COURT BILL DEAD FOR PRESENT TERM

By H. R. BAUKHAGE
 (Copyright, 1937, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)
 WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—Offer of assistant majority leadership of the senate to Pat Harrison, defeated candidate for the No. 1 post, is a definite part of the strategy for healing the Democratic party breach over the court bill.

The matter may not have been discussed when Senator Barkley and Senator Harrison lunched, by special invitation, at the White House Wednesday. Late in the afternoon Senator Barkley denied that he had as yet given consideration to the question of choosing an assistant.

But the story of the offer is fully substantiated, and you can stick to it whether Mr. Harrison regrets or accepts.

If Senator Harrison accepts the assistant leadership it would help the administration in two ways. First, it would secure the active co-operation of an effective and forceful personality and, second, it would regain the support of some of the Mississippi's more ardent followers who might otherwise nourish a grudge.

It might be added that heretofore the office of assistant leader has been more or less of an official post. It is not elective. The leader simply goes up to a colleague and asks him to help out.

Senator Barkley's victory by one was a surprise.

The administration was positive it had a six-vote margin. Senator Harrison's followers were certain they had it in the bag.

Anti-administrationists insist the vote reveals a nearly fifty-fifty split in the Democratic party.

Disinterested observers insist that it is no indication of alignment for or against the administration, nor yet the line-up on the court bill, though the latter affected the vote in this way:

Many senators who might have voted for Senator Harrison on the basis of seniority or friendship—though on that score it would be hard to choose—felt that since the court oppositionists were committed against Barkley they must stick on the definite pro-court side of the fence.

As the record of the court fight has unfolded since the death of Senator Robinson, it has revealed the world "compromise" written more and more clearly upon it. Gradually it is being realized that the word is an unspoken prophecy of the dead leader.

Only a very few, however, have the significance of this revelation.

The second chapter of the story of Senator Robinson's plan can now be added to the first, mentioned in this

FRON ON EXEMPTING FRESH FRUIT WORKERS

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The house labor committee refused today to exempt workers in the fresh fruit and vegetable industry from regulation under the administration's wage and hour bill.

It voted, 11 to 8, against adoption of an amendment by Representative Randolph (D., W. Va.) which would have prevented application of the measure to workers employed in all phases of growing and marketing perishable fruits and vegetables.

VOTE BY SENATE SENDS MEASURE TO COMMITTEE

Solons Stand 70 to 20 for Virtual Demise of Roosevelt Plan — New Bill for Lower Courts Only

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The senate virtually killed President Roosevelt's supreme court enlargement proposal today for this congressional session.

It voted to send the administration court bill back to its judiciary committee.

The vote for returning the measure was 70 to 20.

The committee was instructed to prepare a new measure affecting the lower courts only and report it to the senate within ten days. The new measure, based on an eight-point program worked out in committee this morning, would not affect the supreme court in any way.

Motion by Logan

Senator Logan (D., Ky.) made the motion to return the bill to committee. He acted upon instructions from the judiciary committee, with whose plan of ending the court dispute both administration chiefs and leaders of the court bill opposition were reported to be in substantial agreement.

The judiciary committee action came after administration leaders had

Civil Liberty Committee Accuses Chicago Police

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The LaFollette civil liberties committee said today Chicago police used "excessive force" and showed "the most careless indifference to human life and suffering" in breaking up a Memorial day demonstration of steel strike sympathizers.

The report, filed with the senate by Chairman LaFollette (Pro-Wis.), followed a committee investigation of the encounter near the gates of the Republic Steel plant, in which ten demonstrators were killed, and scores injured on last May 30.

(A coroner's jury, sitting in Chicago, returned verdicts last Tuesday holding the deaths to be "justifiable homicide.")

The committee found that "the police attack came without warning" after "the first shots" came from a police revolver.

The report said speakers at a strike mass meeting, just before the clash, asserted that nothing occurred "which could be even remotely construed as an incitement to assault the police or to capture the plant."

"We find that the provocation for the police assault did not go beyond abusive language, and the throwing of isolated missiles from the ranks of the marchers," the committee asserted.

"We believe that it might have been possible to disperse the crowd without the use of weapons."

