

Dragon Will Pit Back-Breaker Against Stojack's Football Tactics

INDIAN PARALYZER WILL FACE LA RUE IN MIDDLE MATCH

Haddock and Mexican Tangle in Opening Event of Open Air Grappling Card at High School Tonight

It will be the back-breaking Boston crab hold of the unmasked Back Dragon versus the crashing Sonnenbergs and dropkicks of dynamic Frankie Stojack tonight in the open air grappling arena at the high school stadium. The two will face off in the main event of what is figured the most interesting wrestling program presented by Promoter Mack Lillard in several months.

Frank Clemens, he of the highly effective Indian paralyzer, will tangle with Jack LaRue, last week's referee, in the middle event; and Dale Haddock, the Los Angeles ruffian, will welcome Carlos Rodriguez of Mexico City to the Pacific northwest. Sammy Kohen, the colorful Jew from New York City, will be the third man in the ring.

Dofts Camouflage
Voluntarily facing his mask off last week for the first time to belt hated Pete Belastro into defeat, the Dragon has announced that from now on he will do his mat work sans the head-covering. He is still a "man of mystery," however, refusing to divulge his name or any other vital statistics regarding himself. Stojack, the popular ex-Washington State football star, has intimated that when he gets through firing pistol maneuvers at the Dragon, the latter won't even know his name.

The brawl tonight will settle a question much discussed in local grappling spots since the Dragon announced his permanent unveiling. Will he continue his meane tactics, around which his attack was built while wearing the mask, or will he do an about-face and proceed in orderly and orthodox fashion? The point has caused no end of conjecture among local mat experts, with the consensus evenly divided.

Cleante vs. Meante
The classic versus meane theme will be carried out in the opening act when Gentleman Dale Haddock, who is no gentleman, faces Carlos Rodriguez, who is one.

The top tangle will be for a one hour time limit or the best two out of three falls, while the first two bouts will be staged under the Australian system, six 10-minute rounds or the best two out of three tumbles.

The program will get under way at 8:30 sharp.

WIN FOR ASHLAND BRINGS LOOP LEAD

Ashland took undisputed hold on the Southern Oregon league's top spot yesterday by belting out a 11-5 win over the Roseburg Pirates at Ashland. Southpaw Bob Hardy gave the Pirates only seven hits while his teammates were blasting George Barr, Roseburg righthander, for 14 safeties.

Darrel Leavens, with three hits, and Cliff McLean and Ted Schoep with two apiece, led the Lithians to their second straight victory in the second-half.

SOFTBALLERS TO REST WHILE GRAPPLERS VIE

Softball at the high school stadium will step aside tonight in favor of the weekly Monday evening wrestling matches.

Tomorrow night, Timber Products will meet Fluhrer's and Fabers will clash with the Catholic Men in Commercial league encounters.

Referee in Wrestler Role

Jack LaRue (above), the wrestler-referee, will see action in the former role tonight at the high school stadium when he faces Frank Clemens, the Indian "wonder boy," in the middle event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly grapple show. LaRue, from Kansas City, Kan., is rated a fast but villainous worker. Last week he was the third man in the ring.

The quartet paced the qualifying field of 24 Portland golfers in the sectional rounds yesterday. Gunst led the field with 76 and 71 cards, which combined with his grand total of 431 recorded in the series of six sweepstakes during the summer gave him 380.

TACOMA, July 19.—(AP)—Jack Kramer, once national boys champion, today was reigning men's singles champion of the Pacific northwest.

The Montebello, Calif., youngster took the title in the 47th annual tournament here Saturday, winning his final match from Edwin Mark of San Francisco, 9-7, 7-5, 2-6, 7-5.

Tiny Cecil Miner, of Long Beach, Calif., won the women's singles title from Joan Bigler of Pomona, 5-6, 6-3, 6-2.

CRATERS PROTEST 4 TO 9 DEFEAT ON CHINOOK DIAMOND

Interference With Fielder in Sixth Frame Basis of Action—Umpires Divide On Play—Near Riot Seen

Playing under protest from the sixth inning on, Medford's Craters lost a Southern Oregon league ball game to Crescent City, first-half champs, 4-9 yesterday at Crescent City.

Manager Mike Balkovick of the Craters and Fred Erickson, president of the Medford Athletic association, team sponsor, said today they would officially file a protest with Ed Lamport, president of the Southern Oregon league.

The play which ignited the fire-works led to the protest occurred in the sixth inning, with the score tied at 2-2. With nobody out, Spann of Crescent City singled, Ralph Deo, Chinook pitcher, lofted a high fly down the first base line, and as Bob Smith, Medford first baseman was set to make the catch, Deo ran into him, knocked him over, and reached first when the ball rolled into the infield.

