

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wenzel of Ashland were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bierma at their home here Monday evening.

McAllister Home—Attorney William M. McAllister returned home by train this morning from a business trip north.

Visits Daughter—Mrs. S. A. Parker of Ashland visited in Medford Tuesday at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Campbell.

Has Operation—June Boswell, young daughter of Mrs. Harry Boswell, underwent an appendectomy at the Community hospital this morning.

From Death Valley—William M. Aiken of Death Valley, who has been visiting friends and relatives here and in Ashland for the past week, left for home last night.

To Hospital—Dolores Hagen, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hagen, left by train this morning for Portland where she was to enter the Shriners' hospital for treatment.

Truck Accident—Trucks driven by Herbert Brainard of Butte Falls and Thomas Pickering of CCC headquarters detachment here were involved in an accident at Butte Falls yesterday afternoon, a city police report said today.

Here from Ashland—Ashland residents calling here Tuesday included I. F. Deadmond, Ben Taylor, Mrs. Cloma Burton and daughter, Jeanette and Mourne, Mrs. Roy Dotson and Pina Stewart and daughter Doris.

Examiner Due—Ward McReynolds, state examiner of operators and chauffeurs, will be in Medford Saturday at the city hall from 8 a. m. until 3 p. m. All seeking permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with Mr. McReynolds during those hours.

Foreign Visitors—Two foreign motorists registered at the AAA office yesterday, Lee Garlock, manager, revealed today. They were W. G. Adams of Auckland, New Zealand, and R. L. A. Beauchamp of Chelham, England. Both were touring America and told Garlock they would see Crater lake today.

Reunion of Sisters—Mrs. Julia Jeffries of Los Angeles arrived recently for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Hinman of 912 West 10th street. Mrs. Jeffries and Mrs. Hinman are sisters. They had not seen each other for 15 years.

Mark Promotion Day—Christian Endeavor and Missionary societies of the First Christian church met Sunday evening to observe promotion day. Adult members served refreshments to about 40 members and guests. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Drummond, missionaries from India, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mitchell of Ashland, parents of Miss Hattie Mitchell, African missionary, were among special guests. The impressive promotion services were held in the flower-decorated church auditorium, with the senior members in charge. Mrs. Drummond spoke on "Young People of India," comparing them with American youth.

Medford Publicized—His decorated, duralumin-covered trailer has been the center of curiosity all along the route to Chicago, it was stated in a letter received today from E. J. Klein, Medford tailor. With Mrs. Klein and their sons, Mr. Klein is making a motor tour to Jersey City, N. J., to visit a brother he has not seen in 27 years. The silvery sides of the Klein trailer are decorated with paintings of Rogue valley pears and apples, with large red arrows pointing to the name Medford, Oregon. All along the route, Mr. Klein wrote, persons have stopped to inspect the trailer and inquire about Medford. From Chicago eastward Mr. Klein said he would distribute literature put out by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.
