

H. Chandler Egan Memorial Fountain Dedication Here August 22

BOBBY JONES TO PRESIDE AT GOLF CLUB CEREMONIES

Tribute To Be Paid Beloved Former Resident And National Champion Here.

Headed by the greatest golfer of them all, Robert T. "Bobby" Jones, Jr., five of the game's leading figures will be in Medford August 22 to aid in dedication of a memorial to the late H. Chandler Egan, nationally famous player and golf architect.

With Jones will be Lawson Little, Horton Smith, Jimmy Thompson and Harry Cooper, coming here to be present at ceremonies which will give expression to the esteem and affection accorded Egan by the world of golf during his three decades of national renown.

Bobby Jones will be the principal figure in the dedication rites, eulogizing Egan, whose career has been closely and brilliantly associated with golf since the game's introduction in this country. The memorial, a fountain designed by Whitehouse and Church, architects for the new Oregon state capitol, is to be placed on grounds of the local clubhouse. It is sponsored by the Rogue River Golf association and is the result of a desire to honor not only a famous sportsman but a man known and beloved by his fellow townsmen.

Added to the impressive dedication rites will be exhibition matches by the visiting champions, conducted as a benefit for southern Oregon golf. The event is expected to attract large crowds of out of town sportsmen and southern Oregon residents.

From the time Chandler Egan won his first championship while a junior at Harvard until his death in the last century until his death in Everett, Wn., in April of 1936 from pneumonia, he was not only one of the foremost players in the country but rose to a position of authority in the field of golf architecture.

Egan started his serious golfing career in Chicago near the close of the last century, advancing to the national amateur championship in 1904 and repeating in 1905. He was western amateur champion four times and led the field in scores of other tournaments as well as placing high in many of the nation's major plays. He proved himself the "grand old man" of golf by achieving a place on the Walker cup team of 1935, four decades after he first stepped on a golf course.

DEAN BREAKS LEG IN SZABO MATCH

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—(AP)—Man Mountain Dean and his hospital cot groaned in unison today as the Waycross, Georgia, giant, his fractured left leg in a cast, announced to the world he is through with wrestling. Dean, whose hirsute adornment of his 317 pounds has tickled the public fancy in the grunt and grimace business for several years, was tossed into the second row of seats at the Olympic auditorium Wednesday night.

Few took his cries of pain seriously at the moment as ten strong men packed him away and the referee raised the hand of Sandro Szabo in token of victory. An x-ray examination, however, showed the fracture.

Commodore Oliver H. Perry, hero of the naval battle of Lake Erie during the War of 1812, is commemorated by the Kentucky county bearing his name.

GEHRIG'S BIG BAT PAGES YANKEES TO WIN OVER INDIANS

CLEVELAND, July 17.—(AP)—Iron Horse Lou Gehrig unlimbered his big war club today, cracked out three doubles off an assortment of ineffective Cleveland pitchers, and drove in five runs to pace the New York Yankees to a 9 to 6 victory over the Indians.

While the tribe was following the order of the day by landing on Bump Hadley and Johnny Murphy for 16 hits and wasting a lot of them, the world champions banged out an even dozen off five flingers, and used all but one in their run-production.

After taking an early lead, the Yanks had their edge wiped out when Cleveland scored in every frame from the fourth to the seventh, driving Hadley to the showers. A three-run rally in the eighth, however, put the game on lee for murderers' row.

Denny Galehouse, the tribe starter, was belted out in the third. Lloyd Brown, who relieved him, gave up three more runs in the fifth on Gehrig's second double and a two-bagger by Henrich. The last three runs, in the eighth, were driven in by Frank Crosetti's double, Red Rolfe's single and Gehrig's third smash.

Score: R. H. E. New York 9 12 2 Cleveland 6 16 1 Hadley, Murphy and Dickey; Galehouse, Brown, Andrews, Heving, Whitehall and Sullivan.

CHICAGO, July 17.—(AP)—Lefty Grove held the White Sox hitless for four innings today, but the Chicago team scored three runs in the fifth and went on to beat the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 0, in the opening game of the series.

Score: R. H. E. Boston 0 5 0 Chicago 4 8 0 Grove, Walberg and Desautels; Whitehead and Sewell.

ST. LOUIS, July 17.—(AP)—Lou Kounpol held the Athletics to five hits today while the Browns were blasting the curves of three Philadelphia pitchers for an easy win, 10 to 2.

Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 2 5 2 St. Louis 10 11 1 Turley, Gumpert, Nelson and Brucker; Kounpol and Hemsley.

DETROIT, July 17.—(AP)—Tommy Bridges, veteran Detroit right-hander, limited the Washington Nationals to five singles today, and the Tigers, led by Charlie Gehringer, batted out a 6 to 0 victory in the series opener.

Score: R. H. E. Washington 0 5 1 Detroit 6 11 0 Deshong, Cohen and R. Ferrell; Bridges and Hayworth.

JENNINGS SQUAD TAKES THRILLER

In the most sensationally played softball game of the year Friday night, Jennings Fire company coped its eighth straight victory by defeating the HUMRS, 2-1, at the high school stadium.

Southpaw Ray Singler and Ken Leavitt hooked up in an amazing pitchers battle, with Singler getting the verdict because of two HUMRS encounters. Piche's blasted four Lamport hurriers for 16 hits and a 25-1 victory. Verbiak, Piche chucker, was stingy with basehits, giving up but seven.

Score: R. H. E. Jennings 2 2 0 HUMRS 1 3 2 R. Singler and Bert Luman; Leavitt and Gitten.

Score: R. H. E. Piche 25 16 0 Lamports 1 7 9 Verbiak and Wilson; Oliver, Schilling, Wood, Lennard and Campbell.

Cub Boss in Hospital Hartnett at Wheel

ST. LOUIS, July 17.—(AP)—Manager Charles Grimm of the Chicago Cubs entered a hospital here today to undergo treatment by Dr. Robert F. Hyland, Cardinal physician, for a sciatic condition. Grimm was stricken in the east several days ago.

While Grimm is out of action, the Cubs will be under the management of the veteran catcher, Usby Hartnett.

COLLINS' TRIPLE, O'DEA'S HIT WINS OVERTIME AFFAIR

Cards Drop Close Tilt To Giants — MacFayden Routs Reds — Pirates Lose.

BROOKLYN, July 17.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs barely managed to hang onto their National League lead today by coming from behind to nose out the Dodgers, 8 to 7, in ten innings, after kicking away a five-run edge.

Their lead remained at three percentage points over the New York Giants, who also won today.

Old Charley Root, rushed into action in the ninth inning after the Dodgers had loaded the bases and threatened to break up the ball game, gave up the tying run, but then held the Brooklyn in check as the Cubs went on to win. Larry French, the Cub starter, pitched shutout ball for five innings, then was clubbed for three runs in the sixth and was belted out as the Dodgers scored three more in the seventh.

The Cubs found Max Butcher easy in the opening frame, scoring four runs. Butcher got as far as the fifth and was followed by three other hurriers, with George Jefferon the loser.

A double by Ripper Collins and a single by Ken O'Dea produced the winning run in the tenth after consecutive singles by Billy Herman, Gabby Hartnett, Billy Jungs and Phil Cavarretta had scored two in the ninth.

The Dodgers, after taking the lead with their big sixth and seventh innings, and then losing it in the ninth, pulled up to a tie in their half on Johnny Cooney's single, Buddy Haise's sacrifice, a wild pitch, a pass and Cookie Lavagetto's fly.

Score: R. H. E. Chicago 8 11 2 Brooklyn 7 10 1 French, Henshaw, Brant, Shoun, Root and Hartnett; Botcher, Hoyt, Jefferon and Phelps.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—(AP)—Diminutive Pinkey Whitney, hard-hitting third sacker, knocked in five runs today with a base on balls, a homer and a double to lead the Phillies to a 9 to 8 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a see-saw game.

Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh 5 17 0 Philadelphia 9 11 2 Swift, Bauers, Weaver, Tobin, Johnson, Brown and Todd; Padden; Johnston, Mulchay and Groce.

BOSTON, July 17.—(AP)—Deacon Danny MacFayden, bespectacled Boston veteran who is almost invincible against Cincinnati, held the Reds to five hits today while hurling the Bees to a 3-0 shutout. It was the Deacon's fifth win and his third straight over the Reds.

Only a week ago at the Randall Island labor meet, Elroy Robinson, California school teacher, tore over the 880-yard route, six yards further than the 800 meters. In 1:49.5. Tonight, after a valiant stand until the last 150 yards, he trailed the ebony streak by about eight yards.

