Games Sunday, Ashland at Grants Pass, Roseburg at Crescent City.

Imbued with a new fire following their sensational upset win over Ashland last Sunday, the Medford Craters will move against the rough and tough Glendale Loggers Sunday at the high school turf field in the Southern Oregon league's first-half finale. Opening pitch is slated for 2:30 sharp.

Manager Mike Balkovick, with the weather smiling for the first full week this season, has sent his charges through intensive fielding and batting drills every afternoon, and reports the club in its best condition of the year. He has definitely nominated young Ray Erickson to start on the mound for the Craters, with Larry Pepper held for emergency roles, if any.

Hankinson Recovered.
Duke Hankinson, the flashy third baseman, who is slowly recovering from an ankle injury in the Roseburg game three weeks ago, has been slugging the ball with mighty gusto during workouts, and the huge skipper said he would start at the hot corner. All other players have been tearing the cover off the ball in batting drills, and Balkovick has visions of his club shelling Glendale's Larry Nunnenkamp with plenty of dispatch.

Bud Reinking, former Jacksonville high school athlete and well-known in local baseball circles, signed with the Medford team early in the week and has been reporting for practice daily. He is a righthanded hitter, and can play either the infield or outfield. The manager said he would be used in the outer gardens in case he played. George Harrington, an infield collegian, was expected to report for practice this afternoon, and Russ Acheson, member of the high school coaching staff, will be ready to go, Balkovick reported. Lyle Russell, young outfielder from Central Point, has also been going great in practice, Mike said.

A definite lineup will not be announced until Sunday, big Mike said, because he wanted to cast his eagle eye over his talent just once more—today. However, it will probably be almost the same that rallied for four runs to beat the Lithians last Sunday.

Glendale Stronger.
With Larry Nunnenkamp, fireballer from Willamette University, doing the hurling, Manager Jake Gipe will send a far stronger Glendale team onto the field than it posted in the team standings. The Loggers, second best in the circuit last year, got off to a slow start this semester, and are just now recovering. In addition to Nunnenkamp, Dwight Catherwood, shortstop, and Rex Pierce, first base, have joined the Loggers from Willamette in Gipe's ambitious move to strengthen for the second half. Right now, Glendale is figured, along with Ashland, as one of the teams to beat during the final series of ball games. Nunnenkamp and Erickson, both fast ball throwers, are expected to stage a pretty pitching duel. The Logger twirler lost a tough 1-2 game to Ashland's Bob Hardy two weeks ago, and has been straining at the leash to get in action again and prove the league isn't too fast for him. Erickson, possessed of a world of stuff, has, nevertheless, been the hard luck pitcher of the circuit to date. Twice he has worked beautiful games for eight innings, only to see errors in critical moments or surprise batters by supposedly weak hitters snatch victory from his clutch.

Manager Balkovick has never lost confidence in the young righthander. He is dead certain Erickson has what it takes, and figures that a win will blast once and for all the jinx that has tagged him. Erickson will start the ball game Sunday for certain, and his manager and teammates expect to go out there and help him get a victory.

COAST ATHLETES FAVORED IN MEET

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—(AP)—The experts gathered around today and without much argument agreed that athletes of the Pacific coast conference should wallop their guests from the big ten in tomorrow's dual track and field meet.

Looking back at comparative performances of the two factions in the N.C.A.A. meet at Berkeley last week, the experts' predictions seemed well founded. The leads from the coast scored 174 points, led by Dean Cromwell's champion southern California squad, while the big ten representatives counted only 88. Competitions in the nation are borne out when it is recalled that the exception of the shotput and two-mile run, big ten coast athletes captured either first or second in every event in the N.C.A.A.

PLAN BIKE RACES WITH BALL GAMES HI SCHOOL FIELD

"They're off!" will be roared from the grandstand next week at the high school football field, but in place of prancing ponies and straining jockeys, will be kids of Medford, 14 years old or under, booting their bicycles around the quarter-mile running track for glory and prizes, each night, starting Monday and lasting until Friday, inclusive.