The committee added that "on contradicted photographic and oral evidence, corroborated by the admissions of the police themselves, established that their treatment of the injured was characterized by the most careless indifference to human life and suffering."

"Wounded prisoners of war might have expected and received greater solicitude," it related.

"By the frank admission of all the police, no attempt whatsoever was made to render first aid on the field mass meeting, and dying strikers were unceremoniously thrown into police patrol cars along with uninjured prisoners."

WIFE AND CHILD OF CLIFTON SIGN FULL REPUDIATION

Mrs. Alma Clifton, who ten days ago, in a statement to the district attorney, charged her husband, Claire Elmer Clifton, with a statutory offense against his own ten-year-old daughter, late yesterday completely and fully repudiated in a signed and sworn affidavit her original accusation, as "false and a terrible injustice." The child also recanted her original statement, in an affidavit.

Mrs. Clifton in the repudiation, attributes her first statement and its serious charges to "my excessive jealousy." The daughter, in her affidavit declares, "I do not know why I said these things against my daddy."

Medical examination of the girl, corroborates the repudiating affidavit. District Attorney Frank J. Newman said.

Clifton, employed by a local federal agency as a bookkeeper, was released from the county jail last night on his own recognizance, subject to call, and with the understanding he remain away from his family for the next week. Clifton asked the privilege of remaining in the county jail nights to show good intent, but the request was denied, the district attorney said. Clifton further stated according to the authorities, he "would continue to support my family, but will not go near them."

District Attorney Newman declared "the case is the most tragic and baffling that ever came to my attention" and "I will probably voluntarily move for a dismissal of the charge next week."

The original statement of Mrs. Clifton was signed, and each page initialed by her, but not sworn to, the district attorney said. The repudiating affidavits were signed, sealed and sworn to by mother and daughter.

MEDFORD BOY IS HERO IN ALASKA

WARREN, Alaska, July 22.—(AP)—Jonas Elving, 21-year-old fisherman of Medford, Oregon, who jumped fully clothed into the Naknek river Monday to rescue Betty Neville, 15, was praised today by oldtimers for his luck as well as his heroism.

Betty, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Neville, Seattle, slipped into the river while leaping from one boat to another. She couldn't swim. Mud filled her clothing and weighed her down and the swift, 18-foot tide, rushing in, carried her under a tug boat.

Elving reached her and the pair were flung out as the tide swirled them by a fishing boat manned by Capt. T. O. Nordale of the vessel Pawik.

Old timers said "overboard fishermen" in nearby waters seldom came out safely.

LOCAL OFFICIALS GIVEN AUTHORITY IN CHINA CRISIS

TOKYO, July 22.—(AP)—On the eve of the 71st special session of the parliament which opens tomorrow Japan finds herself facing one of the gravest periods in her history. The outcome may determine the fate of the empire, the fate of China and the future of all eastern Asia.

The whole nation of 100,000,000 people and all the might of the empire are mobilized for a struggle against China. Within the last 10 days Japan has rushed thousands of reinforcements to China and is prepared to dispatch thousands more if necessary.

Patched Up Truce.

It is generally agreed that yesterday's patched-up agreement between the local Chinese and Japanese officials in north China is merely a temporary regional truce which does not preclude further serious events. The truce called for the withdrawal of the Chinese forces from Peiping and the area west of the city where they have been fighting with the Japanese since July 7. The central Chinese government at Nanking has already rejected this agreement.

In no way does this agreement affect the graver national issues between the Tokyo and the Nanking governments. It was chiefly for the purpose of forcing a settlement of these major disputes between the two countries, observers declared, that the Japanese government dispatched its powerful army and navy units to China.

What Results.

For the dispatch of so large and so costly an expedition the Japanese will expect concrete results—and these results must come in the form of a solution of the outstanding problems between the two countries.

Among these issues are:

1. Joint Sino-Japanese suppression of communism;
2. Abolition of China's nation-wide boycott against Japanese and Japanese goods;
3. Recognition of Japan's political and economic trade rights in north China;
4. Joint economic development of north China by Japan and China;
5. Establishment of Japanese airlines and airmails in China (Japan grants no such reciprocal rights to China);
6. Settlement of and reparation for a whole series of alleged acts of violence suffered by Japanese nationals in China at the hands of Chinese.

