

Sarazen Clinches Ryder Cup for U. S. by Defeat of Percy Alliss

AMERICANS GAIN FIRST TRIUMPH ON ALIEN LINKS

Final Score is 8 to 4 As Yankee Pros Administer Sound Beating—Guldahl Routs British Champion

SOUTHPORT, Eng., June 30.—(AP)—Scoring its first victory on British soil, the United States Ryder cup team today retained the international golf trophy by defeating Great Britain's picked team of professionals, 8 to 4.

The triumph, first for either side on the other team's home grounds, brought the standing in the series that was begun in 1927 to four matches for the Americans and two for the British.

Guldahl Routs Champ. Most decisive of the five U. S. victories in today's singles matches was scored by Open Champion Ralph Guldahl, who routed the British champion, Alf Padgham, by 8 and 7. But it was Gene Sarazen, veteran of each of the past five teams, who brought home the point that assured the invaders of retaining the trophy, and another veteran, Ed Dudley, who came in with the victory that put the Americans out in front to stay.

When Sarazen, who made up a three-hole deficit on the last nine, turned in his 1 up defeat of Percy Alliss, he brought the score to U. S. 6, Britain 4, with two matches still to be completed.

Even had the home forces won those two and tied the final score, the Ryder cup would have remained in the Americans' hands. But Dudley, whipping Alf Perry, British open champion two years ago, by 2 and 1, and lanky Henry Picard, winning from Arthur Lacey by the same margin, sewed the match up tight.

Head Comes Through. Guldahl, Sarazen, Dudley and Picard were joined in the winners' circle by Blammin' Sam Sneed, the brilliant young recruit who, in his bow to international competition, gained a 5 and 4 decision over Richard Burton.

The other half-point which, with the 2½ they scored in yesterday's Scotch foursomes, brought the defenders' total to eight, was accounted for by Denny Shute, P. G. A. titleholder for the past two years. Denny finished his 35 holes all square with Sam King, young one-time game-keeper from Kent, who cut down Shute's three-hole lead at the 27th in the final nine, dropping a six-foot putt for a winning birdie on the 35th to leave the match even.

Besties King, who matched Shute's 72 in the morning and his 73, one over par, in the afternoon, Britain's only point-scorer was Henry Cotton and David (Dol) Rees. Manero Defeated. Cotton, whose showing in the foursomes was a disappointment in view of his ranking as the best all-around pro in the country, gained a decisive 5 and 3 victory over Tony Manero, 1936 U. S. open champion.

Rees, young Welshman who was Britain's hero in the team play yesterday, continued to shine in his singles test. Matched with Byron Nelson, the slim ex-Texas who was outstanding among the Americans yesterday, Rees won by 3 and 1.

Nelson, shooting an 81 in the morning, finished that round one down, and had lost two more by the time the players finished the 37th.

MEDFORD RIFLE TEAM GAINS THIRD VICTORY IN INTER-CITY SHOOT

At Weed, Calif., Sunday the local rifle trigger-twisters marked up another team victory, making it three straight for the first half of the summer series of league matches. Individual honors in class A were evenly divided among the three clubs present, while the three highs in class B all went to Medford the extremely high temperature resulted in a lower average than usual, nevertheless a few top-notch scores were turned in.

The Medford range will be open for practice next Sunday and Monday mornings, and the following weekend, July 11, will see the club members match, the first event of which is scheduled to start at 7:30 a. m. sharp.

Billy Hulen Says:

Ashland Would Wager $250 On Baseball Team

It's beginning to look like a real "blood" series, this impending two-game clash in Ashland, July 4 and 5, between the Southern Oregon league ball clubs of Ashland and Medford. John Q. Fans of our neighboring city are really taking the battles seriously.

Not content with letting the great national rivalry of the two teams take care of the halcyon which is always apparent when athletic outfits of the two towns engage in a baseball contest, the Lithia city have gone and dug deep in the old sack in the tune of $250, which they modestly announce will be available to all and sundry Medfordites who figure their ball club is the best.

