

Braddock Sure Winner if He Lasts Till Fifth, Says Max's Manager

TOUGH SPARMATES NEED AS BOMBER SPEEDS TRAINING

Chicago Negro Colony Doubts Report Louis Slipping, and Back Idol.

KENOSHA, Wis., June 16.—(AP)—Don't let those bearish reports about Joe Louis' condition fool you. . . . The bomber may not be the man-killer he was two years ago, but he still can throw that right and left. . . . He's been a bit slow getting tuned up, but yesterday's workout proved he can go to town when he wants to. . . .

Fight Notes: Mike Jacobs sent word from Chicago today there is more than $500,000 in the bank. . . . Mike still insists the brawl will hit the million-dollar mark. . . . Just three years ago this month the New York state athletic commission ruled Braddock was not a fit opponent for Hans Birke. . . .

KENOSHA, Wis., June 16.—(AP)—Joe Louis' managers hunted more, faster and tougher sparmates for the Brown Bomber. . . .

CHICAGO, June 16.—(AP)—Joe Louis almighty? Don't you believe it. That's the solemn-faced advice you can get on most every corner of Chicago's great south side Negro section today as the Brown Bomber makes ready for his world heavyweight title fight Tuesday night with Jim Braddock. . . .

Joe, the barber shop porter, Sam the shoe-shine man, and Duke the chauffeur—he's already got the night off after deliverin' the booze—will be in the $5.00 seats at Comiskey park Tuesday night. There'll be from 17,000 to 20,000 Sam, Joe and Duke watching their idol, Joe. . . .

"Sure, Joe was knocked out by Schmelling," agreed Sam, whose shine emporium is only a block from Comiskey park. "But he was just a boy. No disgrace to be licked by Schmelling, was there? An' he can hit just as hard as ever. I watched him one day up to his camp and you should see what he did to the big seal, Harria. Me an' some of the boys has $100 on Joe to win by a K.O. in six rounds—and we got practically even money."

"Braddock may be good, but when he gets hit by that Louis left-boy, oh, boy—that's all dere'll be to it," grinned Barber Joe, lovingly fondling an already well-thumbed ticket of the $5.00 variety. . . .

Special trains will bring thousands of Louis' race to the fight. Two will come from Washington, while one each will come from Nashville, Tenn., Detroit, Washington, Cleveland and St. Louis. . . .

Billy Hulen Says: Ray and Machado Farmed to Grants Pass by St. Louis

The farm system in organized baseball may be a "necessary evil," as Clark Griffith, president and owner of the Washington Senators of the American league remarked the other day, but it has certainly provided the largest single factor in the comeback of the national pastime all over the country. . . .

Last year, for example, there were eight class D leagues in America, the lowest rating given a circuit in organized ball. This season there are 21 such leagues in operation, and according to all information we can gather from close perusal of the St. Louis Sporting News, baseball publication, not one of them is on the brink of folding up before the season is over. . . .

Over no records are available, it would be safe to say that 90 percent of the teams in the 21 class D leagues are backed by major league or large minor league clubs. The method of operation is simple: The class D outfit receives financial help through the season if it needs it, in return for giving the "angel" team first call on any promising players developed. In many cases, the class D club is owned outright by the large organization and all its players are therefore the property of the mother team. . . .

On paper, Ashland has the better ball club, what with Hardy and McLean in there doing the throwing and receiving, and Agor, Schopf and Leavens clouting over 300. Hardy is the best chucker in the circuit, and McLean the heaviest hitter in addition to ranking near the top in catching duties. . . .

However Manager Balkovick of the locals seems to be getting plenty of sleep nights and that condition can probably be attributed to the fact that the Craters will present the strongest lineup to take the field this year. Russ Acheson, George Harrington, Duke Hankinson, Virgil Swanson and Dick Hoffman will all be ready to go. Swanson and Hoffman didn't play last Sunday, being unable to make the Roseburg trip; Hankinson is practically recovered from his sprained ankle; Harrington, a sweet hitter, will see his first action with the Craters; and Acheson, who got two blows last Sunday in his first game this year, wants a couple more against Hardy. . . .

