

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Many Visitors Entertained Here

Homes of many Medford residents are filled with activity during the veterans convention being held here.

Ohio Visitors Stopping Here

Arriving from the south this morning were Mrs. Henry Truesdell and daughter, Peg, of Toledo, Ohio, who are guests here of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurd and Mrs. C. D. Byington.

Monthly Session Planned Tonight

Announcement has been made of the regular monthly meeting of the circle of the First Christian church scheduled for this evening at 8 o'clock.

Johnsons Return From Trip East

Recently returned travelers are Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, who arrived home Sunday from a journey to the Atlantic coast, their former home.

Week-end Guests Valley Visitors

Week-end visitors in the valley included Miss Mary Dykes and Rev. A. H. Fish, D. D. of Newton, N. J., and Miss Daisy Taylor of Greenville, Tenn.

Mrs. Kessler in Medford Guest

Among visitors in the city is Mrs. Kate D. Kessler of Santa Barbara, Calif., who is a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Kessler.

Postpone Session Set for Thursday

Arrangements are being completed by members of the Pythian club for a picnic scheduled for Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Jackson Hot Springs.

Joint Picnic Is Scheduled Thursday

Arrangements are being completed by members of the Pythian club for a picnic scheduled for Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Jackson Hot Springs.

Girl Halts Train Between Stations To Post a Letter

CARMI, Ill., July 13.—(AP)—The rail lines local agent has received a communication from the Louisville and Nashville railroad, asking him to please keep 19-year-old Maxine Bayley from stopping passenger trains.

CCC YOUTHS HURT IN TRUCK PLUNGE

A Rogue River national forest service truck operated by two Camp Applegate CCC enrollees was reported late this afternoon to have left the Anderson creek road about nine miles southwest of Talent, plunged down a mountain-side for over 300 yards, and seriously injured one of the CCC youths.

SYNOD OF OREGON OPENS IN EUGENE

EUGENE, July 13.—(AP)—More than 10 ministers and lay representatives convened at the University of Oregon today for the three-day session of the 47th annual synod of Oregon.

Retiring Moderator, Rev. J. K. Howard, Will Deliver the Sermon at the Evening Meeting Tonight, at the Central Presbyterian church.

Economic Illiterates Scored PASADENA, Cal. (UP)—Miss Florence Barnard, educator of Brookline, Mass., told the California Congress of Parents and Teachers that the United States is a country of "economic illiterates."

OTTAWA, Ont. (UP)—Tourists visiting Canada this year will spend at least $25,000,000, D. Leo Dolan, director of the Canadian travel bureau, predicts.

MARSHFIELD, July 13.—(AP)—The first serious forest fire of the season in southwestern Oregon destroyed more than 400,000 board feet of decked logs owned by the International Cedar company.

The United States government now has more than $12,000,000,000 worth of monetary gold stocks—nearly three times what all the world had in 1914.

COLORFUL PARADE SET FOR 8 P. M. BY VETS CONVENTION

(Continued from Page One.)

refusal of the national department to stage the national encampment in Portland next year.

"Seaside will get the state encampment next year if the national encampment is not held in Portland," Hugh S. Rogers, department commander of Oregon, explained.

The tentative encampment at Seaside will be held under the direction of the Edward Young Camp of Astoria and Seaside. The matter has been referred to the incoming council administration.

Delegates, meeting in the armory, passed four resolutions this morning. It was resolved that all veterans organizations combine to form a committee to assist the government and the veterans' placement officer in securing employment for veterans.

Delegates endorsed the plan asking for the national encampment in Portland in 1938. It was explained that the recent legislature had appropriated $10,000 for the convention.

A resolution was passed endorsing the project of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to establish a home and training school for veterans' orphans on the west coast.

Appreciation was expressed to Dr. Paul L. Carter, superintendent of the veterans' hospital in Portland, and to his staff, for their great work.

Chief speaker at the sessions this morning was Dr. William B. McGrew of Oakland, Calif., surgeon general of the national organization. He was ordered by Scott Leavitt of Milwaukee, Wis., commander-in-chief, of the national organization, to represent him at this convention.