Russ Acheson, who will be in charge of the bike races, said yesterday that all boys in the age limit, with bicycles, are urged to enter. The only rules, he explained, were that only vehicles with standard size sprockets would be allowed to enter, and that riders must register at City School Superintendent E. H. Hedrick's office or at the high school field this week.

The race will be held in conjunction with the nightly softball games and will be one mile in length—four times around the track. Medford's youth will pedal their wheels around the track each night until Friday, when the finals between nightly winners will be staged. The four finalists will compete for the following prizes: a bicycle speedometer donated by Sims brothers, a headlight donated by Lampport's, a ball mitt, donated by Hubbard brothers, and an unnamed prize by Piche's. The winner of the race Friday will receive the headlight, with the other wards going to the remaining bicyclists. Winners of the nightly races will also receive milkshakes from Bigelow's confectionery.

Acheson pointed out that the high school field would be open from 11-12 a. m. this week to enable the entrants to work out, and get used to the cinder running path. He also stated that bicycles could be stripped so long as the standard size sprocket was retained.

SKIING CONTINUES AT CRATER LAKE
CRATER LAKE, June 25.—(Sp.)—While the sun is making deep inroads on Crater lake snow depths, the season's skiing promises to be good for another week or ten days on slopes behind Hillman peak. An expansive snow field there is still deep with sufficient pitch to furnish many skilling trails. The area is less than four miles from the Crater lake lodge and can be reached by automobile, snow plows recently having cleared this section of the rim road in preparation for opening the north entrance to the park. The entrance, connection with Diamond lake and the Dalles-California highway, is expected to be open within a week. Snow in the rim village area is rapidly disappearing but it is not likely that the rim campground will be open for another two weeks. Kernel smut of sorghum may be controlled by applying copper carbonate to the sorghum seed before planting. Pastures furnish a large portion of the feed for Texas dairy herds. The 1935 census lists Texas with 7,000,000 head of sheep, or 14.5 per cent of the United States' total. Phone 542. We'll haul away your refuse. City Sanitary Service

One Of Six

Dale Haddock (above) has the reputation of being a clean grappler, but from his one appearance here last Monday night, he can be classed as a number one villain. He will be one of six wrestlers taking part in the battle royal at the Medford Armory next Monday evening.

Four games are again scheduled for tonight, with the Commercial league battles starting at 7:45 and the Service circuit clubs taking the field immediately afterward.

SOFTBALL GAMES UNDER ARCLIGHTS DRAW BIG CROWD

Games Tonight Commercial League Fluhrer's vs. Fabers. Piche vs. Jennings. Service League Postoffice vs. Elks. Lions vs. Kiwanis. Approximately 500 rabbit fans turned out last night to watch two Commercial and two Service league softball games under the lights at the high school field. It was the largest crowd of the season, and it was treated to all kinds of ball, both good and bad.

Behind the steady hurling of Sam Colton, the Office Boys defeated the HUMRS, 4-0, in a Commercial league encounter. Leavitt, pitching for the losers, also turned in a nice performance but his teammates couldn't get him any runs.

In the other Commercial league game, Timber Products blasted out a 17-6 victory over the Catholic Young Men. Dick Lewis clouted a homer for the lumbermen to lead the attack.

Terrific hitting by Severson and Young failed to save the Groceries in a Service league game, and Copo defeated the food-peddlers, 11-7. Severson collected three hits in three trips, including two home runs, and Young lashed out a pair of triples.

Although outstint almost two to one, the Kiwanis club knocked over the Postoffice, 9-7, when Uncle Sam's employe kicked the ball eight times behind good hurling by Singler. Kiwanis gave Rainey perfect support.

ELI SWEEPSTERS TAKE FIRST TWO

NEW LONDON, Ct., June 25.—(AP)—Yale's oarsmen made a clean sweep of the two morning races of the 77th annual regatta with Harvard today, winning the freshman race by a length and a half and the junior varsity by about three-quarters of a length.

The Elis were handed the freshman race, rowed over a two-mile upstream course on the Thames, on a platter. When Harvard caught a "crab" in the final half mile but captured the Jayvee race, also at two miles, on their own merits.

