

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Transacts Business—A. A. Madden of Ashland was among out-of-town resident transacting business here yesterday morning.

To Ontario—Jerry Warren of 324 Haven street left by train Wednesday night for Ontario where he will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Reported Improved—Mrs. J. A. White of Ashland, who is recovering from a major operation at a local hospital, is reported much improved.

Postpone Picnic—Because of weather conditions, the picnic planned by Nevita chapter, O. E. S., for June 20 has been postponed until June 27.

From Ashland—President Walter Bedford and Angus L. Bommer of the Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland were transacting business in Medford today.

Here from Ashland—Recent Ashland visitors in Medford included Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Miss Lydia Smith, the Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Nourse and daughters, Roberta and Marilyn, all of whom called here Wednesday.

Worker Injured—Walter Bradbury, WPA worker at the forest service warehouse here, was slightly injured yesterday and will be confined to his home for several days, headquarters announced.

In Grants Pass—Recent Medford visitors in Grants Pass included Mrs. Julia Grubb and two sons, David and Martin, who called at the home of Mrs. Annie Martin and Mrs. Anna Clark.

Council Tonight—Boy Scout club pack number 8 will hold a meeting and achievement council tonight at 8 o'clock at the Washington school. Program features will include presentation of a charter to the Washington P. T. A. by Scout Executive Irving P. Rowley and membership cards. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

On Business Trip—Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, returned last night from an official business trip to Roseburg. He plans to leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where he will take into custody four federal prisoners for incarceration in Jackson county jail, pending their transfer to Portland.

Side Camp Set Up—A side camp of 50 men from the South Fork CCC camp has been established at Lake of the Woods. The men will be engaged in the development of campgrounds in the Rogue River national forest at Lake of the Woods and Fish Lake. Another South Fork side camp of about 30 men will soon be established near the Imnaha guard station on the south fork of the Rogue river, forest headquarters said.

Joins Army—Announcement was made today by Maj. H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer in Portland, of the enlistment of Herbert E. Crowder, son of Mrs. Loris Munnick of Central Point. Crowder made application for enlistment at the Medford recruiting office June 15 and was tentatively accepted by Sgt. Willis S. Estep, in charge of the local station. He passed the final army tests at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and was enlisted June 16 for service with the 29th engineers for station in Portland. Maj. Bagnall also stated there were a few vacancies remaining for service with the 29th engineers, who are now engaged in mapping and surveying the Oregon coast.

To Crater Lake—Ernest A. Rostel, publicist for the national park service, left today for Crater Lake where he will be stationed for the summer. He arrived here recently from Portland where he was in charge of information for the Pacific northwest region for the park service, a position he procured after being employed as publicity writer for Crater Lake national park for several summers. Mr. Rostel will return to his Portland office in the fall. During the past winter he placed 15 magazine articles on Crater Lake and southern Oregon in addition to numerous articles on state parks in the northwest. He is well known here, having been a resident of Central Point and Medford up to the time he went to Portland late last fall.

High Wind Holds Vessels at Bar

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—At least four vessels due in the Astoria harbor this morning were either waiting outside the bar or delayed by winds of gale proportions, the Merchants Exchange said.

The Pacific Trader, from the Puget Sound and British Columbia; the Eleanor Christensen from Willapa harbor; the Capac from Aberdeen, and possibly the Silver Palm from San Francisco, were outside the mouth of the Columbia, unable to cross the bar until the wind subsided.

Weather reports said a 30-mile wind was still blowing at the river entrance.

Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M., stated communication Friday, June 18, 8 p. m. Visiting brethren welcome.

C. M. Houston, W. M. R. E. Sweeney, Secretary.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

BROAD RELIGION NEED OF PEOPLE BISHOP DECLARES

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, Episcopal bishop of eastern Oregon, told a northwest Episcopal forward movement conference today that Christian people have devoted too much energy "in planning and nurturing the particular branch of the church through which we received our own individual salvation."

"Sad and tragic as it is," said the bishop, "we must admit that we are to define the church as its great body of baptized members, it is largely self-centered, intent on individual salvation and parochially minded."