The auxiliary, following a short session of their own in the Elks' temple, paraded to the armory, where they joined the men. They entertained the huge gathering with songs and distributed candy and cigarettes to the veterans.

Employment for veterans was the theme of a highly interesting talk given by Dick Smurthwaite, veteran's placement officer under the department of labor for the state of Oregon.

Yesterday's afternoon session was the finest yet, both in the matter of attendance and in enthusiasm. An estimated 500 delegates and visitors packed the Medford armory.

Featuring tomorrow's program, last day of the encampment, will be the election of officers during a regular session at the Armory at 9:00 a. m., and joint installation of officers of the U. S. W. V. and auxiliary in the Elks temple at 2 p. m.

A grand ball at Dreamland dance hall last night brought to a close the second day of the annual encampment. More than 400 couples attended. Dancing lasted until after midnight.

At city park for one hour before the ball, a huge throng of delegates, visitors and citizens enjoyed an excellent musical program. Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang led the gathering in community singing. Loneta Wetzel of Klamath Falls played a beautiful piano solo, and several selections were given by the high school band.

Betty Browne was pianist for the program. "Bugle in Retreat" was given by Dick Baize to end the program, following the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the entire audience, accompanied by the band.

The past department commander's banquet at the Elks' temple last evening saw nearly 500 delegates and visitors enjoy delicious fried turkey and all the trimmings. Frank J. Newman of Colonel Sargent camp of Medford presided, and introduced several state officers. He also read telegrams of congratulations from Governor Charles Martin, Senator Frank Steiwer and other state and national officials. There were no official addresses given, the gathering confining itself to the excellent dinner and listening to music furnished by a four-piece accordion band.

An invitation to the national encampment now in session at Columbus Ohio to stage its 1938 convention in Portland was made in a resolution passed at yesterday's session in the Armory, presided over by Hugh S. Rogers of Hillsboro, department commander.

In another resolution passed, the names of the injured boys could not be learned at press time. Detachment headquarters here telephoned Camp Applegate after sending a doctor and ambulance to the scene of the wreck, but could not procure their names.

Report of the accident was received by Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, who stated that the truck was carrying food to a CCC road crew working on Anderson Butte mountain. The truck was completely demolished, he said the report stated.

Australians Called Pagans SYDNEY (UP)—Australians are "somewhat pagan," according to the Rev. S. W. Aikin, a Dunstee Methodist minister who arrived here after spending several months in Adelaide. "You are wonderful people," he said. "You are developing a new and great race with independent views, but there are many things leading you from religion."

Says It With Frown KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP)—City Judge Mynatt found it quite a task to admonish Dewey Garrett, Sevierville deaf mute arraigned on a charge of drunkenness. The judge could only frown and point his pencil at him. With a jerk of his thumb he dismissed the case.

PORTLAND, July 13.—(AP)—The Portland Central Labor Council postponed action last night on a proposal to affiliate with the Oregon Commonwealth federation. The state labor convention recently went on record against affiliation.

Special Synthetic Enamel Finishing room Daily's Auto Painting 29 South Bartlett

Try ICED TEA when you are hot tired or thirsty

The best of all warm weather drinks is even better when made with Lipton's. At all grocers.

Lipton's TEA Iced

Insist On Delicious Lost River BUTTER

Canadian Pacific

W. H. BEACON, Gen'l Agent, Dept. 828, 217 W. 1st, Astoria, Ore. 97103, Portland, Ore.

Putman Greets Son At Airport

David Putnam, 24-year-old stepson of Amelia Earhart, came to Oakland by plane from Florida to be with his father, George Palmer Putnam, husband of the lost flier. You are Putnam said he felt sure Miss Earhart was safe because she's "too smart a flier to be lost." He is shown here (left) shaking hands with his father.

