postponement since the opening of the season June 7. Because of the unsettled weather, it was decided to give teams 24 hours notice from now on when the games are to be played, but it was thought doubtful that the clubs would be able to see action the rest of this week. Holders of season tickets will witness the original schedule of 45 games, it was pointed out, the postponements being tacked onto the end of the schedule.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP)—Recovery of fractions to 3 or more points predominated in today's stock market as strike news appeared less of an important selling influence. Brokers attributed the quiet comeback partly to quick-turn traders and some short covering based on the theory the wash-out of Monday may have been a climax to the listless performance of the past several weeks.

At that, buying in most categories was of the half-hearted type and the ticker tape was seldom called upon to more than jog. Best prices were seen in the final hour, with steels and motors receiving the most noticeable support.

Table with columns for stock names and prices. Includes items like Al. Chem. & Dye, Am. Can., Am. & Pac. Pow., etc.

In Dual Role

Edward Everett Horton, whose ad features are productive of tons of laughter wherever they are seen on the screen, is starred in one of the most fanciful and hilarious comedies of his career in "You Only Live Once," which will play at the Holly theater with Sylvia Sidney and Henry Fonda co-starred.

The story of a three-time loser who resolves to go straight, only to have fate pin a false charge of murder against him and sentence him to the electric chair, "You Only Live Once" shows him escaping from prison, joining his sweetheart, and finally, in a fusillade of lead, the shattering of both lives.

A thrilling and exciting drama of the turf, "You Can't Buy Luck," plays as the added feature with "The Man in the Mirror." Helen Mack, Onslow Stevens and Vinton Haworth have the featured leads.

VALLEY PASTORS CHOOSE HAMILTON

Rev. James Hamilton, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, was elected new president of the Rogue River Valley Ministerial association at that body's annual meeting yesterday. He replaces Rev. E. E. Nourse of the Congregational church in Ashland. The meeting was held in Lithia park in Ashland, beginning at 10:30 a. m. Other officers elected are: Rev. Nourse, vice-president, and Rev. E. Iverson of the Presbyterian church here, secretary-treasurer. Reports of the past year's activities and plans for the future featured the business session. Picnic luncheon was served at noon to ministers and their families from all southern Oregon churches between Grants Pass and Ashland. A fall rally is planned for the last Monday in September at Grants Pass, when Rev. S. L. Divins of this city will be the main speaker.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our appreciation to friends for the kindness and sympathy extended us during our recent bereavement; also for the beautiful floral offerings.—Bernard C. Boudewyns, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Slight and Family.

Dramatic Stars

Oscar Piper, screen detective of luxe, is at it again. In "The Plot Thickens," fifth of the Stuart Palmer series coming to the Holly theater for today and tomorrow. This time the hard-boiled sleuth is teamed with Zaou Pitta, in the role of Hildegarde Withers. James Gleason plays the inspector.

Mich., announced he would permit "peaceful picketing" and a C. I. O. strike in Grand Rapids, Mich., furniture factories was settled, sending 1000 men back to their jobs. But there was no back-to-work movement, no strike settlement.

There were hints that the strike, already paralyzing the jobs of 80,000 men in seven states, would spread further. With more than 10,000 coal miners now out in an effort to cut off steel's fuel supply, and with one CIO spokesman stating that 600,000 men can be called out if necessary, there were persisting reports today of strikes at other Bethlehem steel plants besides the big one here.
