Ernie Fields' Dance Band Coming

Ernie Fields with his orchestra and revue, featuring Miss Hortense Aiken and a full 13-voice male chorus, will play their own compositions and arrangements at a special dance at Dreamland ballroom tomorrow night.

Mystery Hit

For those who like their mystery stories out of the ordinary, the New Craterian theater for tomorrow only will have "The Great Gambini" featuring Akim Tamiroff in the title role, John Trent and Marian Marsh in the romantic spot and Reginald Denny, Genevieve Tobin and Ed Brophy also featured. When the mystic prophecies that a man would be murdered, and he actually is found dead the following day, everyone comes under suspicion, including Gambini. But he, with great delight, proceeds to point out clues that the police overlook and then, when arrests are apparent, just as calmly proves that one of the accused could have committed the crime. A novel twist in the climax reveals the guilty party.

Hanging Penalty To Be Sought For Confessed Fiend

George Riley, real estate operator, told police he saw the three girls preceded by their slayer, walking toward the Baldwin hills the day the girls disappeared. A Japanese woman who has a store near Centinela park, where the girls had played, said she saw Dyer and then the girls pass her store. Pitts said four psychiatrists who had been observing Dyer found he was "crazy enough to know what he is doing and saying."

Rotarians Given Air Meet Review

A review of the events at the Northwest Aviation Planning Council sessions recently at Boise, Idaho, was presented at today's meeting of the Medford Rotary club by A. H. Banwell, manager of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. The speaker, who acted as chairman for all meetings at the important air meet, gave his impressions of distinguished men who participated in the sessions and described the highlights of the three-day series of meetings. In concluding his interesting talk, Banwell urged civic interest in Medford's fine municipal airport and predicted a brilliant future for aviation generally and for this city as an important center of air development of the next decade.

Rialto Sleuths

A new Perry Mason reaches the screen in the person of Donald Woods, co-starring with Ann Dvorak in "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop" new-act of the Rialto Stanley Gardner best-sellers coming to the Rialto theater for tomorrow and Thursday only. "What Becomes of the Children," a spectacular drama setting forth with thrilling realism the evils of divorce and its later effects upon the lives of the neglected little ones of an ill-starred marriage, plays as the added feature with "Case of the Stuttering Bishop." Touching a very delicate subject which has never before been allowed to be exposed on the screen, "What Becomes of the Children" stars such popular players as Joan Marsh, Robert Fraser, Natalie Moorhead, John Boles, Claudia Dell and Barbara Pepper.

Walks On Air

Blonde Gene Raymond plays opposite beautiful Ann Dvorak in "Walking on Air," coming to the Rialto theater for tomorrow only. Guardsman Promoted ROSEBURG, Ore., July 6.—(AP)—Appointment of Sergeant Milo E. Godfrey as second lieutenant with Co. D, 162nd Inf., Roseburg's national guard unit, was announced today. Since his enlistment as a private January 6, 1930, Lieutenant Godfrey has served through all of the non-commissioned grades of the company.