The session here is one of five being held throughout America looking toward the triennial general convention next fall. Leading ministers, laymen and laywomen are attending from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

The Rev. Robert O. Kevin, Ph.D., of Kirkwood parish, St. Louis, is chairman of the conference, assisted by Dr. Arthur M. Sherman of New York City, a member of the forward movement staff, and Bishop Edward M. Cross, S.T.D. of Spokane, one of five bishops on the movement commission.

Dr. Sherman said the church is getting a new definition of the word "missionary" from the movement and the communicants are coming to see that the church has a missionary responsibility to "enter into every area of life where the principles of Christ are not recognized and obeyed."

Attend Meeting—W. C. Brown, M. W. Hanel, George Inlow, Harold Haines and Elmer Smith were among Ashland Elk members attending the national Elk Magazine caravan entertainment at the local temple Wednesday evening.

Here on Visit—Wayne May, former local youth and at present employed by the United Air Lines in Oakland, Cal., as a dispatcher, arrived by plane last night and will spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl May of 604 Newtown street.

Grange Party—Central Point Grange will hold a birthday party at 8 o'clock tonight for all members who were born in April, May or June. There will also be a Flag Day program. Miss Bertha Bursell, delegate to the state Grange, will make her report of the convention.

On Business Trip—Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, returned last night from an official business trip to Roseburg. He plans to leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where he will take into custody four federal prisoners for incarceration in Jackson county jail, pending their transfer to Portland.

Side Camp Set Up—A side camp of 50 men from the South Fork CCC camp has been established at Lake of the Woods. The men will be engaged in the development of campgrounds in the Rogue River national forest at Lake of the Woods and Fish Lake. Another South Fork side camp of about 30 men will soon be established near the Imnaha guard station on the south fork of the Rogue river, forest headquarters said.

Joins Army—Announcement was made today by Maj. H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer in Portland, of the enlistment of Herbert E. Crowder, son of Mrs. Loris Munnick of Central Point. Crowder made application for enlistment at the Medford recruiting office June 15 and was tentatively accepted by Sgt. Willis S. Estep, in charge of the local station. He passed the final army tests at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and was enlisted June 16 for service with the 29th engineers for station in Portland. Maj. Bagnall also stated there were a few vacancies remaining for service with the 29th engineers, who are now engaged in mapping and surveying the Oregon coast.

To Crater Lake—Ernest A. Rostel, publicist for the national park service, left today for Crater Lake where he will be stationed for the summer. He arrived here recently from Portland where he was in charge of information for the Pacific northwest region for the park service, a position he procured after being employed as publicity writer for Crater Lake national park for several summers. Mr. Rostel will return to his Portland office in the fall. During the past winter he placed 15 magazine articles on Crater Lake and southern Oregon in addition to numerous articles on state parks in the northwest. He is well known here, having been a resident of Central Point and Medford up to the time he went to Portland late last fall.

High Wind Holds Vessels at Bar

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—At least four vessels due in the Astoria harbor this morning were either waiting outside the bar or delayed by winds of gale proportions, the Merchants Exchange said.

The Pacific Trader, from the Puget Sound and British Columbia; the Eleanor Christensen from Willapa harbor; the Capac from Aberdeen, and possibly the Silver Palm from San Francisco, were outside the mouth of the Columbia, unable to cross the bar until the wind subsided.

Weather reports said a 30-mile wind was still blowing at the river entrance.

Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M., stated communication Friday, June 18, 8 p. m. Visiting brethren welcome.

C. M. Houston, W. M. R. E. Sweeney, Secretary.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Here Sunday

Loretta Young On Sunday Bill

Loretta Young and Tyrone Power, prior of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

BROAD RELIGION NEED OF PEOPLE BISHOP DECLARES

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, Episcopal bishop of eastern Oregon, told a northwest Episcopal forward movement conference today that Christian people have devoted too much energy "in planning and nurturing the particular branch of the church through which we received our own individual salvation."

"Sad and tragic as it is," said the bishop, "we must admit that we are to define the church as its great body of baptized members, it is largely self-centered, intent on individual salvation and parochially minded."