SENATE COMMITTEE APPROVES BILL FOR ADMINISTERING DAM

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The senate commerce committee approved today legislation providing for administration of the Bonneville power and navigation project, on the Columbia river.

The measure provides for an administrator appointed by the secretary of the interior with authority to build transmission lines and sell power created by the dam.

The war department will operate the dam, powerhouse, shiplocks and fishways.

The bill, as amended, is virtually the same as one which will be considered by the house tomorrow.

The committee wrote into the measure the language of the house bill providing for a study of Boulder dam power rates with a view to revision if they are found discriminatory in the light of schedules to be set up at Bonneville.

Japan Faces Grave Crisis With Entire Nation Set For Struggle With China

Outcome May Determine Empire Destiny, Fate of China and East Asia Future; Results Must Justify Expense

ACTION EXTENDS CHEAP INTEREST IN COMING YEAR

Upper Chamber Follows Action of House in Disregarding Roosevelt's Wish — Barkley Asks Defeat

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The senate enacted over President Roosevelt's veto today a measure to extend "emergency" interest rates on farm loans.

It voted to override the veto 71 to 19, more than the two-thirds majority required. The house previously had overridden Mr. Roosevelt's veto 260 to 98.

The new law extends for one year the 3 1/2 per cent rate on approximately $2,000,000,000 of federal land bank bonds and provides for a four per cent rate the following fiscal year. It also reduces from five to four per cent for two years the interest on about $800,000,000 of land bank commissioner loans, secured largely by second mortgages.

Barkley Opposes

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, in his first major speech as majority leader, urged unsuccessfully that the veto be sustained. He said the bill would impose a $40,000,000 annual burden on the treasury.

"If we continue this interest subsidy as a government policy on farm loans," Barkley declared, "it will be difficult to resist the same kind of request from Home Owner Loan corporation borrowers and other government debtors."

"And if we should yield to their request, the treasury would be forced to shoulder the annual burden of $200,000,000 to $300,000,000."

McNary for Overriding

But Senator McNary (R.-Ore.), minority leader, told the senate he was "not in favor of trying to balance the budget with funds from the farmer who has a mortgage on his farm." He asserted the president had made "no substantial effort" to balance the budget.

Vetoing the bill, Mr. Roosevelt contended there was "no justification for continued government subsidy" of the farm debtors.

The average rate in the loan contracts with the approximately $40,000 farm borrowers was about 8.07 per cent during the debate.

DRIVERS FLOCK TO OBTAIN FREE TEST OFFERED BY A. A. A.

Sponsored by the Oregon State Motorists' association and the secretary of state, the AAA driver testing equipment arrived in Medford this morning and put many auto drivers through the 17 tests in the county courthouse auditorium this afternoon. The equipment will be at the same location tomorrow morning from 9 until 11:30 a. m. The tests are given free.

LaVerne Johnson of the American Automobile association, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., is in charge of all tests. He is being assisted by Cecil Parsons, John Quilling and the Wintermute from the secretary of state's office.

The tests, given with the aid of elaborate equipment, include examinations of vision, hearing, reaction time, agility strength, blood pressure, glare resistance, color blindness, field of vision, distance judgment, mental alertness, knowledge of safe driving, excitability, manipulative ability, power of observation, eye dominance and attitude. In fact, all phases of driving are tested, the complete routine of which takes about 10 minutes.

Johnson said that 14,000 persons have taken the tests since last September. All results are tabulated at Washington, D. C., for the purpose of securing information for analysis, in order to determine which tests measure best those characteristics most closely associated with safe driving.

MISSOULA, Mont., July 2.—(AP)—Two men perished in a forest fire which is raging through 400 acres south of here, the forest service reported this afternoon.

Officials at headquarters here said they had been advised the dead were Lee Coy and Ray Van Sickle, sawyers at a lumber camp.

MEETING TO VIEW PLAN FOR EXHIBIT

A luncheon-meeting will be held in the Hotel Medford tomorrow noon to go over plans which the Shasta Cascade Wonderland association has prepared for an exhibit at the world's fair and international exposition in San Francisco.
