

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Calling Here - Out-of-town residents calling here this morning included Mrs. T. A. Carlton and son Tommy of Prospect.

From Crater Lake - Ernest A. Roedel, publisher at Crater Lake national park, and Mrs. Roedel were Medford visitors last night.

Receiving Treatment - Mrs. B. G. Peart of 40 North Peach street entered the Osteopathic hospital last night for medical treatment.

On Vacation - Wanda Coe, stenographer at the Carl V. Tengwald Agency, is spending a fortnight's vacation at Crescent City, Cal., and other coast resort cities.

Moves Away - Miss Maxine Nichols, a resident of Medford for several years, left this morning for Sacramento, Cal., where she will make her future home.

Home on Leave - Paul L. Thompson, radioman on the U. S. S. Cincinnati, is spending a 21-day leave of absence at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shirley.

Medford Visitor - Steve Fowler, Ashland high school athlete, visited in Medford for a short time today. He is employed this summer at the Frank Hall sawmill on the Dead Indian mountain.

On Audit Mission - L. J. Knox and G. G. D'Albini, certified public accountants, left this morning for Gold Beach where they will make an audit of the Curry county school district. They expect to return the first of next week.

Pythias Social - Tallman lodge 31, Knights of Pythias, will hold a social meeting Monday in its hall at Fifth and Grape street for resident and visiting members. A program will be presented and refreshments served. Last Monday the lodge initiated a class of equires into the knight rank.

Committee Meeting - A general meeting of all committee chairmen for the state Elks convention to be staged in Medford in September will be held in the Elks temple tomorrow night starting at 7:30 o'clock. Purchasing of hats and badges to be worn during the convention will be discussed, as will other convention matters.

Fire Danger Eases - With the passing of electric storms, fire danger on the Rogue River national forest was eased considerably today. Only one new lightning-caused fire was reported and it was confined to a snag at the head of Dead Indian creek. Of the 54 fires caused by lightning Sunday and Monday only four remained this morning to be completely extinguished.

At Gilhouse Lodge - Carl Winneguth, salesman of Glendale, Cal., Mrs. Winneguth and their two children are spending a week at Montana Gilhouse's Rogue river lodge near Tru. He inaugurated the first day of his visit yesterday by catching a 4 1/2-pound steelhead and a mess of smaller trout. He comes to southern Oregon to fish the Rogue river three or four times a year.

More Planes Ordered - Ten additional twin-engine Mainliner transports have been ordered by United Air Lines, Max C. Hense, field manager here, was informed by Chicago headquarters today. The new planes will supplement the company's original order for 30 Mainliners on which delivery will be completed next week, Mr. Hense said. United is today flying more passenger revenue miles than ever before in its history, the Medford manager was informed.

To Highway Meeting - Judge Frank L. TouVelle of Jacksonville left Medford this morning for Portland where he will attend a special meeting of the state highway commission in the Bengon hotel tomorrow night. Judge TouVelle is a member of the commission. Friday night the regular monthly meeting of the commission will be held in the Public Service building in Portland. Delegations from all parts of the state will attend the special session tomorrow night, Judge TouVelle said.

Toastmaster - Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, was today named toastmaster for the banquet to be given in the Hotel Medford at 6:30 next Wednesday in honor of David H. Canfield and E. P. Leavitt, national park superintendents. The banquet will be given jointly by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce and the Crater club. Mr. Janouch's appointment was made by Olen Arnsperger, chamber president. Coyie Briggs, big eruption, is in charge of arrangements for the Crater club. The banquet is to be a farewell testimonial for Mr. Canfield, who is relinquishing his post as superintendent of Crater Lake national park to become superintendent of Rocky Mountain national park in Colorado and a welcome to Mr. Leavitt, superintendent of Lassen volcanic national park, who will succeed Mr. Canfield at Crater.

Marx Brothers Coming In Rollicking Craterian Hit

"A Day at the Races" brings the Marx Brothers-Groucho, Chico and Harpo-to the New Craterian theatre tomorrow in what has been described as maddest, merriest, most amusing piece of Marxmania these intangible comedians have ever delivered to the expectant public. Ethel Muir is the beautiful blonde who is manhandled by the three madmen as they romp through one hilarious adventure after another. Also in the cast are singing Allan Jones and Maureen O'Sullivan.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, July 28.-(AP)-Caught in cross currents of selling, the stock market yielded fractions to one or more points today. U. S. Steel, the pace-setter, led a late decline, dropping around two points after an earlier abortive rally. General Motors also turned in a heavy-footed performance, falling more than a point. For a time around mid-day, aviation and metal shares found friends but later they were left to shift for themselves. Transactions approximated 900,000 shares. Hypnotist On Holly's Stage

Delmar the Great, acclaimed as one of the world's best hypnotists and escape artists, comes to the stage of the Holly Theatre tomorrow night, for an "in person" appearance of three nights (no matinee shows), demonstrating the hypnotic powers that have brought him fame and fortune and using voluntary subjects from the audience for his unique act in which comedy plays an important part. "Exclusive," said to be one of the best newspaper stories to reach the screen, with Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer, Charlie Ruggles, Lloyd Nolan and Ralph Morgan in the important roles, will be shown as the feature picture on the same program. Regular admission prices will prevail.

Interest Is Noted In Gospel Series

Rapidly increasing interest is noted in the special gospel campaign led by Evangelist W. E. Stram at Fourth and Cascade. The speaker's clear, gripping messages are receiving high comment. Tonight the message will be, "Did the Bible Come from God, from Man, or from the Devil?" On Thursday, Mr. Stram will sing the latest edition of "The Prisoner's Song," a song not yet heard in Medford, and will present a Bible address on the same subject. The public is invited to enjoy the messages during the campaign at 8 o'clock nightly. Use Mail Tribune want ads.