First pop out of the box, when the games were scheduled, the Ashlanders tried to get the Medford Athletic association, sponsor of the Crater, to match that amount. The instigators of the plot put it like this—let the two teams play for a side bet of $500, with 10 percent of said $500 smackers going to the winning team, to be distributed among the players. In case the two-game series was divided, then a third battle could be arranged for a future date.

Of course the Medford Athletic association didn't go for the business. As an organization started last year solely for the purpose of bringing baseball back to Medford and, especially, to the kids, the challenge simply couldn't be accepted. Which didn't set so well with the Ashland enthusiasts, who cropped several hints that the local association and Medford fans in general were afraid to back their ball team with considerable hard cash.

The idea of the large wager originated directly following the amazing spectacle of Medford soundly the "unbeatable" Bob Hardy Sunday before last for a 4-3 victory. Ashland baseball fibers went back home still in a daze of disbelief. Finally recovering, they shouted that it couldn't be done again, and promptly held a meeting of indignation at which the $250 and challenge to cover it was perpetuated.

To our knowledge, the bet has not yet been covered, and so far as the Medford Athletic association is concerned, it won't be. A group of Medford fans, we have heard rumored, are strongly considering the idea. Ashland is breathlessly awaiting the verdict.

To our way of so-called thinking, there is this side, and then that side to the present betting business. Generally speaking, it is great for baseball because it proves the fans are real, not just fans pay the bills. A cool, sane baseball community means either no ball club at all, or at best, one that struggles along under un-surmountable handicaps. So far as the actual games go, it puts plenty of pressure on a bunch of young kids—we think, unfair pressure. With so much at stake, and realizing that friends have wagered plenty of money on their ability to come through, your young ball player is pretty apt to go to pieces.

Anyway, and regardless of whether there is half a grand on the line or not, the boys should stage a couple of great games, especially that opener Sunday with Southpaw Bob Hardy fogging them over for the Lithians and Larry Pepper doing the Medford hurting. Last time they faced each other, both allowed five hits, with Hardy whiffing 12 and Pepper retiring nine via the strikeout route.

Ashland officials are expecting record crowds for the two games. The clubs will play on a 50-50 basis, so nice games will mean nice cuts for both teams, which can use it. Medford officials are planning to turn most of their proceeds over to the players for distribution, and Ashland higher-ups will undoubtedly follow suit.

Crater players, like most of the other performers in the circuit, receive absolutely nothing for their endeavor. The Medford club, like all the rest, simply can't afford to hire its ball players, so if the members receive a few dollars (expense money, of course) for their work July 4 and 5, it will be more than welcome.

Craft Scribbles: The Craters must have a 4-3 score phobia, their last three games ending with those numerals. They beat Ashland 4-3, lost to Roseburg 4-3, and whipped Glendale last Sunday 4-3. . . . which is good baseball in any circuit. Believe it or not, there is a guy named Belcastro who is a clean wrestler. . . . he is Pete's younger brother, name Tomini, who has been in the pro game for about two years. . . . Mack Lillard says he is 24 years old and will appear here in the near future.

Rudy Heyne, new Granta Pass pitcher, belongs to the St. Louis Browns, having been sent to Manager Judd Pernell by Willis Butler, Brown scout. . . . Heyne won his first start last Sunday against Ashland.

BUDGE WILL FACE GERMAN IN FINAL

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 30.—(AP)—America's red-headed Don Budge and Germany's titled Gottfried von Cramm won their semi-final round matches in the all-England tennis championships today and will clash Friday for the singles crown relinquished by Fred Perry.

After dropping a set for the first time since he arrived in England for his current tour, Budge, top-seeded player and heavy favorite for the championship, crushed Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1. Von Cramm, earning a berth in the finals for the second successive year, eliminated England's Davis cup stalwart, Henry Wilfred (Bunny) Austin, 8-6, 6-3, 12-14, 6-1.

SOFTBALLERS COLLECT FOURTEEN HOME RUNS; BIKE RACES TONIGHT

Games Tonight, Commercial League.

