

British Golf Pros Crack Under Pressure -- Fans Lack Sportsmanship

RYDER CUP TEAM FIZZLES DURING FINAL 'CLUTCH'

Gene Sarazen Burned Up By Treatment Accorded Americans; Will Play No More in Britain After Open

SOUTHPORT, Eng., July 1.—(AP)—England's professional golfers simply can't take it very well under pressure.

That's the painful and reluctant conclusion drawn after watching them—with a couple of notable exceptions—fizzle out like damp firecrackers in the concluding stages of the Ryder cup matches yesterday. The margin of eight points to four by which the Americans won their first cup match on British soil doesn't necessarily reflect the brilliant golf of his career in the final decisive nine holes. His opponent, Alfred Perry, like every other member of the British team except Henry Cotton, David Rees and Sam King, couldn't stand the pressure.

Ed Dudley, whose finishing qualities had been questioned at home, brought out some of the most brilliant golf of his career in the final decisive nine holes. His opponent, Alfred Perry, like every other member of the British team except Henry Cotton, David Rees and Sam King, couldn't stand the pressure.

Gene Sarazen, three down with only 12 holes to play, came home a winner against Percy Allis. Gene, burned up at the treatment accorded the Americans by the galloping crowd of at least 12,000 yesterday, doesn't intend to play in England again after next week's open at Carnoustie. Police Help Britisher.

Sarazen didn't particularly mind the loud cheers when he missed shots. He's accustomed to that. What really got his goat was an incident at the 14th hole when the gallery police, finding Allis' ball just outside the playing confines, moved the out-of-bounds marker back several yards so they man wouldn't lose a stroke.

"That's when I made up my mind to beat him," said Gene.

At the 16th hole in the afternoon, with the situation tense and the result still in doubt, Denny Shute holed an important 10-foot putt.

There were at least 4000 spectators clustered on the four peaks surrounding the famous green. Yet, a woman's voice exclaiming "Oh, boy!" sounded like the crack of a whip amid the deathly silence that followed the fine shot.

April is the hatching time for pullets that are to be used for laying purposes during the good marketing period next fall.

LENNARD RESIGNS SOFTBALL THRONE

Fred Lennard, recently elected manager of the Medford Softball association which includes the 10 teams of the Commercial league and six clubs of the Service league, today announced his resignation from that position. He gave as his reason for resigning the press of business.

Notices of the move were mailed to all team managers today, Mr. Lennard said, along with an announcement of a meeting next Tuesday night in the M. N. Hogan brokerage company office for the purpose of electing a new manager. Mr. Lennard's resignation will take effect at that meeting.

Duties of the association manager are to answer all correspondence, take care of publicity releases, arbitrate in all protests or arguments, and in general, be to the local organization what Judge K. M. Landis is to organized baseball.

NEW RUN-AROUND LOOMS FOR MAX

LONDON, July 1.—(AP)—Ted Broadribb, manager for the British heavyweight, Tommy Farr, announced today he was starting negotiations with Nat Fleischer of New York, for a world heavyweight title fight in the United States between Farr and Joe Louis.

Should the negotiations go through, Broadribb declared, Farr's fight previously scheduled for August 9 with Max Schmeling would be cancelled.

Broadribb said his sudden move for a match with Louis came from his annoyance at the decision of the British boxing board of control to recognize the Farr-Schmeling fight as for the world title.

"I do not agree with the board of control ruling," Broadribb said. "We consider Louis the world champion and would rather meet him than Schmeling for the title."

ALICE MARBLE BOWS TO TERRIFIC DRIVES OF POLISH NET STAR

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 1.—(AP)—Blonde Alice Marble of San Francisco, the last surviving American, was eliminated in the semi-final round of the all-England tennis championships today by the hard-hitting Polish girl, Jedywja Jedzejowska, 8-6, 6-2.

Miss Marble, United States singles title holder, put up a plucky fight in the opening set but her game finally collapsed under the pressure of Mile. Jedzejowska's terrific drives.

