Freytag-Meiling Wedding Sunday

Prominent among events of interest over the week-end will be the wedding of Miss Margaret Meiling, and Ernst H. Freytag, son of Mrs. Emma A. Freytag of Oregon City.

The ceremony will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. E. S. Barham will read the service before relatives and close friends of the bride and groom.

Medford Girl Is Married In East

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Coats of this city have announced the recent marriage of their daughter Mildred, to Harry Jaeger, Jr., of New York City.

The church ceremony was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. The young couple are to honeymoon in Montreal, Canada, later returning to make their home in New York City.

The bride has many friends in southern Oregon. She is a graduate of Southern Oregon Normal school and was recently a member of the Klamath Falls school faculty. She has resided here with her family for the past year. They are former residents of Ashland.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jaeger of New York City.

Circle Planning Picnic Tuesday

Members of the Eveready circle are to be entertained at the annual picnic which has been scheduled for next Tuesday at the John White summer home on Wagner creek.

The gathering is to be an all-day affair. Those attending are to bring service and a covered-dish. Transportation is to be arranged, those in charge asked. Time has been set for 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

New Resident Party Honoree

Mrs. Matiey Russell was honored last evening by a group of Grants Pass friends who gathered at her new home here.

Guests included members of the Grants Pass I Am class, of which Mrs. Russell is leader. The group presented her with a gift. Features of the evening included discussions of work of the class by Mrs. Meade Fox, A. W. Garver and Mrs. Russell.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elder, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Eldred, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Parr, Mesdames Alice Colby, Elizabeth Mergargel, Dana McKinstry, Mina Gordon, Anita Swinden, Clara Stovley, Bertha King, Ruth Morrison, Julia Reed, Anna Bradford, Jenny Hansen, E. E. Geer, Miss Minnie Ireland and Elbert A. Starkweather, of Grants Pass.

After a honeymoon at Castle Rock, the young couple will make their home near Dunsmuir.

House-Guest at Hathaway Home

Mrs. Isabel Mason-Worden of Piedmont, Calif., is among out-of-town residents being greeted in the city. She is the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hathaway, having arrived last week-end.

A number of affairs have been arranged for the visitor by her hostess, who invited friends for luncheon twice and a cocktail party this week. Mrs. Hathaway and others plan further entertainment for the Californian during her two weeks' stay here.

Card Party Is Set Saturday

Members of the F. L. club will be hostesses at a card party tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the I.O.O.F. hall. Other games will be arranged for those who do not play cards, the committee states.

The affair is a benefit and a cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested.

Mrs. McCaskey Is Wednesday Hostess

Among hostesses of the past week was Mrs. H. D. McCaskey who arranged an afternoon affair at her home Wednesday.

Mrs. McCaskey invited members of the Colony club in honor of Mrs. S. A. M. Young of South Dakota. Mrs. Young is a house-guest of Mrs. McCaskey.

Katzenbach-Swing Marriage Is Told

HOWARD, June 25.—(Sp.)—Miss Anna May Swing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Swing of San Diego, Calif., became the bride of John H.

Katzenbach of Dunsmuir, Calif., in a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Swing on the old Central Point highway. The bride is a sister of M. J. Swing.

The service was read at 1:30 o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister, Peggy Swing, as maid of honor and her niece, Mercedes Swing, as junior maid of honor. Other members of the wedding party were Clarence and Daniel Swing.

The bride wore forget-me-not blue taffeta and a corsage of orange blossoms and pink rosebuds, the blossoms being repeated in a circlet worn on her head. The maid of honor was gowned in yellow taffeta with a matching rosebud corsage and the junior maid wore pink taffeta with pink rosebuds. Delphiniums, Cecil Brunner roses and columbine decorated the rooms.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony, with a three-tiered wedding cake centering the table.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Swing and Peggy and Daniel Swing of San Diego and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Younghaus of Grants Pass.

After a honeymoon at Castle Rock, the young couple will make their home near Dunsmuir.

Les Gillman Hurt When Car Upsets

Les Gillman, son of George Gillman of the Gillman dairy, route 3, was slightly injured yesterday when his car overturned on the highway near Astoria, according to reports received here today.

Mr. Gillman was en route to Astoria to the state convention of Eagles lodges. While details of the accident could not be learned today, it was reported his automobile was considerably damaged.

Mary In Dither As Wedding Day Near

HOLLYWOOD, June 25.—(UP)—Mary Pickford, as excited as a high school girl on graduation day, looked from one to another of three dresses last night and tried to solve the age-old problem of what to wear.

For Miss Pickford the question was of more than ordinary importance for the gown will be her wedding gown, the one she will wear Saturday when she and Charles (Buddy) Rogers are married.

No. 1 Film Lover In Drunken Drive

MALIBU BEACH, Calif., June 25.—(AP)—Robert Armstrong, movie actor, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving here today. Justice John C. Webster fined him $150, passed a 30-day sentence which was suspended for one year, and ordered the actor's license to drive suspended for 90 days.

Death Decree For Rockford Slayer

LONOKE, Ark., June 25.—(UP)—Lester Brockelhurst, 33-year-old former Rockford, Ill., Sunday school teacher, last night was convicted of first degree murder for the slaying of Victor Gates, Little Rock planter.

The young "crime tourist" fainted when he heard the verdict and fell into the arms of his father. The Elder Brockelhurst collapsed later. Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner, who

M. M. Store Begins Bargain Basement Closing Out Sale

A sweeping close-out of the M. M. Department Store's Bargain Basement was launched today by Charles S. Adair, new manager of that store, with drastically reduced prices throughout this department. The close-out of the basement stocks marks the first step in the M. M. Store's new program which will include the removal of the entire store to a new location later this year. No basement merchandise will be reserved in this sweeping disposal event, according to Adair.

Workers are now working on the new home of the M. M. Department store, which will be located on East Main street near Central avenue. This new store will be modern in every detail with a beautiful new front island showcases, etc. The basement close out will facilitate the store's moving later this year.

13 Children Hurt By Carnival Device

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—(UP)—Thirteen children were injured, one critically, last night when the center pole of a carnival riding device known as a "merry mixup" collapsed and hurled them to the ground.

The children were riding in individual chairs suspended by chains from the pole. While the chairs were revolving the support gave way. The children fell screaming.

Mina Pecora, 14, was the most seriously hurt. She suffered a broken back.

Delay Obtained In Sale Of St. Marys

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—(UP)—A bondholders' protective committee today postponed until July 23 the foreclosure sale of the property of St. Mary's college, famed for its football team.

The sale was scheduled for tomorrow. F. F. Janney, chairman of the bondholders' committee, announced the postponement.

An effort is now under way to raise funds to repurchase the property when it comes up for sale, William J. Fitzgerald, attorney for the college board of trustees, said.

Citrus Supply Cut By Truckers Strike

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—(UP)—Virtually the entire citrus supply for the Los Angeles district and several eastern states was shut off last night as striking truck drivers picketed the distributing plant of the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Lee Owen, captain of the 200-man picket line, said the strike was called when negotiations with exchange officials were deadlocked over questions of union recognition and a closed shop. He said questions of hours and wages were not raised in the initial discussions.

Elaine and John Sufficiently Wed

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., June 25.—(AP)—Elaine Barrie Barrymore paused in her house hunting today to say that she and John Barrymore will not be remarried.

"We don't have to be, the divorce decree was not final, so we're not legally free," she said. "John and I can hardly wait until we find a little house. I want John to sell the big Tower Road house and also sell his yacht."
