

Charles Boyer And Jean Arthur In Craterian's Sparkling Romance

PARIS IS SETTING FOR ULTRA-MODERN EXCITING PICTURE

Charles Boyer, handsome French star, and Jean Arthur, who demonstrated her ability at comedy in "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," are united in "History Is Made at Night," opening a three-day run today at the New Craterian theater. Heading the supporting cast is jovial Leo Carrillo, who invariably makes the stars of the pictures in which he plays look to their laurels.

This smart, sparkling romance casts Boyer in a totally new type of role as Paul Dumond, dashing man-about-town and the most popular headwater on the continent, while Jean Arthur is seen as the lovely New York mannequin. They meet in Paris under exciting circumstances. The pair become involved in a gay, ultra-modern romance that carries them from France to America against a series of luxurious settings, including a crack luxury liner and the smartest restaurants of New York and Paris.

For contrast to the rich comedy with which the picture abounds, there is a realistic crash between the ocean liner and a giant iceberg, a scene that has been listed as the first and only rival to the now-famous earthquake scene of "San Francisco."

As a special added attraction on the same program, the Craterian has the tenth issue of the "March of Time." There are three subjects. These are, first, the U. S. unemployment situation, a question that has been given more thought in Washington than almost any other. Second is the puzzle prize craze in which Americans are continually striving to win sudden wealth from various contests. Third subject deals with the Irish Republic of 1937.

Jane Withers Tops Cast Rialto's Hit; Sally Blane Stars

"Ginger," Jane Withers, whizzing headlong into the offing looking for trouble, is at the Rialto theater starting today in her new picture, "Angel's Holiday."

Playing on the same program on the twin bill is "Hotel Haywire," farce comedy with numerous famous names that spell laughter.

Mischievous Jane plays the part of "Angel," who routs the riot squad with its own tear gas and makes trouble as fast as she makes headlines when she turns detective.

Aided and abetted in her topsyturvy laugh spree by Robert Kent, Joan Davis and Sally Blane, Jane tracks down and plagues the very lives of a murderous band of gangster-kidnapers, who welcome the refuge of jail promised with the final arrival of the police.

With nine comedians loose in a hotel as crazy as the house that Jack built, "Hotel Haywire" runs the Jane Withers picture a close second for laugh honors.

Headed by Leo Carrillo and Lynne Overman, the cast includes known comedians even in the "bit parts." Among those to be seen are Benny Baker, Mary Carlisle, George Barbier, Spring Byington, Porter Hall, John Patterson, Lucien Littlefield, Chester Conklin, Teddy Hart, Collette Lyon and Franklin Pangborn.

NEW YORK June 27.—(UP)—Arist Vanis, 49, was brought into court today on a petty larceny charge, accused of stealing three-fourths of a vestible. Mrs. Vetta Hecht, his landlady, said she paid half the cost of building a vestible for a restaurant and when he left he walked off with three walls. She said that part was worth $10.

Robert Montgomery in Hit Coming Thursday

DAME MAY WHITTY as Mrs. Branson

ROBERT MONTGOMERY as Danny

ROSLIND RUSSELL as Olivia

An experiment in defiance of tradition—a new type of murder story—is shown in "Night Must Fall," the amazing screen hit coming Thursday to the New Craterian theater.

Heading the cast is Robert Montgomery, known for sparkling, frothy roles of the most sympathetic sort. Now he greets his fans as one of the most fiendish of murderers, an entirely new person than the one we are accustomed to see, a thoroughly false and bad one.

Rosalind Russell is the girl torn between love and loathing for the only one who can excite her. Dame May Whitty, of the original stage cast, has a featured role, as have Alan Marshall, Forrest Harvey, Alan Marshall, Forrester Harvey, Kathleen Harrison.

DAY SAYS GRANT COUNTIES PROFIT BY AMENDMENTS

The press release of June 23 indicated that the Public Lands committee of the house had taken unfavorable action regarding the wishes of the Land Grant counties and had passed the department of the interior bill in its original form. This was an error, and we have today received confirmation that the committee has voted favorably to recommend the amendments to the bill for which the counties had contended. County Judge Day said Saturday.

"The counties did not contest, and in fact approved, Title I of the bill which certain minor amendments were agreed upon. Title I stipulated that the government, through the interior department, should handle the timber on these lands in harmony with the sustained yield idea. This is necessary and desirable in order that the property may not be dissipated and that the revenue to the counties will be perpetual.

"The counties did not agree with the percentages stipulated in Title II of the bill, which gave the counties only 50 per cent; 25 per cent for administrative purposes, and 25 per cent to be credited to the fund in order to retire the deficit of some $8,000,000. It was our purpose to safeguard as nearly as possible a yearly amount due the counties, which would approximate the amount the counties would have received in taxes had the lands remained in private ownership. If the yearly cut and the stumpage value amounted to as much as it would under present stumpage values, and if the cut was up to the maximum of the sustained yield capacity of the lands, the counties would not be much hurt on a 50 per cent basis. But if, during unusual economic conditions and depressed values, the total annual revenue from the lands were seriously reduced, it is more desirable that an additional percentage be given to the counties and a corresponding reduced amount credited to the deficit in order that

Comedy at Rialto Wednesday

Satirizing the innumerable contests in which American housewives are constantly participating, "Meet the Missus" co-starring Victor Moore and Helen Broderick, comes to the Rialto theater Wednesday, topping the twin bill that will also have "Under the Red Robe," featuring Annabella and Conrad Veidt, as the second picture on the same program. The hilarious results of a mid-Western woman's being chosen as one of the country's foremost housewives in a contest, when the truth of the matter is that hubby is the sole housekeeper in the household, make "Meet the Missus" screen entertainment of the popular sort.

The origin of the slang phrase "the life of Riley" is not known.

Chinese railroad lines are installing small libraries on passenger trains for the entertainment of travelers.

It is recorded that pony express riders covered 650,000 miles of trails infested by road agents and Indians and lost but one mail.

Here Wednesday

Josephine Hutchinson, as the mountain girl whose love is to be sold to the highest bidder, and George Brent as the young attorney who tries to save her from her fate, are starred in "Mountain Justice," coming Wednesday only to the New Craterian theater.

The screen's first outstanding story of fanaticism and intolerance still to be found in certain sections of America, "Mountain Justice" also features Guy Kibbee, Robert Barrat, Mona Barrie, Robert McWade and Puzzy Knight among others.

Return Showing

Tennyson's famous poem of the gallant "Charge of the Light Brigade" is at the Rialto theater for a three day run starting today, with Errol Flynn heading the giant cast of thousands. Also featured in this thrilling screen epic of the "600" who rode to their deaths are Olivia deHavilland, Patrie Knowles, Henry Stephenson, Nigel Bruce, Donald Crisp and several other favorites.

their Nebraska home to take charge of the business. They plan to make Medford their permanent home and devote all their time to the lumber business.

W. H. Roberts will continue as manager of the lumber yard, the announcement said.

NEBRASKANS BUY LUMBER COMPANY

Purchase of the Medford Lumber company by Mr. and Mrs. C. Collins of Beatrice, Neb., from J. H. Cooley was announced yesterday. Mrs. Collins is a daughter of Mr. Cooley, who now is residing in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins and their son John arrived here last week from
