

Canada's Vacation Land Attracts Pleasure Seekers

1

2

3

4

5

6

By transcontinental train, on splendid "Princess" steamships, or in your own car, plan to visit Canada's Evergreen Playground this summer for a wonderful vacation, or an interesting week end. A few of the many vacation spots are illustrated above. No. 1—Playing mile-high golf on the sporty 18-hole course at Banff. No. 2—Riding one of the mountain trails in the Canadian Rockies. The luxurious Banff Springs hotel is seen in the background. No. 3—Through the world's finest mountain scenery, the Canadian Rockies, on an open observation car. No. 4—Aboard a "Princess" liner, noted for typical service and excellent cuisine, for a short salt-water cruise to Victoria and Vancouver, Canada. No. 5—A collection of grotesque Totem poles, fine examples of the handwork of British Columbia Indians. No. 6—Warm salt-water swimming in the great pool at Crystal Gardens, located adjacent to the charming Empress hotel in Victoria, on Vancouver Island. Illustrated literature with complete details on a score of delightful vacation trips is now available at travel clubs or the nearest Canadian Pacific office.

'THE SHREW' FIRST PLAY OF ASHLAND FESTIVAL READY

EL CENTRO, Calif., July 31.—(AP)—Before the horrified eyes of 65 members of the congregation, Fred W. Simmons, 40, prominent El Centro hatchery owner, shot and killed Dr. O. L. Webster, 37, Holtville physician, and then killed himself today at the altar of the Seventh Day Adventist church here. Simmons did the shooting with a .30-30 rifle, just after the Adventists' Sabbath church services ended. The bodies dropped near a placard which read: "The Law of God." Police Sgt. George Bucklin said investigating officers reported Simmons frequently had expressed dissatisfaction with the church and at his wife's conduct with certain members of the congregation. Mrs. Simmons saw the shooting. Members of the congregation told officers they had been unaware of any enmity between Simmons and Dr. Webster.

ALTAR SCENE OF JEALOUS MURDER

PHILLY Labor Riots. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—(AP)—Six guards escorting trucks hauling produce for the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company were injured four seriously, in a fresh outbreak of violence in a truck drivers' strike today. Mr. Trotsky speaking. MEXICO CITY, July 31.—(AP)—Leon Trotsky from his Mexican exile today predicted the Sino-Japanese conflict would hasten "military catastrophe and social revolution" in Japan and that Soviet Russia eventually would give aid to the Chinese.

REVELRY REIGNS AS HOTELS OPEN

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(AP)—June Bates, 44-year-old matron brought here from Oakland today to answer charges of attempting to extort money from John Boles, screen star, lay in jail tonight hoping to raise $1000 bail. Mrs. Bates, who will face arraignment in federal court Monday for allegedly sending an extortion note through the mails to the film personality, also was said to have written similar letters to Buck Jones, cowboy actor of Hollywood, and to Cecil B. De Mille, producer. In the letter to Boles the woman is said to have demanded $500 on a threat of exposing "oope ring" activities.

FILM SINGER IN EXTORTION PLOT

SALEM, July 31.—(AP)—W. P. Bradshaw of Burns filed application today with the state engineer here to appropriate two second feet of water from Diate creek, tributary of Egale creek, for mining purposes in Baker county. Mayor Dore Acts. SEATTLE, July 31.—(AP)—Mayor John P. Dore used the police today to disperse another C.I.O. picket line.

Nail Wound Fatal. PORTLAND, July 31.—(AP)—Stepping on a rusty nail cost Mrs. Olive P. Pritchard, 64, her life. The city health officer said she died from a rare case of tetanus, better known as lockjaw. Writes Mussolini. LONDON, July 31.—(AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain took a direct hand in Britain's foreign affairs today, sending a personal letter of friendship to Premier Mussolini of Italy.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC Dr. E. W. Hoffman CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIAN HAS MOVED HIS OFFICE TO HIS RESIDENCE on the JACKSONVILLE HIGHWAY

HAY FEVER AND ASTHMA SUFFERERS Need Suffer No More JARMIN'S DRUG STORE FREE DELIVERY PHONE 73 - MEDFORD

ARIZONA FELONS ATTEND THEATER, CITIZENS IRKED

FLORENCE, Ariz., July 31.—(UP)—This little desert town was embroiled in heated discussion tonight over a "theater party for 50 convicts from the state penitentiary, given by Warden A. J. Barnes, who described the action as "in the nature of an experiment." No official protests were registered, but Mayor A. A. Brunenkant declared he believed the action "will excite enough public attention to cause a discussion of the matter at the next council meeting." Other officials termed the convicts' presence in the crowded motion picture theater as "a very dangerous affair" and predicted if the "experiment" is repeated "it might bring violent protests." Barnes said all the prisoners, including at least one murderer, were trusted and were accompanied by eight guards besides himself. He said they were driven from the prison on the outskirts of the town to the theater in two trucks and a roll call was made before they returned. Each prisoner bought his own ticket, he said.

RELIGIOUS FAST DEATH OF WOMAN

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(AP)—Miss Aida Zinkan, 63, died at her home at nearby Gardena today after what Mrs. Anna Ashcroft, who lived with her, said was a 53-day fast "for the glory of the Lord." Dr. W. P. Cain, called to attend Miss Zinkan when the fast ended, declined to sign a death certificate and notified the coroner, who indicated an inquest might be held. Mrs. Ashcroft declared the fast resulted from a "call from the Lord, and the Lord had summoned her to be with him." She and Miss Zinkan came to Gardena several months ago from Victoria, B. C., where a brother of the latter, Gleason Zinkan, lives.