U. S. W. V. pledged their support to the continuance of the Oregon National Guard.

Addresses were made at yesterday's afternoon session by Dr. Paul L. Carter, superintendent of the veterans' hospital in Portland, and to his staff, for their great work.

Chief speaker at the sessions this morning was Dr. William B. McGrew of Oakland, Calif., surgeon general of the national organization. He was ordered by Scott Leavitt of Milwaukee, Wis., commander-in-chief, of the national organization, to represent him at this convention.

Employment for veterans was the theme of a highly interesting talk given by Dick Smurthwaite, veteran's placement officer under the department of labor for the state of Oregon.

Yesterday's afternoon session was the finest yet, both in the matter of attendance and in enthusiasm. An estimated 500 delegates and visitors packed the Medford armory.

Featuring tomorrow's program, last day of the encampment, will be the election of officers during a regular session at the Armory at 9:00 a. m., and joint installation of officers of the U. S. W. V. and auxiliary in the Elks temple at 2 p. m.

A grand ball at Dreamland dance hall last night brought to a close the second day of the annual encampment. More than 400 couples attended. Dancing lasted until after midnight.

At city park for one hour before the ball, a huge throng of delegates, visitors and citizens enjoyed an excellent musical program. Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang led the gathering in community singing. Loneta Wetzel of Klamath Falls played a beautiful piano solo, and several selections were given by the high school band.

Betty Browne was pianist for the program. "Bugle in Retreat" was given by Dick Baize to end the program, following the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the entire audience, accompanied by the band.

The past department commander's banquet at the Elks' temple last evening saw nearly 500 delegates and visitors enjoy delicious fried turkey and all the trimmings. Frank J. Newman of Colonel Sargent camp of Medford presided, and introduced several state officers. He also read telegrams of congratulations from Governor Charles Martin, Senator Frank Steiwer and other state and national officials. There were no official addresses given, the gathering confining itself to the excellent dinner and listening to music furnished by a four-piece accordion band.

An invitation to the national encampment now in session at Columbus Ohio to stage its 1938 convention in Portland was made in a resolution passed at yesterday's session in the Armory, presided over by Hugh S. Rogers of Hillsboro, department commander.

In another resolution passed, the names of the injured boys could not be learned at press time. Detachment headquarters here telephoned Camp Applegate after sending a doctor and ambulance to the scene of the wreck, but could not procure their names.

Report of the accident was received by Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, who stated that the truck was carrying food to a CCC road crew working on Anderson Butte mountain. The truck was completely demolished, he said the report stated.

Australians Called Pagans SYDNEY (UP)—Australians are "somewhat pagan," according to the Rev. S. W. Aikin, a Dunstee Methodist minister who arrived here after spending several months in Adelaide. "You are wonderful people," he said. "You are developing a new and great race with independent views, but there are many things leading you from religion."

Says It With Frown KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP)—City Judge Mynatt found it quite a task to admonish Dewey Garrett, Sevierville deaf mute arraigned on a charge of drunkenness. The judge could only frown and point his pencil at him. With a jerk of his thumb he dismissed the case.

PORTLAND, July 13.—(AP)—The Portland Central Labor Council postponed action last night on a proposal to affiliate with the Oregon Commonwealth federation. The state labor convention recently went on record against affiliation.

Special Synthetic Enamel Finishing room Daily's Auto Painting 29 South Bartlett

Try ICED TEA when you are hot tired or thirsty

The best of all warm weather drinks is even better when made with Lipton's. At all grocers.

Lipton's TEA Iced

Insist On Delicious Lost River BUTTER

Canadian Pacific

W. H. BEACON, Gen'l Agent, Dept. 828, 217 W. 1st, Astoria, Ore. 97103, Portland, Ore.

HEARST INCLUDED IN LENGTHY LIST OF TAX EVADERS

Jacob Ruppert, William S. Paley, Albert Lasker and C. K. Kettering Also Mentioned in Congress Probe

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(AP)—The names of William Randolph Hearst, publisher, Jacob Ruppert, New York brewer and baseball magnate, and William S. Paley of New York, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc., went into the records of the congressional tax inquiry committee today.