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(AP)—John Henry Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz., light heavyweight champion, battered Al Ettore, Philadelphia, for a decisive 15-round decision last night in a non-title bout before 15,000 at the Phillies' ball park. Lewis weighed 178, Ettore, 192. . . .

ASHLAND-MEDFORD RIVALRY ERUPTS FOR GAME SUNDAY

The impending Ashland-Medford baseball battle next Sunday at the local high school turf field, will have no bearing on the first-half Southern Oregon league pennant chase, a fact which dampens the spirit of the two bitter rivals not in the least. . . .

Both clubs have been removed from the championship battle; for that matter, only Roseburg has the barest chance of catching the high-flying Crescent City Chinooks. But, so far as the Craters and Lithians are concerned, the game holds all the importance of a world series. John Q. Pans of both cities feel the same way about it, too. . . .

While the brilliant Bob Hardy souped-up them over the platter to Cliff ("Chief") McLean, the Lithians of Manager Leonard Hall are now considered the circuit over as the team to beat in the second half. Hardy and McLean helped the University of Oregon win the northern division pennant of the Pacific coast conference this spring, and last year formed a fair to middlin' Grants Pass battery. . . .

On paper, Ashland has the better ball club, what with Hardy and McLean in there doing the throwing and receiving, and Agor, Schopf and Leavens clouting over 300. Hardy is the best chucker in the circuit, and McLean the heaviest hitter in addition to ranking near the top in catching duties. . . .

CUBS TAKE LEAD AS THIRD IN ROW LOST BY HUBBELL

By BILL BONI (Associated Press Sports Writer) Perhaps Charley Ruffing knew what he was doing when he held out until May 5. . . .

For today the Rupert Rifles are a full game ahead of American league pursuers on the strength of Ruffing's sixth victory and second straight shutout, a 3-0 blanking of the Cleveland Indians. . . .

BEAVERS BEATEN; RAIN ROUTS REDS

(By the Associated Press.) In fine fettle and hitting the league's leading pitcher, Sad Sam Gibson, with gusto, the Missions piled up an 8 to 0 lead over the second-place San Francisco Seals in five innings last night. They practically had the game in the bag with the Seals going to bat in the last of the inning when for the first time in years (Chamber of Commerce statistics) rain stopped a Coast league ball game in June in San Francisco. . . .

The Oaks won their first opener in 11 series by trouncing the Portland Beavers, 6 to 3. A homer by Outfielder Al Browne with two on the base in the fourth, gave the Oaks their margin of victory. . . .

RED CROSS SWIM CLASSES TO OPEN NAT POOL JULY 5

Under the personal supervision of Elmer Holstrom of Corvallis, veteran instructor in swimming and first aid work, the annual Red Cross swimming classes will start at Merrick's Natatorium July 5 and last until July 14, inclusive. . . .

All children above 4 years of age are eligible to enroll, and George T. Frey, chairman of the Jackson county Red Cross, and members of the board urge all parents to take advantage of the excellent opportunity their kiddies will have in learning to swim under a capable teacher. Mr. Holstrom will also have experienced assistants. . . .

"Research Professor of Economy"

SHE'S not a Ph.D. or an LL.D. She hasn't a diploma or a cap and gown. Her research is not done in the laboratory or the library. As a matter of fact, her findings are made, usually, in the street car, in the subway, in the suburban commuter's train.

She reads the advertisements in this paper with care and consideration. They form her research data. By means of them she makes her purchases so that she well deserves the title of "Research Professor of Economy." She discovers item after item, as the year rolls on, combining high quality with low.

It is clear to you at once that you . . . and all who make and keep a home . . . have the same opportunity. With the help of newspaper advertising you, too, can graduate from the school of indiscriminate buying into the faculty of fastidious purchases!