PHILLY Labor Riots. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—(AP)—Six guards escorting trucks hauling produce for the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company were injured four seriously, in a fresh outbreak of violence in a truck drivers' strike today. Mr. Trotsky speaking. MEXICO CITY, July 31.—(AP)—Leon Trotsky from his Mexican exile today predicted the Sino-Japanese conflict would hasten "military catastrophe and social revolution" in Japan and that Soviet Russia eventually would give aid to the Chinese.

HARRISON BALKS AT SUGAR TARIFF

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(AP)—Agriculture and interior department spokesmen, in letters to Chairman Harrison (D., Miss.) of the senate finance committee today outlined their objections to pending sugar control legislation. Acting-Secretary Wilson of the agriculture department suggested the deadlock might be broken by dealing in a separate bill with proposed limitations on refining in Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Chairman Adams (D., Colo.) of the senate sugar group, said he believed the legislation would be enacted. Acting-Secretary Walters reiterated the interior department's contention that the refining restrictions were "unfair" to Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

FIVE SEEK HIGH VETERANS HONOR

COLUMBUS, O., July 31.—(AP)—Five candidates were seeking the position of national commander of the Disabled Veterans of the World War as the organization opened its annual national convention here today. The candidates, involved in one of the hottest campaigns since the group was formed, included William F. Darmsel, Albuquerque, N. M. Nearly 8,000 veterans are expected to attend.

BUTTE STRUCK BY HEAVY RAIN, HAIL

BUTTE, Mont., July 31.—(AP)—A torrential rain and a heavy hail storm flooded some basements and damaged roads and gardens in Butte today. Nearby mountains were covered with hail and sleet. In Butte the temperature dropped to 37 degrees above zero during the storm. The precipitation measured 1.34 inches. Army Planes Ready. SALEM, July 31.—(AP)—Plans for handling the 3,000 Oregon officers and men who are to attend the fourth army maneuvers at Fort Lewis, Wash., beginning August 17, virtually have been completed. Major-General George A. White announced here today. Wounded Student Leaves. HERMISTON, July 31.—(AP)—Reginald Bass, Purdue university student who was shot in the jaw several weeks ago, when mistaken by state police officers for one of the John Day bank robbers, has left the hospital here and has returned to his home in Indianapolis, Ind.

SEATTLE POLICE CALLED BY MAYOR TO END PICKETS

SEATTLE, July 31.—(AP)—Police called by Mayor John F. Dore today dispersed picket lines in two Seattle strikes. Patrolmen first moved against the C.I.O. Fur Workers' union and arrested 20 pickets and sympathizers who were charged with disorderly conduct. Ball was set at $25 each. Squads later broke up a demonstration at the Seattle Star plant where Newspaper Guild members are on strike. The group left quietly after charging a "lockout" by the Star management. The Star, against which the Guild filed charges of unfair labor practices, announced it would consider individual applications for re-employment but would not deal with the group.

SHERIFF ACCUSED BY JAIL MATRON

TUCSON, Ariz., July 31.—(UP)—Yvonne M. Bricita, former Pima county jail matron, filed a $20,250 personal damage suit in superior court today, charging Deputy Sheriff Albert Franco assaulted her behind closed doors in her jail quarters. The young former matron's complaint charged Franco "struck her on the face, kicked her, tore her clothing off her and threw her on the floor with great violence." She said she was discharged shortly afterward because her alleged injuries handicapped her in her work.

Wage-Hour Bill At a Glance

WASHINGTON, July 31.—(AP)—Here is a digest of the wage-hour bill passed today by the senate. It creates a labor standards board of five, empowered to fix a minimum wage of not more than 40 cents an hour and to establish a maximum working week of not less than 40 hours in industries preparing goods for interstate shipment. Prohibits employment of child labor in factories producing goods for shipment between states. Excludes farm workers; most railroad employees; seamen; fishermen; those in executive, administrative, and professional positions; and some others. Provides imprisonment and fines for employers failing to comply with standards fixed by the board.

EXTRA CASH CIRCUS When a circus wagon becomes mired, the familiar cry is heard—"Call Out the Elephants." The elephants supply the Extra Power to push the wagon ahead to solid ground. There are times when the family budget becomes sunk in unexpected quagmires, such as emergencies, accidents or medical and dental bills. Whenever your financial going gets rough, call on us. We'll send EXTRA CASH to the rescue. We have a plan for every problem. Discover for yourself how swift and simple it is to borrow here—just your own signature and security. No other signs. Come in, phone or write—today. OREGON & WASHINGTON MORTGAGE CO. 45 S. Central W. E. THOMAS, Mgr. License No. S-137, M-180

Magic Carpet It doesn't matter what you're thinking of buying—a bar-pin or a baby grand, a new suit for Junior or a set of dining-room furniture — the best place to start your shopping tour is in your favorite easy-chair, with an open newspaper. The turn of a page will carry you as swiftly as the magic carpet of the Arabian Nights, from one end of the shopping district to another, up and down in elevators, across busy streets and avenues. Because you can rely on modern advertising as a guide to good values, you can compare prices and styles, fabrics and finishes, just as though you were standing in a store. Make a habit of reading the advertisements in this paper every day. They can save you time, energy and money.