Young Artists to Be Heard Friday

Three young Medford musicians will appear in concert in Meany hall, University of Washington campus in Seattle Friday, when the third annual high school institute of music holds its final concert of the season. It was learned here today.

Medford artists are Miss Hope Hammond, Paul Hughes and Gerald Keese, who have been studying for the past five weeks under the direction of George C. Kirschner of the University faculty.

Intensive orchestral training, supplemented with general musical education, has been given 125 high school musicians of Oregon and Washington.

Local music circles are acquainted with the work of the three valley artists and their progress is of much interest here.

Miss DeLoach is Medford visitor.

Arriving from the south this morning was Miss Katherine Ann DeLoach of Aberdeen, Wn., who is stopping here en route to her home after a vacation visit in Sacramento, Calif.

Miss DeLoach is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, and her cousin, Mrs. Charles Buchanan. Among entertainment planned for the visitor is a trip to Crater lake. Miss DeLoach will be here for the remainder of the week.

NEIGHBORING ELKS WILL AID MEDFORD CONVENTION PLANS

More than 500 delegates from all parts of the state are expected to attend the annual Oregon convention of Elks' clubs, which will be held in Medford, September 24, 25 and 26, according to Ernest L. Scott, secretary of the local unit, convention host.

Scott, meeting with members of the Klamath Falls lodge last night, reported that enthusiasm was at high pitch in the Pelican city, with an attendance of over 100 pledged from that order. Discussion centered on the "Days of '49" feature, which will take place on the night of September 25. Klamath Falls, Scott said, would send its band to the convention.

A meeting of officers of the four southern Oregon lodges—Medford, Ashland, Klamath Falls and Grants Pass—will be held in the Ashland temple next Sunday afternoon to perfect plans for the state convention. Although Medford is host, the other lodges will assist and participate in the program.

Committees were appointed recently by the local lodge to take care of convention plans, with Fred Scheffel and Everett Brayton named general chairmen.

Committees follow, with the first named acting as chairman: dance, Glen Patrick, C. A. Sander and Lester Price; piano, Guy Phetteplace, Ernest Freytag, Paul J. Quackenbush and Howard Scheffel; program, Don Newbury, Frank Farrell, Larry Schade and Don York; contest, R. C. Burgess and W. F. Quisenberry; cashier, Ray Knips, George T. Fry and Major Morris; lunch, Murray Bell, L. G. Northland and Ken Howard; decorations, E. H. Sleight.

Other committee members are: Capt. O. L. Overmyer, R. C. Stephenson and Louis Jennings; Cort Hall, Gene Orr, Harold Woods and Claude Holmes; Paul Wright and E. W. Winkie; Dick Phair, Earl Sims and Alton Anderson; Dick Milstone and Hobart Price; Stan Sherwood and Lawrence Duff; Howard Scheffel, Elmer Childers, Don Hutchinson and R. D. Coe.

Stellar Circus Sea-Lion High in Animal Education

Buddy Gives His Mentor an Earful

Buddy, the celebrated "talking" sea lion which is coming to Medford on Tuesday, July 27 as Walter Jenner's star performer with Russell Bros. Circus, is "college educated" by all the standards of animal training. This is by virtue of the length of schooling he underwent as compared with the average circus animal.

Often the training of a smart dog for the show ring is only a matter of weeks, and the average horse or elephant is capable of a creditable performance after a few months. Buddy, however, went through 18 solid months of intensive, systematic training before he ever made his initial bow to the public. And he is remembered that Buddy was of higher than normal sealion intelligence at the outset.

The result is that of all trained seal performances, Buddy's virtually starts where the others leave off. The conversations he carries on with his trainer, the imitations he gives of famous persons, and the elegant sense of humor he injects into his acrobatic and balancing feats are just a few points which distinguish him from "the herd."

Every day is Friday for Buddy. Fish not only are his fare seven days a week but compose his breakfast, dinner and supper, and make up all the courses of every meal. Herring is his standby, but he likes some other variety now and then, just by way of change. It is important that his food be of uniformly good quality, and each day, no matter where the circus may be, a fresh supply arrives direct from the cold waters of Lake Superior at Duluth, Minn. Buddy has never become a convert of mechanical refrigeration, and his ice bill when the mercury heads for the 100-mark is something to contemplate!

Now I Eat Potato Salad

Upset Stomach Goes in Jiffy with Bell-Ans

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

...please pass the potatoes

Baked and served with fresh butter ... A GRAND FOOD!

Science has discovered that potatoes provide extra Vitamin C, readily available calcium and phosphorus, and a high content of iron and Vitamin B—all important elements to good health.

Interesting information, but not nearly so impressive as a great, big baked potato—nice and mealy—its russet jacket bursting—steaming hot—with a couple of pats of fresh butter, some salt and pepper... that's really something to eat. Yet, this is only one of a hundred ways of preparing and serving this marvelous food.

Nowhere are such excellent potatoes grown as in the higher altitudes, the mountain valleys, the great plains of the West, and the Pacific Coast slopes. All of these regions are served by the Union Pacific Railroad.

Efficient, rapid railroad service—specialized cars for safe shipment—brings potatoes to your table from this area every month of the year. Among the nation's railroads Union Pacific is in the front rank as a transporter of potatoes. Last year Union Pacific moved 41,422 cars of the world's staple vegetable—the nutritious, economical potato.

SISKIYOU SECTION OPEN IN AUTUMN

ASHLAND, July 21.—(Spl.)—The first section of the new Siskiyou highway route will be completed and open to traffic by the end of September, Engineer P. P. Whitmore said Tuesday.

In addition to the first two miles of concrete paving, six more miles have been given rock surface and five of these miles have been oiled, with the latter process still going on. Biggest part of the new route will be the blacktop non-skid type of paving.

Meanwhile, other workmen have begun on the new Talent-Bear Creek route, engaged now in putting in curbs and digging the footings for a new bridge over Wagner creek just south of Talent. The bridge will be concrete and 40 feet wide, the same width as the road. Hill Lind is in charge of the crew on the latter project. Grading is expected to begin shortly.

A total of 27,209,579 persons entered the United States from abroad by auto in 1936—3,584,094 came by water.