The session here is one of five being held throughout America looking toward the triennial general convention next fall. Leading ministers, laymen and laywomen are attending from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

The Rev. Robert O. Kevin, Ph.D., of Kirkwood parish, St. Louis, is chairman of the conference, assisted by Dr. Arthur M. Sherman of New York City, a member of the forward movement staff, and Bishop Edward M. Cross, S.T.D. of Spokane, one of five bishops on the movement commission.

Dr. Sherman said the church is getting a new definition of the word "missionary" from the movement and the communicants are coming to see that the church has a missionary responsibility to "enter into every area of life where the principles of Christ are not recognized and obeyed."

Attend Meeting—W. C. Brown, M. W. Hanel, George Inlow, Harold Haines and Elmer Smith were among Ashland Elk members attending the national Elk Magazine caravan entertainment at the local temple Wednesday evening.

Here on Visit—Wayne May, former local youth and at present employed by the United Air Lines in Oakland, Cal., as a dispatcher, arrived by plane last night and will spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl May of 604 Newtown street.

Grange Party—Central Point Grange will hold a birthday party at 8 o'clock tonight for all members who were born in April, May or June. There will also be a Flag Day program. Miss Bertha Bursell, delegate to the state Grange, will make her report of the convention.

On Business Trip—Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, returned last night from an official business trip to Roseburg. He plans to leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where he will take into custody four federal prisoners for incarceration in Jackson county jail, pending their transfer to Portland.

Side Camp Set Up—A side camp of 50 men from the South Fork CCC camp has been established at Lake of the Woods. The men will be engaged in the development of campgrounds in the Rogue River national forest at Lake of the Woods and Fish Lake. Another South Fork side camp of about 30 men will soon be established near the Imnaha guard station on the south fork of the Rogue river, forest headquarters said.

Joins Army—Announcement was made today by Maj. H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer in Portland, of the enlistment of Herbert E. Crowder, son of Mrs. Loris Munnick of Central Point. Crowder made application for enlistment at the Medford recruiting office June 15 and was tentatively accepted by Sgt. Willis S. Estep, in charge of the local station. He passed the final army tests at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and was enlisted June 16 for service with the 29th engineers for station in Portland. Maj. Bagnall also stated there were a few vacancies remaining for service with the 29th engineers, who are now engaged in mapping and surveying the Oregon coast.

To Crater Lake—Ernest A. Rostel, publicist for the national park service, left today for Crater Lake where he will be stationed for the summer. He arrived here recently from Portland where he was in charge of information for the Pacific northwest region for the park service, a position he procured after being employed as publicity writer for Crater Lake national park for several summers. Mr. Rostel will return to his Portland office in the fall. During the past winter he placed 15 magazine articles on Crater Lake and southern Oregon in addition to numerous articles on state parks in the northwest. He is well known here, having been a resident of Central Point and Medford up to the time he went to Portland late last fall.

High Wind Holds Vessels at Bar

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—At least four vessels due in the Astoria harbor this morning were either waiting outside the bar or delayed by winds of gale proportions, the Merchants Exchange said.

The Pacific Trader, from the Puget Sound and British Columbia; the Eleanor Christensen from Willapa harbor; the Capac from Aberdeen, and possibly the Silver Palm from San Francisco, were outside the mouth of the Columbia, unable to cross the bar until the wind subsided.

Weather reports said a 30-mile wind was still blowing at the river entrance.

Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M., stated communication Friday, June 18, 8 p. m. Visiting brethren welcome.

C. M. Houston, W. M. R. E. Sweeney, Secretary.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Order your Fall suit now and save money. Gus the Tailor, 120 North Central.

Here Sunday

Loretta Young On Sunday Bill

Loretta Young and Tyrone Power, prior of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background that the gay, young lovers start a romance that was to fire the world.

Gregory Ratoff, Helen Westley and Charles Winninger also have featured roles with Miss Young and Power.

Adolph Menjou has the chief supporting role as the business-like proprietor of the Cafe Metropole, social gathering place of the well-to-do of Paris. It is against this background