Tyrrell, deceased, which persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same duly verified, to this administrator at the office of Gus Newbury in the United States National Bank Building, Medford, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

J. R. TYRRELL, Administrator of the estate of John H. Tyrrell, deceased.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Jackson.

The Federal Land Bank of Spokane, a corporation, Plaintiff.

vs. William F. Jones and Jennie May Jones, husband and wife, Clara Moura Wells and her Development Company of Southern Oregon, a corporation; H. W. Hamlin; Big 7 Fruit Warehouse, Inc., a corporation; H. C. Savage, First National Bank of Southern Oregon, a corporation; Jackson County, a municipal corporation; and Rogue River National Farm Loan Association, a corporation, Defendants.

To the defendant H. C. Savage: In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby summoned and required to appear in the above entitled Court and cause and answer the complaint of plaintiff on file herein within four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to wit: on June 15, 1937.

You are further notified that in case you fail to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint within said time, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: For a decree of the Court ordering that the sum of $185.00, being the par value of 27 shares of stock in the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, pledged by the Rogue River National Farm Loan Association as security for the loan made by the plaintiff herein, be applied to the payment of the amount secured by plaintiff's mortgage against the property described in the judgment against the defendants William F. Jones and Jennie May Jones, husband and wife, and the Rogue River National Farm Loan Association, and for the further sum of $100.00, for such other sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees herein, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements; and that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendants for the amount described in the foregoing described real estate, to-wit: The Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section Four, Township Thirty-six South, Range Four, West of the Willamette Meridian; excepting and reserving therefrom that part thereof lying on the West side of Evans Creek and more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the Northwest corner of the Southwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of said Section

Four, running thence East to the center of Evans Creek, thence following Northwesterly to the center of Evans Creek to the Northwest corner of the Southeast Quarter of Section Four, thence South to the place of beginning, containing 9 acres, more or less, also a right of way for a bridge at a point 247 feet north of where the South line of the above described premises crosses Evans Creek and extending as far Westerly as the present County road, but no farther, said right of way to be 20 feet in width, excepting also commencing at a point fifteen rods and 31/2 feet North of the Southeast corner of the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Four, Township Thirty-six South, Range Four, West of the Willamette Meridian; thence running North to the Northeast corner of the aforesaid tract; thence West along the North line of said tract 1 1/2 rods; thence South 61 rods 6 1/2 feet; thence East 13 1/2 rods to the starting point and containing 5 acres, more or less, situated in Jackson County, State of Oregon.

Together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and

Together with all water and water rights used upon or appurtenant to said land and however evidenced, as well as the mortgaged premises, together with all water and water rights used upon or appurtenant to said land and however evidenced, be sold in one parcel in the County of Jackson, Oregon, and the State of Oregon; and the proceeds thereof be applied towards the payment of the plaintiff's decreed costs and accruing costs; that said sale of the plaintiff be permitted to become a purchase; that the defendants above named and each and all of them be and they be bound of all right, title, claim or interest in the premises described in plaintiff's mortgage, except the right of redemption, by the plaintiff, and that plaintiff have such other and further relief as is meet and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication once each week for three consecutive weeks in the Medford Mail Tribune, a newspaper of general circulation published at Medford, Jackson County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable H. D. Norton, Judge of the above named Court, which order is dated June 3, 1937.

PORTER J. NEFF, Postoffice address: Medford, Oregon. Cooley Theatre Building. E. C. Prestaby, Postoffice address: 610 Main Avenue, Spokane, Washington.

Notice of First Meeting of Creditors.

COUNTY BRIEFS

Big Applegate

BIG APPLEGATE, June 24—(Sp.)—Mrs. J. A. West has returned to her home on Little Applegate after spending two months at Sacramento with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Paul.

Guests for the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Corthay of Seattle and their niece, Miss Elizabeth Stewart of Knoxville, Tenn. The Seattle couple are returning to their home after a year's tour of the United States. They spent much of their time in Arizona and Indiana, and recently have enjoyed life at the beach. Their trailer house has added to the pleasure of their trip.

Local people motoring the Dileworth strawberry patch near Prosser Sunday included Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh, Mr. and Mrs. John Savan, Mrs. James Buckley and son Lewis, Mrs. Fred West and daughter Colista, and Mrs. Jess Taylor and daughter Lucille.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube included Mr. and Mrs. George Pitkins and daughter Betty of Coquille, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMullen and son Dale of Glendale, Ore.

Whether it was belief in the change of the moon and official entry of summer bringing an end to the inclement weather or mere weariness from a prolonged vacation, farmers here swung into hay cutting this week, three weeks behind their annual schedule. As a finale to the fresh-lime of the June weather, Tuesday night brought frost to this section.

A Rich resident reports that her morning glory leaves were written as a result of the frost.

Mrs. Charles Raveon is ill at her home near Rich. She is confined to her bed, and has been ill for the last two months.

Arranging a surprise picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. George Brownlee Tuesday, patrons of the Sterling school district presented Mrs. Brownlee with a 32-piece set of dishes in appreciation of her services as teacher in their school during the last four years. Mrs. Brownlee, who has taught for a period of ten years, is retiring from the teaching profession.

Friends here have received word of the recent marriage of Mrs. Velma Weisenborn and Paul Anderson of Long Beach, Cal. The bride is the former Velma Mansfield who resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Mansfield, on lower Applegate over ten years ago. The newlyweds will reside at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne left Monday on a 12-day motor trip to Canada. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson and son Bernard of San Jose, Cal. Mrs. Watson is the former Maude Byrne.

Lydia and Raymond West are ill at their home with chickenpox.

Maurice Fox of Portland was a week-end guest of John Harr. Both are making headquarters at Perks' Pasture guard station at present while employed in trail repair. Mr. Fox will act as lookout at Dutchman's Peak during the summer, and Mr. Harr will be stationed at Perks' Pasture as a fire guard.

Having motored south to attend the Lions' convention at Medford last week, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wheeler of Portland came to this community and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benedict. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, taught at the Applegate school over 20 years ago, and now are engaged in the bakery business in Portland.

Mrs. Amos McKee was hostess to ten guests at a demonstration dinner Tuesday evening conducted by Ivan Goodman, representative of the Silver Seal kitchenware.

A number of Ashland people motored here Sunday in honor of Mr. Henry's birthday June
