

ANIMAL HOSPITAL OWNED BY PHILIPS

Contributed.
In an article concerning the Humane Society appearing June 29 it was stated that the animal hospital on North Riverside was an asset of, and maintained by the Humane Society. This is incorrect. The hospital is under entirely separate ownership and all equipment has been placed there by Dr. Philips. Patients and boarders at the hospital are solely under Dr. Philips' direction.

The Humane society was influential in bringing Dr. Philips to Medford and veterinary work for the society is done at the hospital. Otherwise, the only relation between the two organizations is a common interest in pets.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Long Weekend to Take Many Away

The long Fourth of July holiday week-end will find many Medford residents away from town, the extra day providing an opportunity of longer than usual duration for rest or entertainment.

Many of those having summer homes at resorts of the region are inviting friends to join them for the week-end, fishing, boating, swimming and varied other recreations presenting attractive activities away from heat of the valley.

Others are planning week-end visits to friends and relatives in other cities or shorter excursions to mountains or coasts. Those who prefer to share celebrations with larger numbers will motor to various towns planning a civic festivity. Many will seek Oregon's cool coast.

Remaining at home for a quiet holiday presents the most attractions for some. Numerous visitors will be entertained in the city over the holidays.

Many Guests at Tucker River Lodge

Among the many entertaining friends at summer homes along Rogue river are Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker of San Francisco, who, with their daughter and son, are hosts to a large number of friends during the summer at Rogue's Roost, the Tucker lodge.

Several arrived this morning from the bay district to spend the Fourth of July holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and more are expected later this week. Others will be sojourning at Rogue's Roost at various times throughout the summer, the Tuckers having guests weekly.

Expected Here

Among holiday visitors expected in the city over the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Valentin of Eugene, who will arrive Saturday. They are to be the guests of Mrs. Valentin's mother, Mrs. M. M. Snider.

The group plan to spend the holiday at the Snider summer cabin at Shady Cove.

Mrs. Valentin was Miss Mary Snider before her marriage early this spring. She will be greeted by a number of Medford friends during her stay.

Miss Webster is Carpenter Guest

Miss Jean Webster of San Francisco is among the many visitors being entertained in the valley, having arrived several days ago.

Miss Webster is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and is being greeted by many Medford friends. She plans to remain until next week.

Air Show Will Provide Activity
Medford residents are making plans to welcome the many visitors here to participate in or view the spectacular air show here tomorrow.

A large number of out of town residents are expected to be in the city for the event and activity will center on their entertainment. Medford hostesses are planning numerous informal affairs and a gala atmosphere is beginning to produce a noticeable effect on townpeople.

Many of the visiting pilots will be entertained in Medford homes during their brief stay here and local aviation enthusiasts are arranging various means of expressing Medford hospitality.

Miss Canine Wed in Grants Pass

Miss Rosemary Canine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Canine of this city, became the bride of John Sheldon Wood in a quiet ceremony in Grants Pass yesterday afternoon.

The service was solemnized at the residence of the officiating minister, the Rev. John B. Coan, before a small group of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Otto R. Tresham, Jr. attended the young couple.

The bride wore a blue travel ensemble and a corsage of sweetpeas and carnations.

The young couple will make their home here, where both have many friends.

Brenners Plan Visit to City

Among Medford residents planning vacations out of town over the Fourth of July week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Don Brenner. Mr. and Mrs. Brenner will visit friends in San Francisco, Calif., motoring there and back.

Expected Here