Umpires Divide.
Sam Van Dyke of Medford, umpiring on the bases, called Deo out for interfering with the fielder. However, the umpire-in-chief, Parish, of Crescent City, ruled the hit a foul ball, and sent Deo back to bat again.

In the meantime, Ray Erickson, Crater pitcher, had picked up the ball and thrown to second base forcing Spann. When Parish sent Deo back to hit again, he also waved Spann back to first base.

Erickson and Balkovick said today the ball was fair by several feet, and the occurrence so upset the Craters that they threatened to walk off the field. A near riot followed, and Manager Balkovick announced that the game was being played under protest.

Ray Erickson worked five and a fraction innings for Medford before being relieved by Larry Pepper in that sixth inning after Crescent City had scored twice to break the 2-2 tie. The Chinooks went on to gather five more tallies off Pepper in the seventh and eighth frames.

BUDGE AND MAKO DEFEAT GERMANS FOR DAVIS LEAD

United States Doubles Combination Score Brilliant Victory in Crucial Test—Series Cinch Seen

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 19.—(AP)—America's young California doubles combination of Don Budge and Gene Mako whipped Baron Gottfried Von Cramm and Heinrich Henkel today, 4-6, 7-5, 8-6, 6-4, and gave the United States a 2-1 lead in the Davis cup interzone tennis finals with two more singles matches yet to be played.

Budge and Mako's brilliant victory in the crucial doubles test was regarded by most tennis critics as an almost certain guarantee that the Americans would win the series and thus gain the right to battle Great Britain for the coveted international trophy in the challenge round starting Saturday.

Even should Henkel defeat Bryan M. (Bitzy) Grant of Atlanta in tomorrow's singles, Budge is considered a virtual certainty to whip Von Cramm for the deciding point.

The red-headed ace from Oakland, Cal., trounced Von Cramm in straight sets recently to win the all-England singles crown and nothing has occurred in the interzone finals thus far to indicate the titled Teuton can turn the tables.

Budge handed Henkel a terrific trouncing in the second of last Saturday's singles matches after Von Cramm had whipped Grant in the opener just as conclusively.

Today's match found the Americans coming from behind in each of the last three sets to snare the vital point most observers believe they needed to clinch the series.

Should the United States succeed in eliminating Germany, the Americans will be overwhelming favorites to defeat Great Britain in the challenge round and thus regain the cup for the first time since France removed it at Germantown in 1927.

ENGEL GIVES SEATTLE VETERANS 11 TO 9 WIN

Engel was the pitcher at the first game played at Portland's Vaughn street park years ago.

The contest is played annually by old-timers living in the northwest.

Fear of Crisis May Keep Roosevelt From Funeral

By H. R. Baukhage
Copyright, 1937, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—The fear of a sudden crisis abroad which might keep the president from leaving Washington to attend the funeral of Senator Robinson at Little Rock can now be confirmed in other quarters.

Preparations for a surprise drive on congress by certain peace groups were uncovered which bolstered reports that officials feared the question of invoking the neutrality law was imminent. The situation in Europe as well as in the Far East, it was indicated, might make this necessary.

The first objective in the carefully organized campaign will be to get two bills out of the foreign affairs committee and before congress. Pressure for action will be brought on the 118 members of the house of representatives who voted for an amendment to the neutrality act prohibiting the export of arms, ammunition and implements of war at all times. This amendment failed to pass, and immediately the Fish and O'Malley bills, incorporating the same ideas, were introduced. These are the measures now in committee.

Members who supported the amendment will be asked to make speeches on the bills on the floor and assist in securing names for a petition to discharge the committee and get immediate action.

To keep these men in line, and to secure additional support, a barrage of literature is being laid down over the country. Frank Gannett, head of an organization which had been exceedingly active in the fight against the court bill, has addressed a letter to every member of congress urging support for the Ludlow war-referendum measure.

Meanwhile, although very little attention has been paid to it, the administration has taken an important step in re-enforcing the machinery laid down in the Buenos Aires treaties for inter-American consultation in the interest of peace.

It has sponsored the introduction in both houses of a bill to amend the neutrality act. The present law cannot be invoked against an American republic fighting a foreign nation. The proposed measure would not exempt any of the new world republics from the provisions of the act if a consultation of all the other Americans decided that it should not be.

There has been no official revelation of the seriousness of the news from abroad, but if the situation is as grave as indicated, the shock attack of the pacifists is more than a