Yale's junior varsity spotted Harvard a half length lead in the early stages of their duel, made this up before a quarter mile had gone by and won handily. Harvard's sprint finish in the last quarter of a mile served only to cut Yale's winning margin from nearly two lengths to about three-quarters of a length.

The clash of the varsities, scheduled to start at 6:15 p. m. (EST), will top off this town's biggest sports program of the year.

PAIR OF CLEANIES TO TAKE CHANCES IN BATTLE ROYAL

The hated Black Dragon, who was defeated for the first time in the Medford ring last Monday night by Pete Belcastro—even more hated—will get another crack at the Mad Italian next Monday in the Bartlett street barn of brutality when some 1000 pounds of Promoter Mack Lillard's finest wrestling beef climbs through the ropes for what is called a battle royal but may turn out to be a spectacle of mass mayhem.

Those who have been invited to take part in the affair are Frankie Taylor, the cleanie; Frankie Stojack, also a cleanie, and the following very mean men: Monte LaDue, Dale Haddock, Belcastro and the Dragon. Following next Monday's program, the army will be dark for one week while customers and performers recuperate from the goings-on. The next card will be staged July 12.

Although the impending battle royal is expected to provide plenty of entertainment for the addicts, it is merely a prelude to the actual program. It will take the match-making responsibility of Lillard's shoulders in that the first two men eliminated will return to the battleground for the opening event of the regular card, the next pair tumbled will meet in the middle squabble, and the final duo of torso twisters will return for the top main event.

Last week, in his first appearance here, Frank Stojack displayed some of the most devastating football maneuvers yet seen. He is a former Washington State college grid star, and has brought to the wrestling ring a spectacular sonnenberg and super-spectacular dropkick, both of which finished off Dale Haddock, meanie from Los Angeles. Stojack will be one of the favorites in the battle royal.

The most spectacular private feud of several, which will be aired again is that involving the Black Dragon and Pete Belcastro. Pete surprised all southern Oregon, and perhaps himself, when he knocked the hooded one into submission last Monday with two terrific hammerlocks, and hundreds of fans are hoping the two meet again in the main event in addition to facing each other in the crowded battle royal.

The general belief that grasshoppers make an excellent turkey feed was not upheld in experiments at Oklahoma A. and M. College. Most important single cause of low production and death in sheep is said to be stomach worms.

M'CLOUD GOLF TEAM COMING SUNDAY FOR INTER-CITY CONTEST

Pivot-diggers of the Rogue Valley Golf club will meet their first inter-city opponents of the year when the McCloud, Cal., club sends a 20-man team and five women golfers to the local course Sunday. Opening shots will be fired at 9:30 a. m.

All players will be matched with opponents as near in their handicap class as possible. Scoring will be done under the Nassau system, which gives one point for the first nine holes, one point for the second nine, and one point for the entire 18.

According to word received by Dave Wilcox, the McCloud golfers have played one inter-city match this year, losing to Klamath Falls. It is planned by local golfers to return McCloud's visit later in the summer. Another possible match being arranged for the Medford players will see the Eureka, Cal., hookers and slicers journeying here, probably July 10.

BUDGE CONTINUES WIMBLEDON WINS

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 25.—(AP)—Don Budge, America's chief hope of regaining the Davis cup, continued his parade through the all-England tennis championships today as he defeated Ladislav Hecht of Czechoslovakia 6-4, 6-2, 6-2 to gain the quarter-final round.

Frankie Parker, youthful American tennis star, moved into the quarter finals with a straight set victory over Daniel Prehn of Germany. Scores were 6-4, 7-5, 6-2. An unfortunate incident marred the match. Parker had taken the first set and Prehn was leading 5-0 in the second when a young man in the packed center court, attacked by a fit, began losing unceremoniously.

Prehn appeared to be badly shaken as a first aid crew removed the struggling man, and the German's game went entirely to pieces. Parker easily ran up seven straight games. The American had a bad fall in the 12th game. More than 5,000,000 young trees are being planted in Missouri for erosion control and reforestation.