Woodruff's incredible performance was attributed to his opening 400 meters, a distance he traveled in 32.5 seconds. At that he trailed Robinson by a couple of yards.

Track experts were amazed. Ross Bush, University of Southern California star who hovers around the 1:32 mark in most of his races, finished a full 33 yards behind the winner.

Intense heat bothered the scores of athletes from 10 nations.

AMERICANS SPLIT WIMBLEDON PLAY

WIMBLEDON, Eng. July 17.—(AP)—America and Germany, fighting for a crack at England's weak Davis cup defenders, played to a stand-off today in the opening singles matches of the inter-zone finals.

Bryan (Bitty) Grant, the ubiquitous little southern gentleman, bowed to Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, but Donald Budge leveled the series with a straight set triumph over Henner Henkel.

Von Cramm defeated Grant 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. Budge, the Oakland, Cal., youngster who is the new king of world courts, trounced Henkel 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.

DEER SEASON TO OPEN SEPT. 20 AND CLOSE ON OCT. 25

PORTLAND, July 17.—(AP)—The Oregon game commission established September 20 to October 25, inclusive, today for the 1937 deer hunting season.

The bag limit went unchanged. The elk season will open on November 8 and continue through November 18. The bag limit is the same but the elk territory has been enlarged to include a portion of northern Grant county. The commission will announce the exact boundary lines later.

Regardless of any action taken by the federal government in establishing its migratory bird law, the commission will not permit an open season on Oregon doves. The game chiefs reported the birds becoming scarce.

The commission will concur on a federal regulation allowing an open season for pigeons.

The trapping season will run the same as last year, November 15 to February 15, inclusive. There will be a closed season in the fisher and martin because of their limited numbers.

DUSKY CHAMPION CLIPS 2 SECONDS OFF WORLD MARK

DALLAS, Tex. July 17.—(AP)—Lone John Woodruff, the dusky Olympic champion, churned over the 800-meter route in amazing, world-record breaking time here tonight, clipping two full seconds off a five-year-old mark.

Twenty-three thousand track and field fans gathered at the Pan-American games—the south's largest track throng—saw the loping Pitt university star take to pieces a mark first established in 1932 by Thomas Hampton of Great Britain and later tied in 1934 by California's Blazin' Ben Eastman. Woodruff ran the distance in 1:47.8.

L. DiBenedetto, chairman of the National A. A. U. track and field committee and referee of the meet, said officials would aurvey the track for exact measurement Monday, but added that a check yesterday in laying out the distance showed it to be possibly a fraction of an inch off the route.

Only a week ago at the Randall Island labor meet, Elroy Robinson, California school teacher, tore over the 880-yard route, six yards further than the 800 meters. In 1:49.5. Tonight, after a valiant stand until the last 150 yards, he trailed the ebony streak by about eight yards.

UNVEILED DRAGON STILL A MYSTERY, TO MEET STOJACK

Although he will do his grappling from now on without the mask that has concealed his features for the past five months, the Black Dragon prefers to remain a "man of mystery."

Promoter Mack Lillard said yesterday that the Dragon refused to divulge his name, his home town, his past record before coming to southern Oregon, or anything concerning himself.

With that status, the Dragon will enter the open-air ring at the high school stadium tomorrow night to face dynamic Frankie Stojack, the ex-Washington State college football sensation. The two boys, tops among westerners now appearing on the local circuit, will meet in the main event.

In the middle go, Frank Clemens, the Indian "wonder boy" will tangle with Jack LaRue, last week's referee, and in the opener, villainous Dale Haddock will face Carlos Bodriguez, who will be making his first appearance in the northwest. Bodriguez is rated a clean and sensational worker.

Advance ticket sales for the card indicate another huge crowd. Promoter Lillard stated. He pointed out that as usual, the entire grandstand would be thrown open to general admission, including box seats.

Of interest to grapping fans hereabouts is the picture of Cowboy Dude Chick in this week's issue of Life. The junior heavyweight champion of the world, now touring the east, is pictured in a Chrysler motor car advertisement, in which he endorses the automobile.

PORTLAND TAKES PAIR FROM SEALS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—(AP)—The Portland Ducks swept both ends of a double-header with the San Francisco Seals here today, winning the first, 4-0, and the second 5-3.

