

ROSSI CALLED TO TELL STAND UPON BAY CITY GRAFT

Grand Jury May Ask Explanation Of Attitude On Police Probe.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—(UP)—Mayor Angelo J. Rossi of San Francisco will be summoned before the grand jury next week to submit to questioning in the current investigation of vice and alleged police graft, it was reported tonight.

The grand jury is scheduled to meet Monday night. Jurors last Wednesday voted down a motion to adjourn until August 2.

Among the things the mayor reportedly will be asked to explain will be his assertedly procrastinating attitude toward the vice and corruption investigation conducted by Edwin N. Atterton, former department of justice operative, and his failure to give Atterton vigorous assistance. Grand jurors, meantime, awaited impatiently for Police Commissioner Frank C. Sykes to add his resignation to those of Theodore Roche and Frank Portnan, commissioners who resigned their posts at the grand jury's insistence. Sykes, appointed to the commission as the graft inquiry neared a close, defied the mandate and said he would not resign.

Although absolved of complicity in graft conditions by the jury report, the commissioner's resignation was asked in order to clear the way for a new five-man commission form. In seeking Sykes' resignation, the jury said they feared his former political associations might work to the detriment of a new commission.

They gave him until Monday to resign on the threat of reopening hearings in which all three commissioners would be called to testify and Mayor Rossi questioned on various city problems.

Rossi, who has stood by his appointees in the face of the early jury report was reported by his secretaries to be "out of town on a family picnic."

$2 DAY CUTTER OF WEEDS AND BRIDE OF 13 ARE ALONE

KOKOMO, Ind., July 17.—(AP)—Norman Coche, 17, and his bride, 18, began their honeymoon today on the 20-acre farm of the bridegroom's father near here, apparently free from interference by police and the girl's parents.

They hitchhiked to Peru and obtained a marriage license after giving their ages as 21 and 18. The child bride was detained by Kokomo police and the bridegroom was released to the custody of his father, Frank Coche, soon after the couple's marriage last night. Frieda's mother, Mrs. La Vera Byers of Logansport, had requested police intervention.

When the parents failed to appear to press annulment charges, however, officers turned the couple over to the bridegroom's father.

Frieda, 5 feet, 3 inches tall and weighing 125 pounds, busily engaged herself in work about the Coche home today, happy on a rural honeymoon "better than a trip to Niagara Falls."

The youthful bridegroom, employed as a weed cutter at $2 a day, started looking for a better job today.

ROME, July 17.—(AP)—Admiral Costanzo Ciampi, president of the chamber of deputies and father of Premier Mussolini's foreign minister and son-in-law, Count Galeazzo of the Order of Annunziata whose members are called "oustans." The ousted Ethiopian Haile Selaase, formerly a member, was omitted from this year's list.

RE-ELECT TURKEY CO-OP OFFICERS AT MEETING HERE

Present officers, headed by O. C. Brown of Dixonville as president, were re-elected to serve during the ensuing year at the annual directors' meeting of the Oregon Turkey Co-operators held in the county courthouse yesterday afternoon.

Serving with Brown will be John Jendrzewski of Hermiston, vice-president, and J. C. Leedy of Brooks, secretary-treasurer. Between 25 and 30 directors and representatives were present for the four co-operative member organizations, the Oregon Turkey Growers' association at Roseburg, Eastern Oregon association at Hermiston, Central Oregon at Redmond and Southern Oregon at Medford.

Guest speakers were H. B. Griffin, field representative of the Northwest Turkey Growers' association, of which the Oregon group is a member, and B. J. Holmes of San Francisco, sales agent for the northwest group.

The state federation last year marketed 4,100,000 pounds from state growers, representing a 110 per cent increase over any previous year, it was reported at the session. That number is estimated as one-third of the state's total, according to Secretary Leedy.

Leedy also pointed out that the northwest association, which includes groups from several states, handles more turkeys annually than any other single turkey marketing organization. Following the afternoon meeting, the visiting growers were guests of the Southern Oregon association at a banquet at the Eagle Point grange hall. Rosa Kline, president of the local group, acted as toastmaster.

G. E. Ousterhout is secretary-treasurer of the southern Oregon producers and local representatives on the state board.

LADY DETECTIVE SUES RICH YOUTH IN LOVE TANGLE

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—(UP)—District Attorney Byron Pitts tonight informed all parties concerned in the alleged "love captive" case of handsome young Thomas Warner, Jr., that his office intends to press investigation of the incident which brought a $510,000 damage suit against Thomas Warner, Sr., Pasadena millionaire.

While the district attorney continued his inquiry, the highly-anxiously senior Warner went into seclusion, refusing all comment, and junior disappeared, presumably off on a yachting cruise. Pitts' detective said they were hunting him.

Although he declined to say whom they would affect, Pitts said he was looking into the possibility of criminal charges against someone involved in the mix-up.

These developments followed disclosure that young Warner's purportedly had been seen with a photograph of a blonde, Mrs. Jean MacDonald, who loved him or his money. Mrs. Paul Antibus, private detective and plaintiff in the half-million damage suit, said the youth retained her to take the recording.

Her efforts, she said, resulted in Tommy hearing Mrs. MacDonald remark that she loved Warner and "not Tommy's filthy money."