In the finals Saturday the Polish girl will face Dorothy Round of England, who ousted the defending champion, Helen Jacobs, in the quarter-finals and easily disposed of Miss. Rene Mathieu of France, 6-4, 6-0, to qualify for the finals against Mile. Jedzejowska.

The women's singles final will be the feature of Saturday's closing program. The men's final, pitting America's Don Budge against Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, will be played tomorrow.

FORRESTER TO DIRECT O. A. C. SPORT PUBLICITY

CORVALLIS, Ore., July 1.—(AP)—Percy Lacey, new director of athletics at Oregon State college, announced the appointment today of J. W. Forrester, Jr., managing editor of the East Oregonian at Pendleton, as director of sports publicity for the associated students.

Forrester will take over his duties on July 15.

Forrester will also assist in editing the Oregon State Monthly, an alumni publication, and serve as business advisor to the Daily Beaver and the Beaver yearbook.

HUMRS AND JENNINGS CHALK UP VICTORIES IN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Commercial League: Timber Products vs. Office Boys, Fuhrer vs. Catholic Men. Service League: Kiwanis vs. Copco.

HUMRS, figured one of the most powerful clubs at the start of the season but unable to click in previous games, finally rolled into high last night to defeat Piche's, 12-10, in a Commercial softball league battle at the high school stadium. In the other Commercial circuit encounter, Jennings Tipped Lamports, 5-3, in the fastest battle of the year; it was played in 40 minutes.

Jack Hughes clouted a home run for HUMRS and Al Piche and Curry hit round-trippers for Piche Hardware. There were no homers in the Jennings-Lamport battle.

In an exhibition girl's game, the high school defeated the business women, 12-5.

Durrell Adams wheeled his bicycle twice around the quarter-mile track to win first place in the youth's cycling race. Hal Adams finished second in the field of six. Finals of the bicycle races will be run Friday night, with the winners and runners-up of nightly races competing for prizes.

Last night saw the largest crowd of the season turn out for the games, more than 100 paid admissions in addition to several hundred holders of season passes packing the grandstand.

Tonight, Service league teams will again swing into action immediately following Commercial league battles which will start at 7:45 sharp. Bicycle races will go on at 7:30.

Scores: R. H. E. HUMRS 12 9 2 PICHE 10 12 5 Leavitt and G. Gitzen; Verbiok, Vincent and Wilson.

Jennings 5 8 3 Lamports 3 6 2 Singler and Luman; Schilling and Wood.

PLANES FLOCK IN FROM ALL POINTS FOR FRIDAY SHOW

of the pilots put on impromptu performances. Others took passengers up for chartered rides over the valley.

The big exposition opens at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning when all the craft will be lined up for public inspection. All types of ships will be on display, from the smallest to the largest, from open cockpit two-seaters to luxurious cabin liners, from slow-moving midgets to fleet-winger giants that cruise along at 200 miles an hour.

The sky circus will open at 2 p. m. and last until 5, with some of the country's most celebrated stunt pilots and parachute jumpers providing thrill-packed feats throughout the afternoon.

One ticket entitles the holder to both the aircraft exposition and sky show, it was stressed again today by Max Peirce, president of Medford chapter of the National Aeronautic association, local sponsor, and head of the Oregon Aviation Development Committee, Inc., manager of the ten-day aerial tour of which the local carnival is the opening event. Ticket holders may leave and return to the field at will for the one admission price. Tickets are placed in the popular price category, with children 16 years and under being admitted at half the adult scale.

Some Stores to Close Drug, hardware, jewelry and stationery stores will close at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon, it was announced by Fred Heath, Jr., ticket committee chairman. Some other stores also plan to close, he added, and all had arranged to let as many employees as possible off for the after afternoon show. Department and food stores, he said, will remain open as usual.

Fair weather with rising temperature was predicted for tomorrow. Police and national guardsmen will be at the field to direct traffic, assist in parking cars and aid in keeping spectators from danger zones. A number of the Medford fire department will be on hand to man the airport's fire truck.
