SCHMELING INSISTS ON BOAT WITH FARR

LONDON, July 9. —(AP)—Max Schmeling, arriving here today from Berlin, said that he "insisted" that Tommy Farr, British empire heavyweight champion, should fight him before meeting World Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis.

Widely varied camp and nature activities will provide unusual educational and pleasure opportunities for the 100 girls to be accommodated during the two-week period.

Other camp officials include Mrs. C. P. Wessela of Medford, who will conduct archery classes; Miss Jane Collier, daughter of the director, in charge of hiking; Miss Virginia Fernley, also of Reed college, directing handicraft activities; Miss Ella Redkey of Klamath Falls, who, with an assistant, will have charge of all waterfront activities.

New camp equipment this year includes a large dining room awning, counselor's cabin, shower, cold cellar and extra boats. The camp site was put in readiness by members of the Boy Scout camping committee.

The German tentatively had been scheduled to meet Farr here in August or September. However, Farr entered into negotiations with American Promoter Mike Jacobs, who announced in New York yesterday that Louis and the Briton would meet at the Yankee stadium August 25.

FOREST ANGLING REPORTED GOOD; ROADS IMPROVE

The following recreational bulletin was issued today by Rogue river national forest headquarters: "Favorable reports on fishing conditions have been received from most of the lakes and streams on the national forest. Good catches of trout are being taken in the upper Rogue and its tributaries with both bait and flies.

"Excellent fishing has been enjoyed at Fish lake on the Umpqua national forest by several parties. This lake may be reached by way of Union Creek and Hereschberger lookout.

"Steelhead are beginning to strike in Rogue river. Best success has been had above Trail with soft shelled crawfish for bait. In the Butte Falls DuPont district good catches of trout are being taken from Big Butte creek, the south fork and the middle fork of Rogue river. Several parties have made the trip to Seven lakes and all report good fishing.

WOULD PLAY BIG GAME IN CITY THIS SEASON

PORTLAND, July 9.—(AP)—A proposal to transfer the annual "big game" between the University of Oregon and Oregon State college football teams this fall from Eugene to Portland will be discussed at a meeting of representatives of the two schools and the Multnomah club here Saturday, L. H. Gregory, sports editor of the Oregonian, said in his column today.

The suggestion originated with the state college and evoked expressions of dissatisfaction from Eugene, where the game was scheduled for October 23, Gregory said.

The elm has been cherished as a shade tree since Pilgrim times. "Highway Right-of-Way Condemnation Starts" Suit has been filed in circuit court by the state highway commission, against Lena Phillips and Jackson county, for condemnation of right of way for the new unit of the Phoenix-Bear creek section of the Pacific highway. Jackson county is named defendant as a matter of legal form.