Mrs. Antibus still was confined to a rest home after assertingly purchasing two of 13 district attorney's investigations whom the elder Warner led to her home after informing Pitts his son was a "love captive," designated there against his will. Indignant over the raid, Mrs. Antibus sued.

When Tommy heard of Mrs. MacDonald's declaration of her love for him, the pair had a reunion and Mrs. Antibus did not see them for two days, she said. Another reunion

FARM ADVOCATES DIVIDED 3 WAYS OVER NEXT BILL

WASHINGTON, July 17.—(AP)—Vegetable and potato growers urged today that federal and state governments enact legislation to improve their incomes.

The recommendations came at a time when congressional advocates of farm legislation were divided over the method that should be used in the new bill.

President Roosevelt went over the situation with Chairman Jones (D., Tex.) of the house agricultural committee during the day, but Jones declined to say what was discussed at the conference.

More than 60 representatives of vegetable and potato growing areas who have talked with agriculture department officials during the week urged that special quotas be set up for them under the soil conservation program.

Potato growers said the prospect of a 404,000,000-bushel crop this year threatened "disaster to the industry." They asked the agricultural administration to establish a special committee to work out a federal potato program.

They asked Secretary Wallace to seek legislation requiring all potatoes moving in interstate commerce "be branded, tagged or described in terms of United States grades or as unclassified."

Wallace was asked to seek additional federal funds to improve marketing reports, crop estimates and price studies in the vegetable field. The group said vegetable growers should establish large cooperative marketing organizations able to bargain on equal terms with mass buyers of their products, such as canneries and large retail store chains.

Jones said his conference with the president had no bearing on when he would introduce a long-awaited general farm bill, but that he hoped to have a tentative draft ready for his committee's consideration when it meets in executive session Tuesday.

House advocates of farm legislation at their session have split three ways over production control, though in general agreement with the proposed "ever normal granary" program designed to prevent price fluctuation.

INSTALL LEGION CHIEFS TUESDAY

Installation of newly elected officers of the Medford post of the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the American Legion building.

There will also be an entertainment program, and a Dutch feed will wind up the evening. Frank Hill, Jr., who attended the "Beaver Boys State" near Multnomah Falls the past week, will tell of his trip.

Committee in charge of the program consists of Earl Foy, chairman, and Lee Garlock, Earl York and Goodwin Humphreys.

Bicyclist Clyde Killingbeck of Michigan City, Ind., was struck by two hit-and-run motorists the same day.

with the senior Warner followed, and the Warner-MacDonald romance now reportedly has parental blessing. Both young Warner and Mrs. MacDonald have divorce actions under way.

MYSTERY SHROUDS MURDER OF RICH SOCIETY DOCTOR

PROVIDENCE, R.I., July 17.—(AP)—The theory that Dr. George W. Webster, slain society physician, was killed when he surprised someone using his large brick home on the fashionable east side came tonight from the doctor's widow.

Two shots from a .45-caliber pistol killed the physician at his town house early yesterday.

Twice within a week, when Mrs. Webster said her husband was at the family summer home at Watch Hill, 40 miles away, taxi drivers delivered sandwiches to the Webster home here, the Evening Bulletin reported. A man received them both times.

She said she was "positive" the physician was with her and their only daughter at Watch Hill Saturday night and Sunday morning, and Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

Police, after questioning the doctor's secretary, Miss Dorothea Gilligan, 33, and her roommate, Miss Elizabeth Prince, 25, indicated they had failed to develop new clues and were up against a blank wall. Later Miss Gilligan was released.

"I don't know who could have done this," Dr. Webster murmured to police whom he summoned after the attack. But he died on the operating table before revealing further details.

What turned the questioning of Miss Gilligan took police did not reveal. Meanwhile, they prepared to release Miss Prince, who remained at headquarters overnight for questioning.

Miss Gilligan said police cautioned her to say nothing. Police continued their thorough check of records at Homeopathic hospital, where Dr. Webster was chief obstetrician.

INJURED ALLISON TO PLAY SUTTER

SPRING LAKE, N. J., July 17.—(AP)—Wilmer L. Allison of Austin, Tex., former national singles champion, gained the final round of the annual bathing and tennis club invitation tournament today by defeating Robert Harman of Berkeley, Cal., 6-1, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4.

Allison took the court with his right arm bandaged above the elbow, and his right leg still sore from a spill he suffered in the quarter-finals yesterday.

Harmans erratic play more than offset the physical handicaps under which Allison performed, however, and there was never any doubt about the outcome.

Through his triumph, the 33-year-old Texan won the right to meet 23-year-old Ernest Sutter of New Orleans, national inter-collegiate singles champion, tomorrow for the Clifford Hemphill challenge bowl won by Frankie Parker for the last four years.

OKLAHOMA TERROR NOW IN ARKANSAS

TULSA, Okla., July 17.—(UP)—Roy (Pete) Traxler, one-time Oklahoma desperado, and his two convict companions, who broke from a Texas prison farm eight days ago, were believed to have fled into Arkansas to night after eluding Oklahoma officers in a wild dash for freedom. An automobile, believed occupied by Traxler, Charles Chapman and Fred Tindal, was seen speeding eastward from Kansas, Okla., on highway 33 early tonight.
