Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP) Backwardness of steels and motors clouded the silver lining of today's stock market and many recent leaders retreated behind minus signs.

At the same time, a number of specialties displayed a disposition to tilt forward and numerous issues held the ground they won last week.

The stimulation of good earnings statements and the possibility congress will adjourn shortly, brokers thought, appeared to have faded somewhat.

Transfers were around 900,000 shares.

The Morning After Taking Carter's Little Liver Pills

'MISSING' MINER SAFE, SOUND AS HUNT CARRIED ON

Preparations for a widespread manhunt were abruptly terminated this morning when the object of the search showed up, none the worse for a night spent in another camp.

Bob O'Farrell quit work at a mine to go to his camp at Donnamore Meadows in northern California at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was merely to arrange the camp to weather the storm that had just broken and was to return immediately to his mining operations where two colleagues awaited him.

He failed to return, however, and his companions sent out a call for help. His partners, a Siskiyou county deputy sheriff, his friend, Victor Marshall, manager of the Schuss Vintage company here, and others searched for O'Farrell all night.

Meantime, O'Farrell had become lost. He walked and walked without finding his camp. Darkness overtook him and presently he stumbled into the Slotick Brothers' mining camp on Ward's fork of the Applegate river. Tired from his wanderings, he was given accommodations for the night. His own camp was only two miles away.

This morning O'Farrell notified the Star ranger station of the Rogue River national forest that he was all right and word was relayed by the station to his camp and Siskiyou county authorities.

Meantime, however, a search party was being organized at the Oak Knoll CCC camp. The party was about to set out when word was received that O'Farrell had checked in.

LONE PINE CHILD IS RESCUED FROM IRRIGATION DITCH

Little Reva Nordstrom, four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Nordstrom of route 4, was saved from drowning Saturday afternoon in the Medford irrigation ditch by the heroic action of Ralph Nichols Jr., 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nichols of route 4.

Reva, according to a friend of the family who talked with her mother, was playing with several youngsters on the Lone Pine Hill road near the Lone Pine school above Pierce's greenhouse. Sitting on the plank bridge which spans the ditch, Reva apparently slipped, and fell over backwards into water over her head.

Danny Graham, 12, a playmate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Graham of route 4, attempted to rescue her, but as he was not a strong swimmer, was unable to do so. The swift-running current in the 30-foot wide irrigation ditch drew the little girl under twice, and she was about to go down for the third time when Ralph bravely jumped in the water and pulled her to safety. Ralph, a larger boy than Danny, is an excellent swimmer.

Mrs. Nordstrom, who was in her home a short distance from the bridge, witnessed the rescue. She was attracted to the scene by the screams of Reva's sister Gladys, 11 years old. She arrived just as the Nichols boy was pulling Reva from the water.

Little Reva, although frightened by her experience, was uninjured. No resuscitation was needed, and in an hour the little girl was playing with her friends again.

DALY WINS TRIP BY TRUCK SALES

Joe Daly, vice-president and assistant general manager in charge of truck operations of Walter W. Abbey, Inc., local automotive dealer, will leave Medford Friday by plane for a two-week trip to Canada with all expenses paid.

Daly won the trip by finishing 37th in a national sales contest sponsored by the White Motor company, which ended recently after six months of hot competition among dealers throughout the country. The local man sold 31 units amounting to over $150,000 during the contest, and became one of the 75 members of the 1937 White club. His sales were made to logging concerns, contractors and general trucking outfits.

At Cleveland, Daly will join a special train chartered by the White Motor company, and with others of the 75 top salesmen in America, will proceed to Montreal, where on August 2 they will board a luxurious liner of the Canadian Steamship Lines. The ship will sail up the St. Lawrence river to Murray Bay, P. Q., where a gala outing will be enjoyed and a huge sales meeting held.

The local prize winner expects to be gone about two weeks.

Great Del Mar Here Thursday For Show On Holly's Program

The Great Delmar, hypnotist and escape artist, who comes to the Holly theatre stage in person Thursday night for a three-night engagement, has so much confidence in his ability to escape from any and all sorts of shackles, that he invites anyone to bring their own handcuffs, locks or shackles if they so desire, and defies anyone to be able to find one from which he can not escape. He has never failed yet.

In addition to his well-known escape act, Delmar is recognized throughout the world's theatrical circles as one of the best of hypnotists, second only to the late Herbert Flint. Anyone in the audience is invited to go on the stage to try pitting their will against his hypnotic powers. Much fun and amusement is gained by the audience in watching those skeptics who venture to try their luck. Now on his 23rd annual tour, this is Delmar's first northwest appearance.

A complete screen program will augment the stage show.

Gable and Loy Star In Craterian Drama

The tensely human story of a love that affected nations is drawn vividly in the fictional drama of "Parnell," at the Craterian theatre, with Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in the starring roles.

Gable and Miss Loy are superb in their respective roles as the fiery Irish leader and the beautiful Katie O'Shea, whom he loves beyond any fame or fortune that political power might bring.

The supporting cast is one of the most impressive ever assembled for a picture. Included are Edna May Oliver, Billie Burke and Alan Marshall.

The story describes the historical rise of Parnell, who was the only man ever to unite the 86 members of the Irish party in a struggle for home rule. His love of Katie O'Shea, a married woman, the scandal which results when her estranged husband, Willie O'Shea, divorces her, and the collapse of Parnell's political career, are closely followed with all of their dramatic qualities.

"Trader Horn" Back For Rialto Showing

Mighty drama of a primeval world, of atavism rampant in almost unknown spots of the globe; thundering adventure, strange rites of a savage people in the jungles—these are the background of an everlasting story of devotion, love and romance, in "Trader Horn," gigantic filmization of the famous book, which played a return by popular demand engagement at the Rialto theatre today where it will stay for three days.

There is drama that grips the heart in the play—and drama equally as gripping in the savage death dance of the wild Isorgi—a ceremony thousands of years old in the pathless jungle that the picture brings, with sound and all, to the screen. The weird chants, the tom-toms, the swaying, painted black bodies in strange cadence—it is never to be forgotten.

Harry Carey gives a magnificent performance in the role of Trader Horn, the guardian of Peru, his friend's son, and of the golden haired Nina T, "White Goddess" in a temple of a savage tribe. Duncan Renaldo plays the role of Peru convincingly.

"Spain in Revolt," daring and authentic film depicting the actual life and warfare of the civil war now being fought in Spain, is on the same program.