Ad Licks, underhanded twirler for the Ducks, pitched his second victory of the series in the first game. The northeners hunched three hits for two runs to break a 3-0 tie in the seventh. Bob Cole was the victim.

Joe Hare, newest addition to the Duck's staff, hurled the 4-0 shutout in the first game. Hare held the field to a hits and was effective throughout the contest.

The Ducks scored a pair of runs in the second and came back for two more in the sixth to clinch the victory. Ken Sheehan and Frank Lamanski opposed Hare.

Score: (First Game) Portland 4 12 0 San Francisco 0 4 0 Hare and Tresh; Sheehan, Lamanski and Monzo.

Score: (Second Game—7 Innings) Portland 5 10 0 San Francisco 3 8 1

OAKLAND, Cal. July 17.—(AP)—Taking advantage of ragged fielding by the Seattle Indians here this afternoon, the Oaks put over a 6 to 2 victory for their fourth straight win to clinch the series.

Score: Seattle 2 10 3 Oakland 6 10 0 Gregory, Horne and Spindel, Fernandez; Olds, Haid and Raimondi.

SAN DIEGO, Cal. July 17.—(AP)—San Diego's lead pitchers scored their fifth straight victory over the San Francisco Missions, 5 to 4, here today. Howard Craghead pitched his second win of the series and his 13th of the season.

Score: Missions 4 6 1 San Diego 5 8 1 Osborne, Nicholas and Frankovich; Craghead and Starr.

Fined for Cussing. NEW YORK, July 17.—(AP)—Brooklyn Grimes, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was fined $50 and suspended for three days by Ford C. Frick, president of the National League, today for using "inexcusable and obscene language" in a dispute with Umpire Charles Parker in yesterday's Brooklyn-Cincinnati game in Brooklyn.

JOBS NEEDED FOR CRATER PLAYERS; ON COAST TODAY

Wanted: Three jobs for three extremely valuable baseball players of the Medford Craters, who are right now in the midst of a tough stretch battle for the Southern Oregon League pennant.

Although this is not the classified ad page, files are broken to bring the plea before the eyes of Medford's baseball fans, who have proved their loyalty by making this village the best-drawing in the circuit, and who are pulling heart and soul for big Mike Balkovick and his ball club to bring the second-half hunting to Medford.

The players acutely in need of employment are Duke Hankinson, the University of Oregon student who handles the hot corner in sweet style; Donny Donovan, rifle-armed outfielder, and Alvin Merritt, former junior American Legion hurler. And, they are not particular as to the type of employment. Anything that will return enough to keep them in Medford for the remainder of the season, which has five weeks to go, will be more than welcomed, says Manager Mike Balkovick, speaking for the trio.

Hankinson, arriving here with Bob Smith when school was out at Eugene this spring, has been living entirely on his own money. He hasn't received payment for his playing nor has he been able to locate a job. He said yesterday that it would be impossible for him to remain in Medford any longer if he didn't get work.

The same is true of Donovan and Merritt. Ball players have to eat, and if they can't get jobs in Medford, a city of 13,000, they will be forced to locate where they can, it is explained.

Any of the boys will be glad to interview anyone who might have a job for them, and they wish it emphasized that they are not "choosy" what they do, so long as it will enable them to stay in Medford and help the Craters win the second-half championship, of which they are figured to have an excellent chance.

Today, the club travels to Crescent City for a crack at the first-half champs. Ray Erickson will do the hurling against Mike Koll, Chinook's brilliant left-hander.

Other league tilts will see Roseburg playing at Ashland and Gledendale traveling to Grants Pass.

KEN WILLIAMS IN ALL STAR CONTEST

ST. LOUIS, July 17.—(AP)—The "almost champions"—the Browns of 1922 who came within a game of giving St. Louis its first American league pennant—bowed to the Browns of '37 today, 2 to 1, in three innings before 6,000 fans.

George Sialer, one of the game's greatest first basemen, was on hand. "Hub" Pruiett, who once fanned Babe Ruth ten times, pitched a hitless inning.

"Can you imagine driving 2,500 miles just to play three innings?" asked Kenny Williams of Grants Pass, Oregon, as he jogged out to his old position in left field.

The game was played as an exhibition in Sportsman's park preceding the regular St. Louis-Philadelphia contest. The old Browns were here for a reunion.

George Wolfe, Enid, Okla. carpenter, took 250 hours to build an end table composed of 9,064 pieces of wood.