The names were mentioned by O. John Rogge, securities commission counsel borrowed by the treasury to aid in its investigation of methods by which wealthy persons have been able to reduce their income tax payments.

Roosevelt Son Attends. Before Rogge took the stand, James Roosevelt, eldest son and secretary of President Roosevelt, made an unheralded appearance before the committee to deny that he had any interest in a personal holding company in the Bahamas.

Representative Treadway, (R. Mass.) took advantage of young Roosevelt's appearance on the stand to demand that he submit his income tax returns for 1930-1933 for study by the committee.

Roosevelt said he was willing to do so, but the committee declined to press the demand, deciding to pass on Treadway's motion later in a closed session.

Many Mentioned. Rogge brought many well-known names into his testimony. Among them was that of Albert Lasker of Chicago, president of Lord and Thomas, Inc., who, he said, dominated two holding companies which saved $197,053 in taxes for 1934 to 1936.

Lasker, treasury officials said, formerly was chairman of the U. S. shipping board. He was appointed to that position by President Harding.

He named also C. F. Kettering, vice-president of General Motors corporation who, he said, made an estimated saving of $610,733 for the years 1934 through 1936 "by the use of the holding company device."

Rogge said Ruppert "manages to escape a considerable amount of tax through the use of the Ruppert Holding corporation," a personal holding company.

This company, he said, owns a large portion of the stock of the American league baseball club of New York and in 1935 and 1936, he testified, saved Ruppert $102,470 in taxes.

Discussing what he termed the "hierarchy of corporate structure" between Hearst-owned organizations, Rogge said the principal stockholder of American Newspapers, Inc., was Mr. Hearst.

Hearst Gets Dividends. For the years 1934 and 1935, the witness said, Hearst received 85 per cent of dividends paid by the company, formerly the star holding corporation.

In a statement filed with the securities commission last March by Hearst Magazines, Inc., and Hearst Publications, Inc., Rogge said, "it is stated that Mr. Hearst holds individually 95.71 per cent of the voting power of American Newspapers, Inc., and the remaining 4.29 per cent as trustee."

Rogge said that if three of the Hearst corporations—American Newspapers, Hearst Corporation and Hearst Magazines—were ignored and 85 per cent of their income treated as income of the publisher, additional taxes would be due from the latter for 1934 and 1935 totaling $3,111,708, American Newspapers, Inc., the witness continued, "claimed that it sustained liquidating losses in the foregoing transactions in the amount of $20,759,405."

Safeway Launches Whisker Race For $25.00 Cash Prize

To the southern Oregon gentleman who boasts the finest, most artistic beard or set of whiskers a month from now, Safeway Stores of this city will give a prize of $25, according to an announcement today by J. F. Haws. The unique contest is a feature of the promotion of Safeway Store's Pioneer Days Sale next month.

Tod Porter, Carl Bowman and Fred Fry, well known Medford barbers, have agreed to act as judges in the novel competition. Registrations will be received at the Safeway Stores in this city, company officials stated.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

MR. PLUMBER I Like That GENEROUS Storage Space! Lots of room to store towels and toilet articles in this Crane Coronada Lavinet! Plenty of convenience... plenty of that famous CRANE quality you have heard so much about... and a moderate price that makes this fine piece easy to own! Let your experienced Master Plumber install it... and ask him about CraneEquipping your home throughout.

CRANE CRANE CO., 710 N. W. Fourteenth Ave., Portland, Ore.

The M. M. DEPARTMENT STORE'S REMOVAL SALE Continues Until We Move Into Our New Main Street Location...! COME! Help us reduce this large stock. Remembering always no sales are final until our customers are 100% satisfied. We always will exchange or give your money back if you are not 100% satisfied. Men's Dress Shirts 93c Men's Dress Shoes $2.69 Men's Suits $13.95 Munsing Underwear $1.25 Ladies' Shoes 43c Ladies' Ready-to-Wear HALF PRICE