HUMRS vs. Piche. Lamporis vs. Jennings. It was "home run" night at the high school stadium last night as two Commercial and two Service league softball games produced a total of 14 round-trippers. All the boys were leveling for the fence but it remained for Charley Piche, playing for the Lions club, to hoist one over the barrier for the first time this year. All other homers were within the park.

In Commercial league games, the Office Boys slapped the Catholic Young Men, 13-12, and Timber Products unlimbered plenty of heavy timber to sock the 20-30 club, 26-2. Wally Rickett blasted two home-runs for the Office Boys and Father Meyer, Catholic chucker, hit twice for the circuit. Dick Sakrada also homed for the Office Boys. For Timber Products, Baker, Lewis, VanDyke, Hammock and Schel hammered out four-baggers, with Little cracking one for the 20-30.

Service league games saw the Elks defeat the Lions 17-9, with Bill Bowerman hitting for the circuit, and the Postoffice slug out a 13-8 win over the Grocerias. Kellogg and Virgil Swanson homed for the Postoffice.

Games were played last night after a previous announcement that they would be postponed because of wet grounds, but the bicycle races were called off until tonight.

Scores: R. H. E. Office Boys..... 13 13 2 Catholic..... 12 9 3 Colton and Harrington; Meyer and P. Sakrada. R. H. E. Timber Products..... 26 22 1 20-30 Club..... 2 5 0 Schel and Campbell; Gilstrap and Little.

ARCHERY TOURNAMENT CORVALLIS JULY 3-5

CORVALLIS, June 30.—(AP)—The Oregon State Archery association will hold its annual tournament here July 3, 4 and 5, with Cilman Kenay, Corvallis, defending his state title won last year.

Eighteen holes of archery golf will open the meet, which will terminate with team competition for state titles by both men and women. Ned R. Myers, Corvallis, president of the association, is in charge of the tournament.

SCHERNER WILL ADD BATTING POWER FOR ROSEBURG PIRATES

In line with all other Southern Oregon league baseball teams strengthening for the second half, which opens July 11, the Roseburg Pirates last week acquired the services of Billy Scherner, fifth leading batter of the circuit last season while with Glendale.

Scherner tried out with the San Francisco Seals this spring and was shipped to Sileom Springs in the class D Arkansas-Missouri league for seasoning. He was making good until an arm injury shelved him, and in reducing to the player-limit, Sileom Springs released the chunky infielder, but with strings attached. Scherner returned to his home in Roseburg, where he had played Legion baseball, and was immediately grabbed by the Pirates.

Last season he batted .323 with Glendale while holding down the shortstop post, getting 10 hits in 31 trips and scoring five runs. He is 19 years old, five feet seven inches tall, and weighs 158 pounds. He was considered the most promising youngster in the league last season.

He will be stationed at third base for the Pirates, Manager George C. Barr announced.

EX-COP GIVES UP RING CLAIMED BY HIS WIFE

SEATTLE, June 30.—(AP)—Joseph N. Hammerly, former Portland motorcycle officer, was at liberty today after producing in superior court a $1,000 diamond ring claimed by his wife, Mrs. Hazel B. Hammerly, who seeks a divorce. Hammerly was ordered to the county jail June 21 by Judge James T. Lawler when he failed to place the ring in the hands of the court pending determination of its ultimate possession.

Hammerly contended his wife had given him the ring. Mrs. Hammerly asserted it was one of the few valuables remaining out of a $60,000 estate she had when they were married.

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT EXPECTED DRAW THROUGH

SILVERTON, June 29.—(AP)—Preparation is being made for the seating of at least 2500 spectators when the state semi-pro baseball tournament opens here next Saturday night. Additional bleachers are being set up, showers are being completed this week and floors placed in the dugouts.

BABY CHICK GROUP FOR SEPARATE BUREAU AID

CORVALLIS, June 30.—(AP)—The Oregon branch of the International Baby Chick association, at its annual season here Tuesday, went on record favoring a separate poultry bureau within the department of agriculture, contending that the industry is slighted under the present set-up. The group elected Joe Russell, Milwaukie, president, succeeding Lloyd Lee of Salem, who refused to accept the office for a third term.
