Straubel, from Oakland to Fort Lewis in a Douglas observation ship.

Claudette Colbert in Sunday Show

Back to the laugh division of the movies comes Claudette Colbert in "I Met Him in Paris," coming Sunday to the New Criterion theater. Featuring Robert Young and Melvyn Douglas in the two principal supporting roles, the picture portrays an American working girl on a grand vacation in the French capital. Finding the romance knows no geographical limits, Claudette falls in love with two men, both very nice, but widely different in personality. Douglas is a man of few words; Young is a super-egotist who thinks he has a way with women. Which to marry is the question.

ENLISTMENT IN NAVY GIVES MEDFORD BOY JOURNEY TO RUSSIA
A large part of the Orient has been seen by Charles H. Ward since he enlisted in the United States navy three years ago and now he is preparing to extend his travels to Russia, it is disclosed in a letter received from him today by his mother, Mrs. J. D. Bowdish of 1260 Sunset avenue.

Gets Honor Rating—Edmund E.
