Miss Gutchell Arrives Home
Being greeted by a wide circle of friends among Medford's younger set is Miss Gloria Gutchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Gutchell.

Miss Gutchell arrived home yesterday from Seattle, where she has been attending the University of Washington. She received her degree from the university at commencement exercises early in June, remaining for the McCash-Utterback wedding later in the month at which she was an attendant.

Miss Gutchell continued in the northern city for early summer social activities before coming south. She expects to be at her home here for a part of the remaining summer season.

Former Resident Is Visitor Here

Renewing old friendships and acquaintances here is Alice D. English, former Medford resident now living in San Francisco.

Miss English is spending a week vacationing here with friends. For the past two years she has been studying sculpture with Charles Porta, Milano, Italy, sculptor. Several of her statuettes have been displayed at San Francisco exhibitions, one receiving honors at the annual flower show in the Fairmont hotel.

Others have been shown in the San Francisco art museum. She has also recently completed a mural painting.

Miss English is being greeted by a large number of old friends during her stay.

Miss Overby Is Trowbridge Guest

Recently arrived in the city is Miss Marie Overby of Spokane, Wn., who is among out-of-town residents vacationing here.

Miss Overby is the house-guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge. She plans to remain two weeks. Medford friends are planning entertainment for the visitor during her stay here.

Mr. Rogers at Summer Home

Out-of-town residents vacationing in the valley include Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Klamath Falls, who arrived yesterday. She came to see her new granddaughter, Susan Ann Ravizza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza.

Mrs. Rogers will spend the remainder of the week at her summer home on Wagner Creek.

Mrs. Alexander Guest of Newmans
Visiting in the city this week is Mrs. Spencer Alexander of Portland, who is being entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Newman.

Mrs. Alexander arrived last week from the north and with her two sons, Bobbie and Dickie, has been vacationing at the Newman summer home at Lake of the Woods. They are spending this week in town and will return to the lake with other members of the family this week-end for further vacationing.

Mrs. Alexander plans to spend further time in the city and is being widely greeted by many friends here. She was Miss Marian Newman of this city before her marriage.

Annual Festival To Attract Many

Local residents are showing much interest in the annual Shakespearean festival which opens next Monday evening in Ashland's open-air Elizabethan theatre. Southern Oregon showgoers find the festival a unique and entertaining summer attraction and many who are hosts to out-of-town visitors are making plans to give their guests a view of the colorful dramas.

Location of the theatre in the midst of trees and shrubs of Ashland's Little park provides a refreshing atmosphere for entertainment on a warm summer evening.

WANT HOT DISHES FOR TOWNSENDITE SUPPER

The pot luck supper committee for the Townsendite meeting this coming Friday at the K. P. hall objected to the notice in yesterday's paper stating they do not want all cold dishes as announced, they also want such hot dishes as scalloped potatoes, baked beans, macaroni and cheese, peas or green beans, and plenty of sandwiches.

This supper will be served free of charge to Townsendites and their friends, but those who wish to help with cash to pay for sugar, butter, etc., can do so.

Hail that fell Sunday and Monday in the Fern valley-Phoenix district caused damage running from one to three percent in orchards hit by the storm, according to County Horticulturist G. B. Cordy, who inspected the section yesterday. The Berthel Barnum, A. Hensler, and Ray Ward orchards were hit—the Ward orchard on both Sunday and Monday. According to Cole Holmes, hail insurance was carried by some of the orchardists. Plans for a membership campaign to last three or four months were formulated at last night's regular weekly dinner-meeting of the Active club in the Hotel Medford. Goal will be to bring the club's membership to 50.

During duration of the campaign, two teams, composed of an equal number of present members, will compete, the winning outfit being treated to a dinner by the losing aggregation.

Frank Hull, Jr., who attended the recent "Beaver Boys State" near Multnomah Falls on the Columbia river under sponsorship of the local post of the American Legion, recounted his experiences at the camp and told of the merits of the program.

Dwight L. Houghton, who returned early this week from Olympia, Wn., where he attended the Active International convention last week, said today that he had received unofficial notice of his appointment as governor of district 3, which embraces all of Oregon and northern California. Official notice of the appointment was expected soon, Houghton stated.
